Wants An Explanation
Rise In Police Costs

The May police report showed 16 accidents; a total of 165 summonses, for their own and other departments; 14 thefts; 6 arrests and summonses; and 9 convictions for theft; 5 break-entries and theft; 3 liquor seizures; 3 cases of malicious damage and 4 stolen cars recovered.

Administration and welfare accounts, totalling respectively $32,568.79 and $1,874.40, were approved for payment.

Before the meeting adjourned, Deputy-reeve Lawson Mumberson objected to statements by Councillor Charles Hooper that last year's annual report of the police department had cost $2,000.

Mr. Mumberson pointed out that there was no police report issued last year, and said that if he was speaking of the 1960 annual report of the department, Councillor Hooper was "plucking a figure out of the air."

The deputy reeve demanded that Councillor Hooper present at next week's council meeting, some explanation of the rise in police costs from $70,000.00 in 1960, to over $94,000.00 this year.

An Option To End Wheel Spinning

New car buyers deciding on what options they need or can do without usually never give a thought to one of the least expensive but most useful aids to driving they could have on their cars.

This is known as Positive Traction Differential. It is a special rear axle gear assembly that prevents spinning one wheel on ice or when it is clear of the road. It is so effective that it largely eliminates the need for snow tires, which in actual fact are usually more expensive.

Standard differential gearing transmits power from a single drive shaft to both rear wheels. In itself it is a complicated mechanism because it must have a variable capacity to turn one wheel faster than the other when the need arises, such as in rounding a curve. The outside wheel in a turn is moving faster and the differential equalizes the power drive to both wheels.

This necessary quality becomes a handicap on ice and rough roads however. With one wheel on ice and the other on dry pavement, for instance, all power is shifted to the wheel with least grip, causing it to spin.

Positive Traction is an additional mechanism that doesn't affect the variable action on curves but which prevents spinning by equalizing the pull on both wheels.

Though Positive Traction improves handling of your car, at any time of year, it is naturally most useful in Winter driving. The time to install it however is when you buy your new car, so keep it high on the list as one of the most essential and least expensive of optional equipment.

Lift Yonge Parking Ban

Some of the signs read "no parking anytime" with the arrow pointing towards the stores. Mr. Waters suggested it should read "no parking here to corner."

He also told council the newly installed lights would take care of the heavy Sunday traffic.

Mr. Waters said he travelled north and south on Yonge Sunday night to see for himself what effect the lights had on keeping the traffic flow under control. He informed council the lights were doing an excellent job.

Councillor Al White, chairman of the police committee, said he had spoken to Police Chief R. Robins regarding the signs and assured Mr. Waters the department was attempting to finalize a standard procedure.
