Brilliant Student

James McGhee Wins $1500 B. Of M. Scholarship

A brilliant young Thornhill student - 18-year-old James D. McGhee - has won a $1,500 Bank of Montreal Canada Centennial Scholarship for third-year study at the University of Toronto, the bank has announced.

Jim, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McGhee, 140 Centre street, Thornhill, is specializing in physiology and biochemistry at U of T and has been active in many extracurricular activities on and off the campus.

Current projects include part-time work as a lifeguard and overhauling a 10-year-old sports car, he reports.

Jim's latest achievement follows a similar scholarship last year and a first-year award of $750 in 1960. His award is one of 16 for all of Canada, including three other Ontario youngsters, and represents a major distinction, the bank announcement said.

The current 16 awards are part of the second phase of the B of M's seven-year plan to provide bank-aided university study to outstanding Canadian students. In this phase, each student will receive a total of $4,500 provided they maintain good grades - $1,500 for 1961-62, 1962-63 and 1963-64.

Thus the plan develops progressively each year, and will culminate in 1967, the year of the centenary of Canadian Confederation and the 150th anniversary of the foundation of the bank in 1817.

In all, the scheme provides for a total of 124 awards, ranging upwards from 48 awards of $750 scholarships in 1960 for freshman-year study.

At the conclusion of the present three-year phase in 1964, eight of the 16 B of M-sponsored graduates will be chosen for three-year fellowships of $3,000 a year for postgraduate study anywhere in Canada or abroad.

Then, in 1967, the two final Canada Centennial awards will be made - one in arts and one in science. These two awards will be in the amount of $5,000 to be used for further study anywhere in the world.

Thornhill's Lucky Lady

If the people of Thornhill in general, and those living in the Thornebank Road area in particular, are blessed with an uncanny streak of good-luck in the next while, it will all be due no doubt, to Sally McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McLean of 10 Thornebank Rd. Nine-year old Sally has recently shown a startling propensity for finding four leaf clovers and to date, has located between 60 or 70 of these traditional bringers of good luck.

Sally's talent for discovering these talismans became noticeable about a year ago, but this year she has gone all out - finds them in her own back yard, at the homes of friends and in Thornhill Park.

Sally has generously distributed her finds among her friends and neighbors. The Duder's, the Stubleys and the Poulter's all have one or more four leaf clovers and Miss Dalgleish and Mrs. McBride, Sally's teachers last year at Thornhill Public School also received some. The rest Sally has pressed in books at home - Mrs. McLean reports that they even drop out of her cook-book when she picks it up.

Oddly enough, Sally makes most of her discoveries when she has accidentally left off the glasses she is supposed to wear all the time!

Socials
Food and fun, ingredients for a successful party combined to provide just that when Christine Terry entertained a group of high school friends on a recent Saturday night. A barbecue was the centre of interest and the prospect of eight weeks of tomorrow's free of homework did not lessen the gaiety!

Jean Clarke is visiting her sister Ruth (Mrs. Geo. Boynton) at Woodbridge and will holiday with the Boyntons at Midland and Georgian Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Clark attended the Broome family reunion at Cookstown on the original farm now owned by Mrs. T. Dorsey. Mr. Clark is a fourth generation descendant.

Will Merrill Johnson return from Calgary Stampede wearing a wide Stetson and spurs? The spurs may be superfluous but visitors surely need that broad brim to travel under the bright Western sun.

The Terry family accompanied by Mrs. R. P. Simpson, Vancouver and Jim Curtis, St. Headford, celebrated Dominion Day at Niagara. To give the young members of the family a taste of train travel the party divided, one half going by train and the rest by car and just to make it fair and have a change of scenery they switched places for the return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Calder enjoyed a brief holiday in the Gravenhurst area.

Master Michael Calder is holidaying in Rockwood.

Carolynn Roots, Langstaff, is the guest of Christine Terry and Kathleen Burton is hostess to Henriette van Essen, Willowdale.

Congratulations to Mrs. Geo. Barker who received highest honors at the July meeting of Richmond Hill Horticultural Society. Recognition was for her decorative design and arrangement of delphiniums featuring daisies.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. William Wellman, July 8 and to Michael Calder.

Some people have to really drill for water but not the Rumbles. David and Stewart while repairing the merry-go-round in the valley, dug a post hole and struck water!

Ball Games
Two ball games were played on the diamond on Rumbles Farm between Headford and Victoria Square and Headford and Gormley. Victoria Square was the loser 6-10 and Gormley lost by default, owing to man shortage. The score was 4-5 with Headford making up the team for Gormley.

CLAREMONT: A 17 year old Claremont girl will spend five weeks in Switzerland this summer at Swiss College. Betty Ward will specialize in French there. She is a student at Pickering District High School.

Thornhill Notes

Peace Research Institute
About 150 supporters of the Canadian Peace Research Institute enjoyed an evening of dancing and entertainment at the Bayview Country Club on Friday, June 29th, through the kindness of club member Fred Lett.

Mrs. Laird Joynt, Mrs. R. C. Fairfield, Mrs. M. J. Walker and Mrs. Bruce Marsh were dance conveners and Mrs. Bill Butler assisted with the ticket taking.

Dancing was from 9 to 12. At the intermission, Mark Stone of the Toronto singing trio "The Villagers" entertained with folk songs. He was introduced to the audience by Harry Freedman and thanked by Bruce Marsh. Assisted by TV actress Jill Foster, Bruce Marsh then distributed a number of door prizes. These were donated by various local merchants - Ellie's Uplands Hair Cosmetic, Harley's Drugs, Thornhill I.G.A., Nels Gage, Bill Butler, Kraft Cheese and Simpsons.

Highlight of the evening was an energetic twist contest which was won by Irene and Keith Ryall.

Although the holiday weekend decreased the number of those able to attend the dance, enough profit was realized to make possible a substantial donation to the Canadian Peace Research Institute and tentative plans are already being made to hold another money-raising project in the fall. It is hoped that by then a permanent Thornhill Committee will have been appointed.

Happy Hands Club
Noticed an attractive new stall at the York Farmers Market last week which had a colorful display of attractive aprons, dolls' clothes, oven mitts, woven baskets, crochet work and other attractive samples of various types of handiwork.

On enquiry, I found the work was the product of a group of some thirty or so handicapped people in the Willowdale and North Toronto area called the Happy Hands Club.

The stall was manned by Mrs. A. Wells of Willowdale and her daughter. Mrs. Wells was responsible for the formation of the group which she organized not only to enable these people, who are handicapped in various ways, to enjoy the satisfaction of doing some creative work, but also to help some of them augment their often meagre incomes.

Through the co-operation of a businessman, Mrs. Wells is able to get mill ends of good quality cotton prints at a very reasonable price. Although none of the pieces are more than a yard long, by a skillful blending and matching of various prints and plains, attractive aprons are turned out, while smaller scraps are used for the lovely doll clothes - which sold almost on sight, by the way! The workmanship in the articles is of the best - something I particularly noticed, as I well know how disappointing it is to buy something that falls apart the first time it is washed.

So take a look at the work of the Happy Hands Club this week. You will find the stall on the west wall, just between the two doors.

Holy Trinity News
During the month of July, the rector of Holy Trinity will preach a summer series of sermons on the Beatitudes. The first was on July 8th "The Keys to Humility and Comfort." On July 15th, the topic will be "Under God;" on July 22nd.
