Robin Hood's brief camping vacation was brought to an abrupt end recently when he encountered broken glass on a hill he was negotiating and cut his foot very badly. At Uxbridge hospital a specialist was called to patch him up. He will carry a cast around for the balance of the summer.

Several vacationers returned home recently. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tooley, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tooley, granddaughter Barbara Meads visited Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise, the Rockies and Montana in their travels. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper and Charles Jr., also attended the Calgary Stampede. Later saw points of interest in the States; Mr. and Mrs. E. Bride-To-Be Entertained

It's wedding bells for Betty Patterson and Murray Brown this Saturday, at Brown's Corners United Church.

Last weekend, Mrs. S. R. Patterson entertained at a trout-sea tea for her daughter.

Mrs. Patterson received in a draped sheath of sage green lace and Mrs. Brown chose pink flow-ered sheer. The bride's dress was white moogashel with lace.

In the afternoon, Mrs. S. J. English and Mrs. Harold Stefler presided at the tea table, and in the evening Mrs. James Grass and Mrs. Russell Raymond poured.

Margaret and Patricia Patterson, Mrs. Fred Brown and Lee Bagnell were assistants in the trousseau and gift rooms. The guest book was in the care of Grace Cuff and Nancy Wallen, who will be flower girls at the wedding.

The bride has also been the guest of honor at a number of showers and presentations. Teachers at Robinson Street School, Markham, where she was a member of the staff this year, held a shower at the home of Mrs. Robert Harrington, members of her class gave her gifts on the last day of school, and the staff of Franklin Street School, where the bride taught campfires could easily result in serious outbreak, Department of Lands and Forests officials said.

All Fire Precautions Should Be Observed

Fire hazard in the Lake Simcoe District continues high to extreme and officials are again cautioning all summer visitors and people travelling in the wooded areas to avoid any carelessness with fire.

Lack of rain and continuing warm weather has dried out forest fuels and any carelessness with smoking materials or campfires could easily result in serious outbreak, Department of Lands and Forests officials said.

The seventh fire of the season was reported on Con. 20, Wood Township, in the Severn area, July 8. It was brought under control quickly and only a fraction of an acre was burned over.
