R. Williams Takes Over Maple & Hope Churches

Rev. Ralph Williams, who recently took over the charges of Maple and Hope United Churches, brings a quarter of a century of experience with him to his new post.

Mr. Williams, who comes to Maple from Birchcliffe United Church, Scarborough, has been in the ministry for twenty-five years.

He has served also in Toronto, F. Panola, Holstein, Glen Allen and Lion's Head in Ontario, and for four years as an army chaplain.

Born in Quebec City, Mr. Williams received his BA at Victoria College, University of Toronto.

Mr. Williams has one 24-year-old son who is a salesman in Vancouver. He is planning to visit his son this week.

Tremendous growth and development in the Maple charge is expected by Mr. Williams. It is the largest of the town's three churches.

He expressed regret that the whole church was weakened by lack of co-operation between various denominations. Some communities had far more churches than they could possibly support, he said.

The church's other pressing problem is recruiting more ministers. Many trained ministers go into postgraduate work, teaching or administrative work, rather than into the ministry.

Maple Notes

Because Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerswell have been such wonderful hosts for several years at their cottage at Brock's

Beach, Georgian Bay, the Bible class, teachers and officers of Maple United Church Sunday School look forward to this annual event.

So on July 21 they enjoyed swimming and a picnic supper at the Kerswell's Georgian Bay cottage.

Maureen Johnson and Myra Bloom are having a wonderful week at their CGIT Camp.

League Leaders

In the Tuesday night volleyball league played in the park at King City, Maple is on top with 28 points having won all five games played July 24.

Bond Lake (the team that combined with Maple last year) is breathing down their necks with 26 points.

King, fielding 3 teams rate 17, 15 and 7 points respectively. Even with regular players on holidays, Maple has come up with some top playing.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kopp of Maple, announce the birth of a son, Benjamin Casey, born July 21 at Branson Hospital. Again we're grateful, as we are each week, to Helene Spencer for keeping us posted on the Maple Girls softball team.

The senior girls were rained out for both of their scheduled games last week.

Maple juniors won their game against Nobleton July 24. Margaret Auld was their star player with two home runs. Sparking the win too was Hanne Fyrbø and Penny Thurston, each getting a home run.

On July 26 Maple defeated Oak Ridges 14-7.

Lineup of players for this game were: Penny Thurston, Judy Hopkins, Hanne Fyrbø, Sally Manning, Helene Spencer, Pat Kerr, Julie Goodier, Carol Foster and Marg. Auld. Lynda Rose was scorekeeper.

Library Open

The Maple Library did not close for the summer months. It is open for the same hours during the summer.

Concord Socials

On Dominion Day weekend, Joe and Audrey Boron, Al and Elva Whaley, Warren and Elizabeth Baillie, and their families, combined a camping and educational holiday.

Making camp headquarters at Silver Lake, the group journeyed on to Hull and Ottawa. They toured the two cities and the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa.

Mrs. Annie Snider had as a guest, Mrs. H. Fisher, Philadelphia, recently.

The two women attended the service at Zion Lutheran Church Sunday. The late Rev. H. Fisher was a former Lutheran pastor.

Mrs. Smith, Winnipeg, is visiting her son Roy and his family, Rockview Gardens.

Carole Keffer spent last weekend with Marilyn Tobey, Thornhill, at her cottage on Lake Scugog.

Many Concord residents were sorry to learn of the passing of Percy Snider, Edgeley, last week.

Barbara Orr and Danelle Day enjoyed a holiday at Midland recently as the guests of Mrs. Evelyn Williams.

Swimming Lessons

Children in the area are taking advantage of the Red Cross swimming lessons at Thornhill pool.

Judging by the young swimmer in our house, the instruction is excellent. All that coughing and sputtering should disappear by the time she is ready to swim the channel.

Most mothers are impressed with the single fact that the children do, or at least attempt, just what the instructors tell them to do, with all the confidence of a Marilyn Bell or a Cliff Lumsden.

Issue Summons For Infraction Of Water Bylaw

King City Village Trustees have announced they will enforce the new water bylaw passed July 11, which includes a clause forbidding outdoor watering during dry weather.

Within a few days after passage of the bylaw, to control the use of water supplied through King City waterworks system, trustees issued their first summons to a resident.

The clause regarding outdoor watering prohibits usage except when the board of trustees states otherwise.

Another clause of the bylaw prohibits residents giving away or improperly wasting water.

Other regulations give the water superintendent permission to shut off the water supply from any customer either for repairs or for breach of the bylaw.

A breach of any of the provisions will lead to a penalty of not more than $300 upon conviction.

Edgeley Socials

Members of the Edgeley Women's Institute gathered on Tuesday, July 17 to bid farewell to one of their life members, Mrs. Ed. Phillips and Mr. Phillips on their departure to their new home at Bond Head and presented them with a table lamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips recently sold their home in Humber Summit and on moving on Saturday into Bond Head village, will live within two miles of their daughter, Jean, and her family.

Their moving will bring to an end Mr. Phillips' life-long residency in the area. Mrs. Phillips, who taught at Edgeley Public School in the early 1920's has resided in the same district since her marriage in 1922. During the ensuing years, although they have lived in three different homes, they have retained their same RR 2 Woodbridge postal address.

Their host of friends here wish them much happiness in their new surroundings and their new home.

May We Never Forget
It Never Rains but it Pours
"It is just like 'Old Home Week'" exclaimed Mrs. Nelson Peelar of Orillia last week. It was a day the Raymond Sturats decided to pay the Peelar's a visit. So also did Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bagg and their daughter, Norma Jean and Mrs. Garnet Keffer of Alliston, Mrs. A. Tomkow and Ken of Edgeley and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Abercrombie of Meaford.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Two At Maple

In a setting of all white mums and carnations at Maple United Church, Rev. H. Martin, Thistleton, officiated at the double-ring ceremony July 14 for the wedding of Miss Patricia May Lund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lund, Maple, and Guy C. Morten, Thistleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morten, Kenneth City, Florida, U.S.A.

Following their marriage vows, the bride and groom received communion from Rev. Ralph Williams, minister of Maple United Church.

The bride wore a full length gown of white organza, lined with taffeta and offset with padded Swiss motif.

The bodice was fashioned with garlands of Swiss embroidery framing the portrait neckline, and with short shirred sleeves. Her skirt was bouffant, dotted with the embroidered motifs, falling to a slight sweep below the draped bustle effect. Her silk illusion fingertip over the face veil was held in place by a tiny cap formed of seed-pearl flowers.

She carried a white orchid, mauve garden carnations and baby's breath flowers on her white bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Barbara Baker, Richmond Hill, who wore a street length dress of white organza over yellow taffeta, with a wide cummerbund of yellow.

The bridesmaids were the bride's two sisters, Misses Marylou and Nora Lund, who wore white organza over pink taffeta, and pink cummerbunds.

Their fan shaped nosegay flowers were of yellow roses and white carnations, and pink roses and white carnations. They wore headresses of corresponding bandeaus of small flowers.

Philip Rodgers, Kitchener, was best man and Morley Cameron, Rexdale, and Roy Rodgers, Aurora, ushered the guests.

The 60 guests attended the reception in the Christian Education Rooms of the church where a salad plate luncheon was served by UCV members.

The bride's mother received the guests wearing a beige shantung silk two-piece suit.

offset by green necklace and earrings, with white hat and accessories and a white corsage of chrysanthemums, carnations and baby roses.

The groom's mother, wore a tailored silk brown and white print dress with white trim, of white accessories and a white corsage of carnations and chrysanthemums.

There were many out-of-town guests. The groom's sister, Pat Morten, accompanied his parents from Florida. The bride's aunt and cousin, Mrs. James Padgett and son Arnold, were guests from Lindsay.

Other guests from Islington, Scarborough, Rexdale, Weston, Thistleton, Downsview, Acton, Toronto, Humber Summit, Richmond Hill and Maple, also attended.

The couple left for a cottage on Skeleton Lake. On their return they will reside on Wilson Avenue.
