

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Crosby and daughter Gail of Yonge Street South are enjoying the summer at Camp Ken-Dor in Muskoka.

Local lawn bowlers James Grainger and Hugh Yerex came in third in the doubles competition at the provincial tournament held last week at the Balm Beach Club in Toronto. Both lucky fellows won a power lawn mower. In the same tournament on Friday Mr. Grainger came in third in the singles and won a lovely new modern coffee percolator.

For the first time in the history of the Edinburgh Festival, the Supreme Cup for Highland Dancing is leaving Scotland and is coming to Canada.

Miss Ann Gail, 16 year old Canadian girl from Galt, Ontario, a dance pupil of Miss Mollie MacGregor is the winner.

Student Pastor Barry Boeckner To Preach Sun.

Barry Boeckner will be guest student pastor Sunday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Richmond Hill.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boeckner, Maple, and an alumnus of Richmond Hill High School. He is a pre-ministerial student at Waterloo Lutheran University.

This will be Mr. Boeckner's first Sunday morning worship service. He will conduct the liturgy and preach the morning sermon.

Mr. Boeckner is past president of the joint Luther League of Zion Lutheran Church, Maple, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and Bethesda Lutheran Church, Unionville.

Mollie MacGregor To Teach "Fling" At Dennis Moore Dancing School

The Dennis Moore School of Dancing re-opens September 3, at 8 Yonge Street South, Richmond Hill. And with the commencement of another season, something new will be added.

Mollie MacGregor, a Scottish lassie, who comes straight from the Edinburgh Festival held recently in Scotland, is joining the staff of dancing instructors at the Richmond Hill studio of the Dennis Moore schools.

The signatures Mollie MacGregor is entitled to write after her name, sound like the beat of a fast drum; for they read, CDTA, DEA, BATD, SOBH, HDAD, NADAA — and were attained by her for her excellent interpretation of Highland dancing.

So far Miss MacGregor has won 927 medals and 91 trophies, just for Highland dancing.

She is presently adjudicating at the Edinburgh Festival, and

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gleason of Church Street South spent an enjoyable holiday visiting relatives in Renfrew and Killarney.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walsh and family have returned home after holidaying for the past two weeks at the Fern Resort, Lake Couchiching.

An invigorating evening was spent on Monday by the Rotary Club of Richmond Hill, who, with their wives, enjoyed a swimming party prior to their weekly dinner meeting at the Summit View Gardens Restaurant.

Demonstrating life saving and mouth to mouth respiration in the pool were Mr. Dave Boulter and Miss Rita Gilfeather, Red Cross volunteers.

Following dinner, the programme included a film show, showing in greater detail, methods of life saving with mouth to mouth respiration, not only in the water, but for such cases as car accidents, electrical shock and suffocation.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch entertained on Sunday M. Rabinowitch's sisters, Mrs. S. Levine and her husband Dr. Levine from Manchester, England and Mrs. R. Lindsay from Vancouver.

This followed a family reunion on Saturday at the home of another sister, Mrs. A. White in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo McDonald and son Freddie, residents of 438 Bent Crescent for the past seven years, have recently moved to RR 1, Cedar Valley, where they are the proprietors of Hi Dee's Kennel, breeding long and short haired chihuahuas.

Staying with them at the present is Mrs. McDonald's father, Mr. Fred Ring of Toronto, who is recuperating following a fall from a roof, dislocating both shoulders. He is receiving physiotherapy at Branson Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, both members of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Bowling team, are hoping to resume bowling in the fall, but in the meantime extend an invitation to all their friends in the Hill to drop in as they live on the 6th concession east of Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch attended "Lullaby" at the Theatre in the Dell on Friday last.

Prior to the performance they dined at the Dell Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Imeson and their children, Judy and Bobby have recently returned from a camping trip in the Canadian Maritime provinces, spending a day in Quebec City on their homeward trip.

Mrs. W. D. Paton, Driscoll Road, spent the weekend in Montreal visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grosvalet.

On Saturday she attended a bridal party for her sister, Miss Helen Grosvalet, who is to be married in September.

Mr. Alf McDonald, brother of Mr. Leo McDonald, former resident of the Hill, will be flying lead solo with the Golden Hawks on Air Force Day at the Canadian National Exhibition.

A week of holiday and relaxation was enjoyed by Deputyreeve Thomas Broadhurst, Mrs. Broadhurst, daughter Susan 13, and son Christopher 9, at Lakeside Cottage, Lake Elsie, in the Haliburton Highlands.

Guests for the week were Mrs. Broadhurst's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith who are here, in Richmond Hill on an extended stay from Ealing, London, England. Mr. Smith is a retired aeronautical engineer.

The Richmond Hill Co-operative Nursery School will open on September 10th at Wrixon Hall. Mrs. Dorothy Wood will again be the very able supervisor. Two new well-qualified teachers have been added to the staff.

Mrs. McGregor who has had many years experience and Mrs. Harris who was trained in Switzerland and whose fluent French will add to the schools varied curriculum. The children are taken on nature walks during the fine weather and to places of local interest such as the fire hall, library and for pony rides. During the winter the older ones enjoy a regular session at the skating arena.

There is a period of outdoor play each day with plenty of equipment and space. Juice and cookies are served and a rest period is also set aside. There are opportunities for free play with a wide range of toys. Painting and creative work of all kinds are encouraged and there are stories, songs and games to complete a well rounded programme of interest and benefit to the children.

This is a co-operative nursery school where the parents have a part to play in the school's organization and where each mother has an opportunity to be at the school and so learn from the trained staff how modern nursery school methods are put into practice and how each individual child is helped in his or her natural development.

Beloved by young and old alike, "Paw" enjoys good health and still spends several hours daily in his garden, where over the years he has gained a reputation for his fine fruit and vegetables.

His many friends join with 'The Liberal' in wishing him many happy returns and continued good health.

Couple Exchange Vows

On Aug. 11, St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, was the scene as Allan Douglas Giddings married Carol Ann Gettiffe.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gettiffe, Richmond Hill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Giddings, Toronto.

Rev. J. R. F. Moore officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white mist chantly lace gown with a scalloped sabbina neckline, scattered with seed pearls. It had long sleeves coming to a cathedral point on the hand with a full skirt over a net panel forming a redingote effect.

Wide lace bands formed back interest. The bride carried red roses and white carnations in a Victorian posy with white ribbons.

Christine Gettiffe was maid of honor for her sister. She was in a powder blue organza gown and carried a posy of blue cornflowers and white button 'mums.

Bridesmaids were Carol Cunningham and Jeanne Chaplin, who wore primrose-yellow organza gowns with molded lace bodices and caps of white pique and carried posies of yellow 'mums.

Junior bridesmaid was Melanie Dagger who wore a gown of pink organza and carried a posy of pink 'mums.

George King was best man. The bride's mother wore a pink brocade dress with a matching coat and organza picture hat at the reception which fol-

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hetherington and daughter Laurie of Lynett Crescent have returned home following a two week vacation at Gull Lake near Minden.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Allan, New York, accompanied by their daughter Marilyn and son Warren have been holidaying with Mrs. Allan's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner of Richmond Street.

Dr. Dennis Stainer and Mrs. Stainer entertained on Saturday at a housewarming party in their new home on Centre Street West.

Taking full advantage of an empty home — their official moving day being Saturday of this week — over 40 friends and neighbors of the Stainers welcomed them to their new role as homeowners.

Congratulations to Mr. Lawrence Wall, 126 Libby Blvd. who was the winner of a 1962 Chevrolet Bel-Air at the Canadian National Exhibition on Friday last.

A draw for a car is made nightly from tickets issued for the grandstand performance.

Following his recent success in 'Twenty Seven Wagon Loads of Cotton' at Centre Stage, Toronto, Mr. Joseph Rabinowitch has been cast as Juror Number 11 in 'Twelve Angry Men' the opening production of the Crest Theatre commencing September 12th.

Following their return from attending the Lions International convention at Nice, France, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bentham, Lennox Avenue, were involved in an automobile accident in Ottawa shortly after their return to Canada.

Mr. Bentham suffered a broken foot, but is up and around with a walking cast, but Mrs. Bentham is still in hospital in Ottawa, in traction and partially paralyzed. Their many friends extend best wishes for a speedy recovery.

The grand old man of Elgin Mills, Mr. Albert Jones, known affectionately as 'Paw' was the guest of honor last Sunday at a family picnic to celebrate his (August 17th) 88th birthday.

Held in Stouffville Park, over 75 immediate relatives were present to extend their congratulations and best wishes. Also attending was Mr. Jones's sister Mrs. Maria Brown — 94 years young — who received the prize for the oldest relative present.

Beloved by young and old alike, "Paw" enjoys good health and still spends several hours daily in his garden, where over the years he has gained a reputation for his fine fruit and vegetables.

His many friends join with 'The Liberal' in wishing him many happy returns and continued good health.

BACK TO SCHOOL BARGAINS

STURDY PLAID SCHOOL BAGS 79c EACH

20 Yonge St. SOUTH

Opposite Woolworths

TU. 4 - 1853

Tea And Bake Sale Draws Large Crowd

Shown above are some of the ladies at a tea and bake sale held last week by the Richmond Hill Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. C. Harding, Mill Street. They are, left to right: Mrs. D. Andrews, Mrs. A. Fox, Mrs. F. S. Rumble, Mrs. J. Dewsbury, president, Mrs. T. Bowes, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. C. H. Sanderson, Mrs. G. Patterson, and Miss Eva Tracey. Behind Mrs. Fox are Mrs. L. Masters and Mrs. M. Fry.

Miss Sharon Whittaker from Oklahoma City is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. J. E. Himebook, on Cartier Crescent.

Rev. Kenneth Clark of Chicago, who will be guest preacher at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning, is a grandson of Mrs. Thomas Moore of Richmond Hill.

Daniel and Stephen Deagate, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dengate, Lynett Crescent, returned on Sunday having spent the last two weeks with their grandmother, Mrs. H. Liddicoat, at her cottage in the Peterborough area.

Mr. Teodor Wynnyk, proprietor of W & P Service local Volkswagen dealer on Yonge St. N. is enjoying a nine day all expenses paid trip to Germany during which he will visit the Volkswagen plants at Hanover and Wolfsburg. He will also spend several days sight-seeing in southern Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pullen, Kerswell Drive, have just returned from a motor trip to Northern Ontario. They were accompanied by Mrs. L. Knapp and her daughter Irene from Gormley.

The many friends of Mrs. Jack Bayley will be pleased to hear that she is now making good progress following an operation last week at Toronto General Hospital for a cracked knee cap.

Mrs. Bayley is publicity director for the Richmond Hill Women's Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. George Major, Ricky and twins Pam and Kevin of Lynett Crescent have returned home following an enjoyable vacation spent at Gull Lake near Minden.

Leaving for Werl, Germany on Tuesday last was Miss Barbara Turton, daughter of Mr. Kenneth Turton, business administrator of the Richmond Hill public school board and Mrs. Turton, of Mill Street, who has accepted a position as a grade 4 teacher with the children of personnel of the Canadian Army for the next two years.

Miss Turton, a graduate of Hamilton Teachers' College, was previously teaching in Brantford, her appointment in Germany being sponsored by the Brantford Board of Education.

A welcome to the Hill is extended to Mr. and Mrs. D. Crowe from Willowdale, who have recently taken up residence at 438 Bent Crescent.

Mrs. James Winton, 304 Richmond Street, entertained on Sunday afternoon in honour of Mrs. Charles Parsons, Scarborough, who is leaving shortly to take up residence in London.

Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Marion Frankish, Oak Park, Michigan.

"Pleasant memories but very happy to be home again," were Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jaeger, South Fernleigh Circle, who returned last week from a month's holiday with their son Heinz Jaeger and family at his home in Dortmund, West Germany.

This was their first trip back since their arrival in Canada ten years ago. Returning with them was Mrs. Jaeger's sister, Mrs. F. Bruns, who will be holidaying here for the next five weeks.

Congratulations to 10 year old Jimmy Kent, son of Mrs. O. Kent, 90 Bedford Park Ave., on winning a gold medal, $25, and an elementary scholarship in the 6-10 group, at the Music Festival held at the Canadian National Exhibition.

A pupil of Mr. A. Metecchi, Willowdale, Jimmy will be playing with other scholarship winners in a concert to be held on September 3rd in the west auditorium of the grandstand, exhibition grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hannah and children, Michael and Susan, have just returned from an enjoyable two week cottage vacation at Lake Kasshabog, Lakefield.

As a service to our readers, 'Life in the Hill' is always pleased to receive your news items — vacations at the lake, motor trips, guests from out of town, anniversaries and birthdays — make interesting reading. Why not drop us a line at 63 Yonge Street, South, or call the Social Editor, Margot Crack, at TU. 4-1105, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

THE MUSICAL INSTRUMENT OF YOUR CHOICE LOANED FREE

Start Playing Today

Our 8-week Beginners Course at $2.50 weekly includes the free use of an instrument in your home.

Call TU. 4-5272 Today MUNDINGER MUSIC Yonge & Centre Sts. Richmond Hill

At the recent Peterborough Exhibition, Warren S. Ramer collected honors in the Ayrshire group, with both the Senior and Grand Championships on "Netherhill Kathryn."

He was also awarded the Grand Championship in the male division on his Senior Champion, "Sanholm Lucky Ross." Two Reserve Grand Championships and five first prizes were also awarded him.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ashworth and children Ron, Susan and Nancy, Montiel Road, returned on Sunday from two weeks vacation, enjoying a motoring trip around Lake Superior and Lake Huron, visiting friends at Fort William, and spending the remainder of their holiday at their cottage at Tobermory.

Mr. Ashworth is the business administrator of the York Central District High School Board.

LEAN TASTY SMOKED COTTAGE ROLLS LB. 49c

Sirloin Steak LB. 73c

FOR A TASTY SNACK LEAN CORN BRISKET POINT lb. 49c

C. NELS GAGE

BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

DENNIS MOORE.....

C.S.D.A., A.G.V.A.

SCHOOL OF DANCING

TAP - BALLET - BATON MODERN JAZZ - BALLROOM HIGHLAND - TOE

Children 3 Years Of Age & Up

ANNUAL RECITAL AT EATON AUDITORIUM

If You Have THE Child Then This Is THE School

Fully Qualified Teaching Staff

8 YONGE ST. SOUTH - RICHMOND HILL

CALL: TU. 4-2875

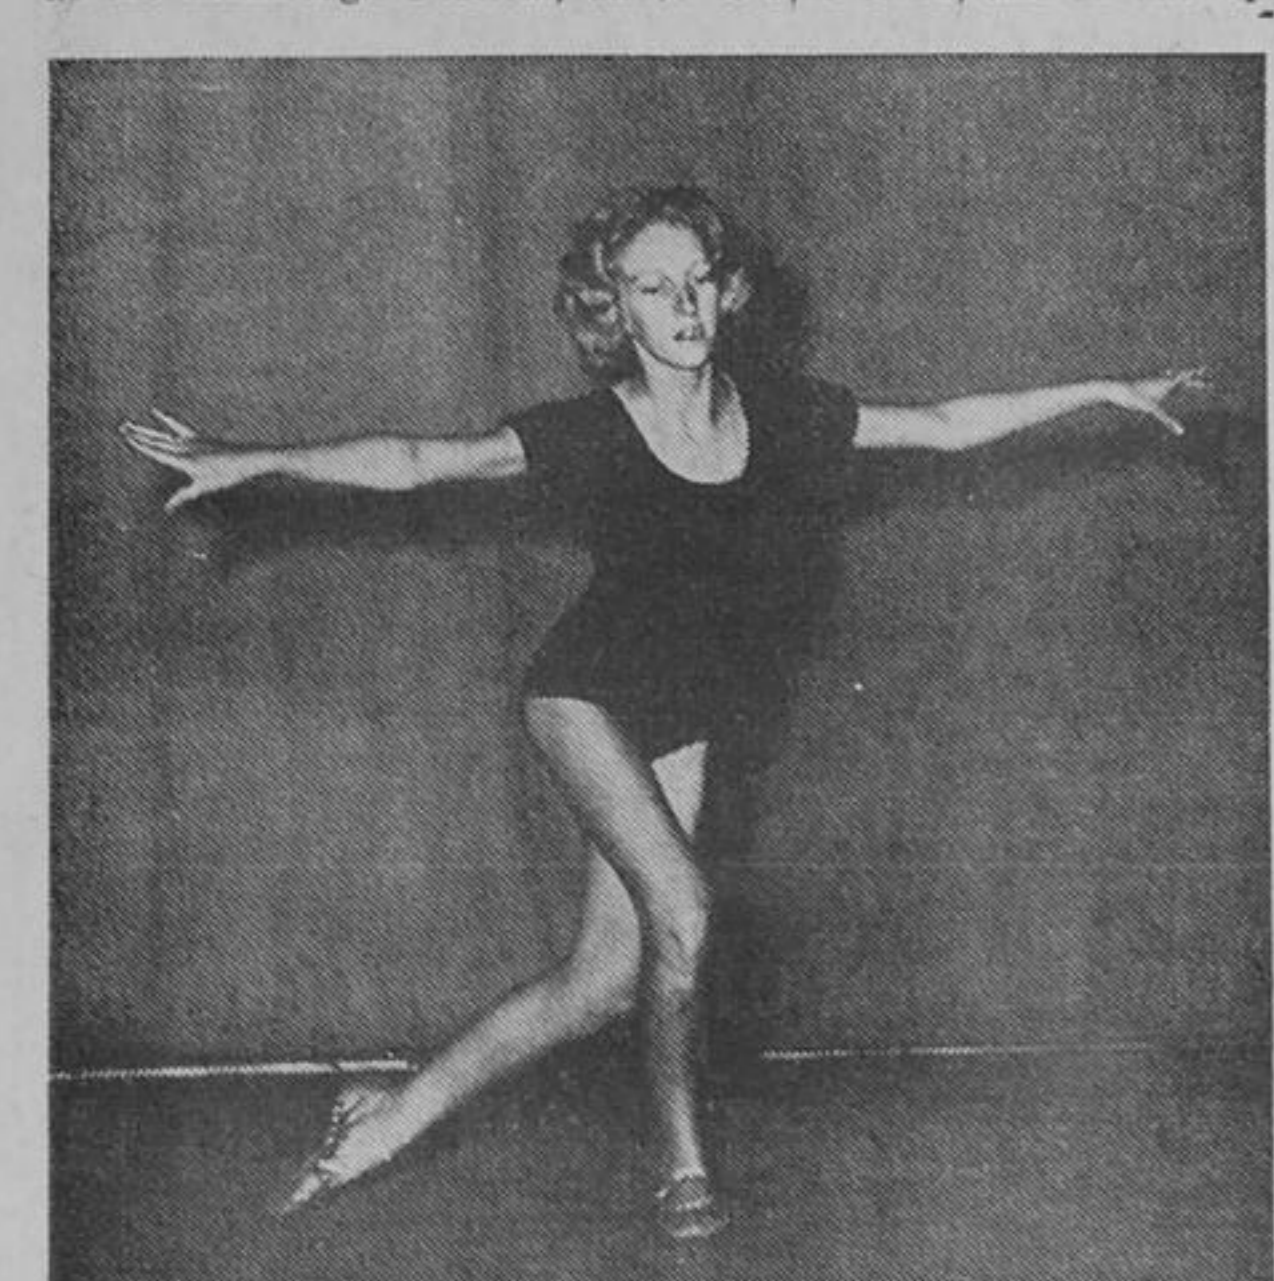

SPECIAL MOTHERS' KEEP FIT CLASSES

BUY LOCALLY AND SAVE MONEY! YOU ALWAYS GET A SQUARE DEAL -- at

BRUCE MACDOUGALL MOTORS

Stop 24 Yonge St. South Richmond Hill Opposite Dunlap Observatory

PONTIAC ACADIAN PONTIAC - BUICK - VAUXHALL G.M.C. TRUCKS GOODWILL USED CARS

Susan Elford, talented ballerina student of Dennis Moore School of Dancing, who swings into her third season in ballet at Dennis Moore's School of Dancing.