

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Tommy Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rice, Leisure Lane, accompanied by his grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Rice, left last week to spend the summer months at the Pueblo Hotel, Arizona.

Tommy, a student at Our Lady of Fatima Separate School, would be most interested to hear from any of his friends in the Hill — his address is 14 South 6th Avenue, Tucson, Arizona.

Back from two weeks motor trip to the south, are Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W. Ward and their son Julian, who returned to their Driscoll Road home on Friday, following a week at Miami Beach, Florida, and day trips to Fort Lauderdale and the Cypress Gardens.

Derek Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, was runner-up honor student at the Salvation Army Music Camp at Jackson's Point.

He was second in an original melody contest, 2nd in a harmony theory class and honor student for Bible study. There were 170 students attending this camp.

Derek is 14 and a student at Bayview High School, going into grade 10 this fall.

Mrs. Cicely Thomson returned on Sunday from an advanced directing course held at Albert College, Belleville.

The course, sponsored by the central, western and eastern Ontario drama leagues, was conducted by Dr. Robert Schneideman and attended by twenty representatives from an area including Hamilton, Kingston, Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker, 341 Wenlock St., enjoyed a visit to Sarasota Jungle Gardens during their recent vacation on Florida's lower west coast. The visitors mingled with flamingos and other rare wildfowl from every continent roaming freely in these world-famous Gardens.

Other points of interest in Jungle Gardens were hundreds of unusually colorful tropical plantings, huge Royal Palms bordering jungle trails, and brilliant macaws and cockatoos which pose with visitors for pictures.

A recent and delightful luncheon guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier was Mr. Johnson Olagbaju, who visited Don Head Farms with Mrs. John Phillips of the editorial staff of the Rural Co-operator.

Mr. Olagbaju, a guest in Canada from his homeland Nigeria, has been studying at St. Francis Xavier University, Nova Scotia — an institution noted for its contributions to rural sociology. After participating in Prince Phillip's recent conference he has travelled extensively through Canada.

His visit to Don Head Farms was arranged so that he might view at first hand one of the livestock breeding establishments for which Ontario is well known.

Celebrating their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday last were Mr. and Mrs. N. F. V. Lenton, Weldrick Road, who held an "At Home" and an evening party at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Greenfield, Yongehurst Road.

During the afternoon and evening celebrations, over sixty guests extended their good wishes, and Mr. and Mrs. Lenton received many gifts, flowers, cards and congratulatory messages. Pouring tea and coffee during the "At Home" were Mrs. G. Ellis and Mrs. J. Craigie.

Guests from the Hill included Rev. J. R. F. Moore and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. F. Stapley and family.

Married twenty five years ago on August 12th in St. James Church, Jersey Channel Isles, Mr. and Mrs. Lenton with their daughters Norma Greenfield and Mary, now aged 16, arrived in Canada ten years ago, and are planning their first trip back next year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier returned last week from holidaying at Keltic Lodge, Cape Breton.

Danny Von Besser, 13 years of age, has just returned from St. Jacobs where he spent the last two weeks with his cousin helping on the farm.

Enjoying all the farming activities he is looking forward to a return visit next summer.

Mrs. E. J. H. Redelmeier leaves on Sunday for Winnipeg where she will be attending the Canadian Camp Conference of Girl Guides of Canada.

Mrs. Redelmeier has been appointed Camp Commissioner for Canada, and will commence her new duties on September 1st.

Just back from your summer holidays? Your friends and neighbors will enjoy reading the details of your vacation in "The Liberal". Phone our Social Editor Margot Crack today and tell her all about that motor trip or vacation at the lake. It's simple just phone TU. 4-1105 and ask for Mrs. Crack. The service is free to our readers.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. George Fenwick, Richmond St. on the death of his father, Mr. J. R. Fenwick, who passed away on August 10th in Vancouver. He was in his 90th year.

Mr. Fenwick flew to Vancouver on Monday to attend the funeral services.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crampton and children David and Nicola, accompanied by Mrs. M. Appleton and Eden Anderson, returned on Sunday from Warren, where they holidayed at the home of Mrs. N. Crampton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lagerquist are enjoying a visit from their daughter Mrs. John Maunder of Garmet Falls, Ont., and granddaughter Irene for two weeks, before Mr. John Maunder drives down on holidays to join his family.

During this visit, Irene, now a proud young miss of 3 years, will be flower girl at the Scott-Moore wedding at St. George's Anglican in Willowdale on August 18th. Rene will be wearing a bouffant, mauve nylon dress with matching floral headpiece and socks. She will carry a basket of blending flowers to complete her ensemble.

Mr. Clare Lagerquist will be attending in the capacity of Master of Ceremonies, with friend, Miss Ruth Kromney of Montreal.

When Mr. John Maunder arrives, he and Frida will be visiting local friends for a few days, after which they will leave Rene with her proud grandparents to enjoy a relaxed camping holiday about the countryside.

John, Frida and Rene will return north around September 9th to enjoy a busy fall season. John and Frida have been studying oil painting for some time now. Frida is president and John is secretary of the Nipigon Art Club.

Barbara Pusztai, from London, England, who has been associated with leading beauty salons in England, Montreal, Windsor and Toronto, has now joined the staff of Minerva's Beauty Salon, Yonge St.

Future Pipers?

Bonnie Sue and Sherri Jack of Richmond Hill appear to be very interested in a set of bagpipes held by Flight Sergeant Jack Dyson, Toronto, pipe major of the RCAF Pipe Band. The two youngsters were attending Air Force Day ceremonies at Camp Borden recently when the bagpipes caught their fancy. Sherri won the CNE Baby Contest in 1959. (RCAF photo)

Holidaying in New York this week are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans and family, Rosemary Gardens.

Mr. Norman Lightfoot of Thornhill was guest soloist at the service in Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday last.

Mrs. Margaret Burr and daughter Miss Carol Burr, spent a long weekend in Rochester, staying at the Sheraton Hotel.

Mr. Hugh Wight of Wight's Pharmacy, is at present in Newmarket Hospital where he underwent an appendectomy last week.

His many friends will be pleased to hear that he is making satisfactory progress, and is expected home later this week.

Mrs. Von Besser, Weldrick Road, spent a week in Kitchener where she attended the world wide Mennonite Conference.

Held on Sunday afternoon, it was attended by over 10,000 delegates from various parts of the globe.

"Weather unsettled but scenery magnificent" were the comments of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Taylor and daughter Barbara, who have recently returned to their Cartier Crescent home following a two week trip touring the Maritimes.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Hoover, now a patient at St. John's Convalescent Home, will be pleased to hear that she is still making excellent progress and is now able to receive visitors.

Councillor Al White, Mrs. White and daughters Ann and Mary, returned on Saturday from holidaying at Aragain Lodge, Kashawahamak Lake, near Kaladar.

Mr. and Mrs. Sil Steffan and children, Val and Laurie, Elmwood Avenue, returned recently from two weeks holiday visiting with friends and relatives at their cottages.

For the first part of their holiday they were guests of Rev. John Houston and Mrs. Houston at Haliburton, continuing to Kirkland Lake where they stayed with Mrs. Steffan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Valentine. On their return trip they spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Keffer at Lake Simcoe.

Rev. James O'Neil, Mrs. O'Neil and children, Peter and Mary, are spending the month of August at Lake Windermere, Muskoka.

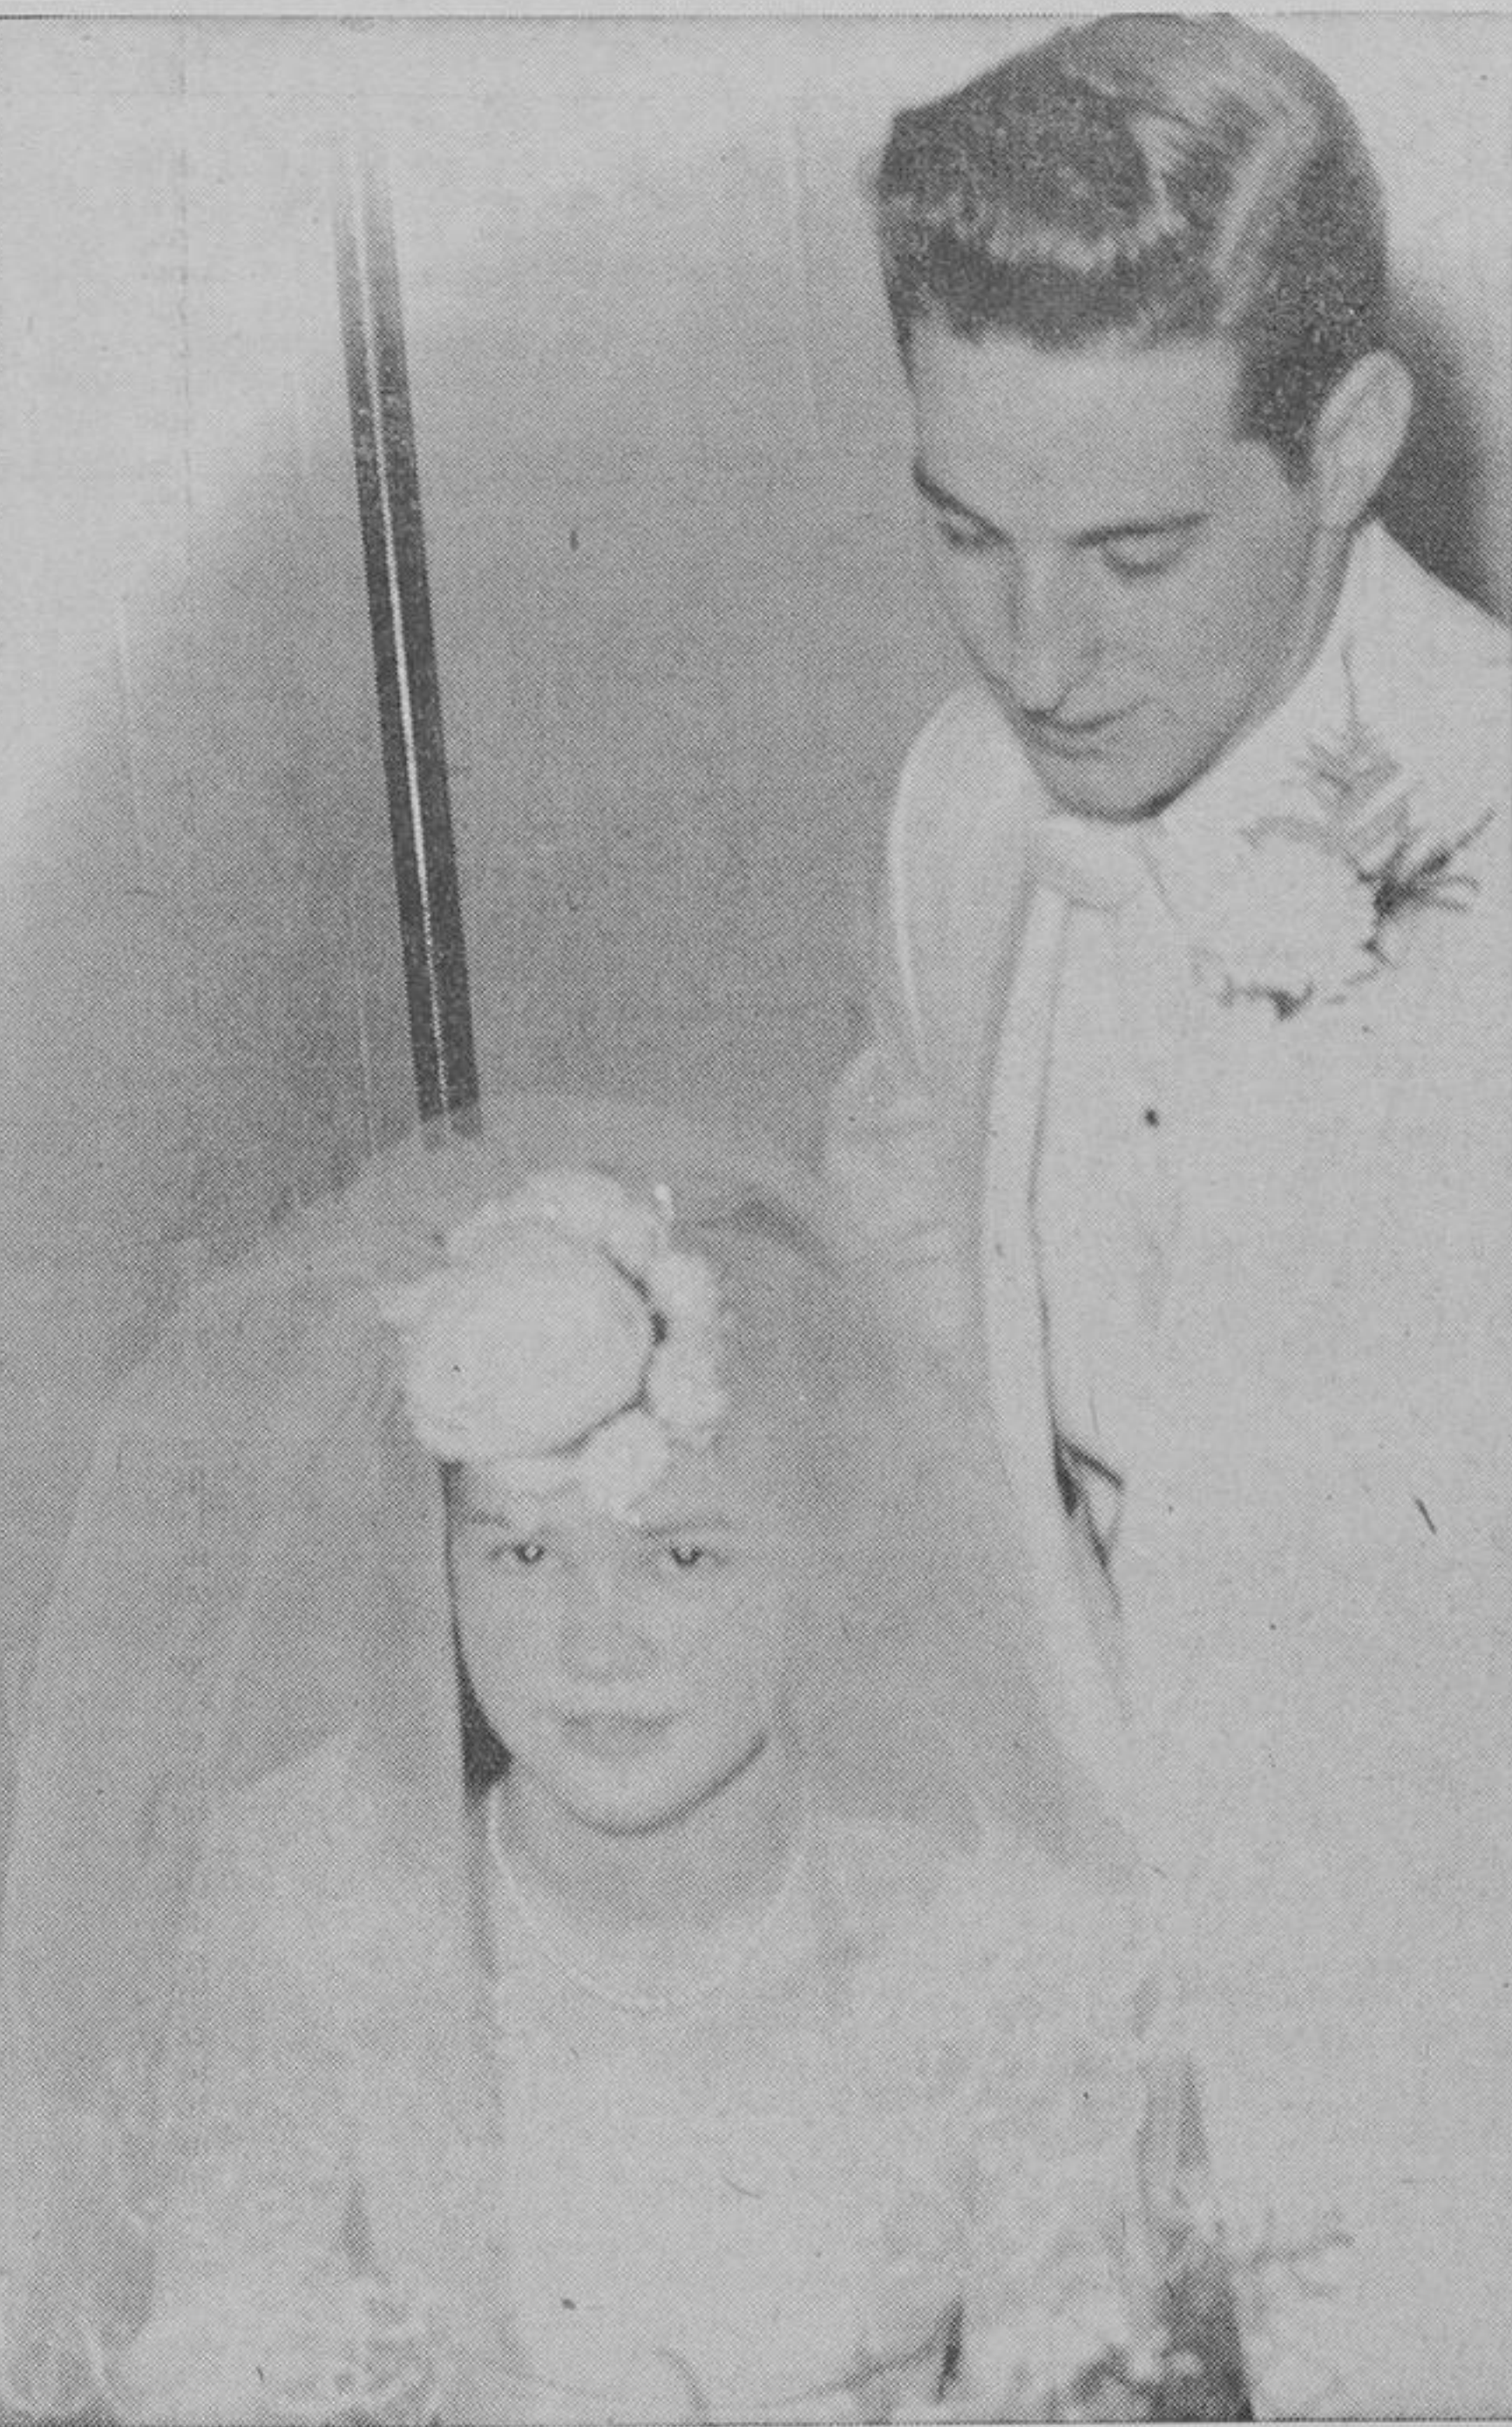

"Two weeks — 3,200 miles — excellent scenery — fine weather — good fishing" — were among the experiences that highlighted the two weeks of holiday motoring enjoyed by the Haggart family, Mayor W. J. Haggart and Mrs. Haggart, Arlene, Paul and Janice.

Heading north, the family passed through North Bay, Timagimi to Cochrane where they veered west through sparsely populated areas — such places as Driftwood, Smooth Rock Falls, Moonbeam through Kapuskasing, on to Nipigon, Red Rock to Port Arthur and Fort William.

Crossing the border at Pigeon River into the United States, a southwesterly route was traversed along the shore of Lake Superior, turning northwest for several hundred miles through almost uninhabited territory, Canada was re-entered at International Falls.

Travelling north, such places were passed along the route as Finland, Nestor Falls, Crow Lake, Sioux Narrows, Whitefish Bay, Longbow, Vermilion Bay, past Red Lake Road to Lake Wabaskang and Lac Seul, the "end of the trail" north. Turning south again, then heading east past Eagle River, Dryden, English River, Sunshine, Kakabeka Falls, through Port Arthur, Nipigon, then traversing a different return route which skirted the northern shore of Lake Superior, passing Terrace Bay, Jackfish, Angler, on through Lake Superior provincial park to Agawa Bay to Sault Ste. Marie.

From this city, the route lay along the northern shore of Lake Huron, past Bruce Mines, Blind River, Espanola to Sudbury, where, turning due south on through Parry Sound and the Muskoka Region, home to Richmond Hill, concluding a memorable holiday trip. The numerous provincial parks visited and enjoyed, are undoubtedly a credit to any province.

Midsummer Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Wheller are seen following their recent wedding in Richmond Hill Baptist Church. The bride is the former Joan Farrow daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Farrow of Pleasantville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wheller of Van Nuys, California. — Photo by Martin Sheffer

Mr. Dennis Moore spent the weekend in Stratford as a house-guest of an old friend, Kate Reid. Miss Reid starred in "The Taming of the Shrew".

On Monday evening he attended Vineland Summer Theatre and saw the production "Bye, Bye, Birdie". Carlton Carpenter of Hollywood starred but co-star, Barbara Findlay as Rose Grant stole the show with her singing and acting. Afterwards Dennis was invited to mingle with the stars in a scintillating coffee hour.

Residents of the Hill for the past twelve years — Rev. Paul Morley, Mrs. Morley, and children, Patricia, Victoria and Catherine left on Friday for Brampton, where Rev. Morley recently accepted an appointment as curate of Christ Church in that town.

Two young Richmond Hill models, Denise and Darlene Harcourt, modelled back-to-school fashions in the Crystal Ballroom of the King Edward Hotel on Tuesday evening, as part of the entertainment programme for the Teachers' Convention being held at the hotel.

Mr. Allan Hill, former proprietor of the Richmond Hill Hardware was a visitor in town this week. Allan and his father George are now operating a hardware store in Creemore.

Midmer Dancers Hit Of Uxbridge

August 6th was a memorable day for the people of Uxbridge and district. This was the day that the "Hollywood Review '62" entertained hundreds in this quiet rural town a few miles from Richmond Hill. Such remarks as "you'll enjoy it" and "I've seen it twice" were heard as the happy throngs left the theatre. A two and one half hour show with over twenty acts captivated the three audiences. Eddie Midmer, local dance instructor arranged and directed eleven separate numbers. Emcee Sammy Taft kept the audience laughing with a repertoire of humorous anecdotes between the acts which included such stars as: the sentimental gentlemen from Atlanta Ga.; Bill Berle, king of the Accordion; Jack Miller, magician extraordinaire; Gordie Emerson, acrobat, who believe it or not supports his near 200 pounds on one finger in a superb balancing act; Patti Burke, curvaceous, lively and lovely who sang, danced, and played the drums; and the lovely young and talented Rhonda Silver, local recording star, who just recently entertained with Perry Como.

The well received review also featured eleven dance acts from the Midmer dancing academy which included the Midmerette dancers; a dance solo by Barbara Pearce; the can-can girls depicted in ballet; modern jazz by seven local youngsters; Melanie Dagger with taps on roller skates; choreographer Eddie Midmer and daughter, Linda; Russian Folk dance; the Charleston girls; the Hawaiian hula dancers; the soft shoe with chorus; and a twist number by the whole company.

Welcome to new residents, Rev. J. R. F. Moore, Mrs. Moore and children Duane and Janice, who moved into 26 Arnold St. on Tuesday.

Previously living in Toronto, Rev. Moore, curate at St. Mary's Anglican Church for the past two years, will be conducting the service this month during Rev. O'Neil's absence.

Mr. Allan Hill, former proprietor of the Richmond Hill Hardware was a visitor in town this week. Allan and his father George are now operating a hardware store in Creemore.

Roma Wins 7-2, Rough Game At Uxbridge

Richmond Hill Roma travelled to Uxbridge last Saturday and defeated the home team 7-2. In a game marred by flagrant fouls on the part of Uxbridge, four of their players were ejected. This is reminiscent of the previous meeting of Uxbridge and Roma when the referee was forced to call the game due to the insulting disregard of the referee's decisions by Uxbridge. It was a no-contest affair as far as soccer skill was concerned, with Richmond Hill opening up a 5-1 lead in the first half, and adding two more in the final stanza. A general free-for-all broke out at the end of the game, in which the referee and a member of the Roma Club was injured.

Uxbridge will forfeit a bond previously posted with the league and disciplinary action may be taken.
