

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor and their young daughter Jennifer from Montreal are holidaying at the home of Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Joseph Rainey, Rockport Crescent.

Leaving the Hill on Friday, they will weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor at their home in Kingston, returning to Montreal on Monday.

In November they will be revisiting the Hill to attend the wedding of Mrs. Taylor's sister, Miss Gail Williams, whose marriage to Mr. Jim Brown of Ottawa is taking place at St. Mary's Anglican Church on November 3rd.

Amongst the international visitors to Don Head Farms, recently entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier have been, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox, and their daughters Susan and Janet, from Geneva, Switzerland where Mr. Cox is attached to the I.L.O. an agency of the United Nations; Mr. and Mrs. Willy Perchard and daughter Rosemary, prominent Jersey breeders from Jersey Island, and Mr. Kenneth Barham, formerly of Uganda, where he served as agricultural missionary, presently completing his theological studies in England.

Holiday weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith, Centre Street West, were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Reid and their son Kipling from Elliott Lake.

Bowlers Wanted!
Couples interested in joining 'The Cards' Mixed Bowling League who play every Friday at Allencourt Lanes, please contact Herb Reif, TU. 4-3448, for further particulars.

Visiting the Loyal True Blue and Orange Home over the weekend was Grand Master Warren of Newfoundland, who is G.M. for all Canada with the British American Association.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bork and boys, Ray, Roy, John and Willis enjoyed a week visiting friends and relatives in Ottawa, Pembroke, Arnprior and Sudbury. While in Ottawa they were guests at the Hubert-Timleck wedding.

Mr. Stephen Ker Appleby, Centre Street West, has been appointed director for Brendan Behan's "The Quare Fellow" scheduled for Centre Stage in the fall. The play will be the first production of the Toronto Arts Theatre Foundation.

Miss Barbara Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dean, Vaughan Road, returned on Monday from Long Island, New York, following a ten day cruise from Rideau Lake. Barbara was the guest of Dr. Wendel Hughes and Mrs. Hughes, Roslyn Point, Long Island.

Visiting with his cousins Mr. and Mrs. Harold Monks this weekend was Mr. Norman Ramsey from London, England. Mr. Ramsey was in Canada for the International Radiology Congress in Montreal, and had stopped off in Richmond Hill to see the Monks after an interval of over ten years.

Doing the Twist may be old fashioned these days, but it is featured in a CBC production to be seen this fall. The show is "The Gimmick" by Bernard Slade, and among those taking their exercise in this strenuous fashion will be Mary Monks, who says she got most of her practise at Curtin Club parties last season!

Barry Brent, Hugh Yerex and James Grainger won third prize at the annual trebles lawn bowling tournament at Elora, Labor Day. They received record cabinets as individual prizes. Seventy-six rinks took part in the competition.

Alex Clarke, Morley Hall and Al White were winners of second prize at Agincourt tournament last Wednesday.

An oceanside cottage on the east coast was the holiday locale for four Richmond Hill boys, Ron Ashkanase, Jack White, Colin Craddock and Keith Reif, who arrived home on Tuesday, having enjoyed a leisurely car trip home with various stopovers — their last point of call being Montreal, where they spent a day visiting relatives, friends and sightseeing.

DOUGLAS S. CLARKE
Appointed manager of the F. W. Woolworth Ltd., store at 17 Yonge St. South, Richmond Hill, Douglas S. Clarke assumed his new duties August 1. Mr. Clarke was born and educated in the Toronto area and has been associated with Woolworth's for five years at their Kitchener, Windsor, London and Brampton stores. His wife, Carol Anne, is an English and physical education teacher at Brampton High School. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke intend to move to Richmond Hill later this year.

As a service to our readers 'The Liberal' is always pleased to receive any news item for inclusion in 'Life in the Hill'. Just call the social editor Margot Crack at TU. 4-1105 or drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South.

Much refreshed from three weeks of relaxation and enjoyment of their cottage at Franceville, near Honey Harbour, Georgian Bay, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson have returned to their home on Elgin Mills Road.

"No real fishing this summer - most unusual - must be the excessive weeds that are harbouring the big pike that chase away the large-mouth bass", reported the Thompsons.

Guests for a week were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thompson, Marjorie, Judy, Billy and Brian, from Kingston.

"Links kindness with longevity" was quoted in a headline of the Orillia Packet & Times just received by Mrs. James J. Ley, Richmond Street, in reference to her aunt, Mrs. Sarah (Duncan) Case, as this lady celebrated her 104th birthday in Edmonton.

"Being kind to people surely has something to do with longevity," said Mrs. Case. "If a person is kind, they have fewer regrets, worries and fears. People from Eastern Canada seem to live longer!"

Mrs. Case went to Edmonton in 1906 with her husband and four children. Mrs. Alice Colham, formerly of Newmarket, is a sister — in her nineties — and travelled to Edmonton, to be with Mrs. Case this summer.

A sure sign that fall is upon us is the resumption of rehearsals at the Curtin Club Theatre. Director Rex Sevenoaks is wasting no time, as rehearsals for the season's opening production "A Twist of Lemon" resumed on Tuesday evening, and will continue until its presentation in the Theatre on Oct. 10, 11, 12 and 13; and Oct. 17, 18, 19 and 20.

"Twist of Lemon" is an original revue compiled from material written specially for the club by many well-known writers, and some members of the club who have had previous experience in this sort of composition. The highly original design for the revue is by Mary Donnelly, whose original set for "Ladies in Retirement" was seen in the spring. Doubling as pianist and actor is Dennis Stainer, who is also responsible for some of the material.

A completely new departure for the club, who have hitherto confined their activities to conventional productions, (with the exception of the annual pantomime) the revue promises to provide a sparkling opening to a full and interesting season.

Recently returned from a camping holiday up north are Mr. and Mrs. O. Richards and sons Dennis and Raymond, of Demaine Crescent. Leaving Richmond Hill on Friday night, the first weekend was spent in Grundy Lake Park. On Sunday there was a ski and water safety demonstration which was very interesting.

Starting from Gurd Lake early Monday morning the party continued on and toured the K.V.P. Paper Company at Espanola, then on into Elliott Lake. It's a lovely little town, but so sad to see so many rows of homes boarded up where people have had to leave and look for employment elsewhere. From Elliott Lake the route led to Sault Ste. Marie, where one day was spent to look over the locks and tour the Algoma Steel Company's plant which proved extremely interesting. At Wawa — the new Indian name given to Jamestown — a day was taken to visit the "Big Goose", one of the portals on the Trans-Canada Highway.

Next stopover was at Agawa Bay in Lake Superior Park, where the weekend was spent hiking and sightseeing, the scenery being just beautiful. Father and sons swam in Lake Superior, but found it very chilly.

From this point the homeward journey was started, spending the first night at Thessalon and next morning toured the saw mill at Blind River, reported to be the largest east of the Rockies. Passing through Sudbury, time was taken to watch the pouring of the red hot liquid slag, a fascinating sight.

Continuing on to Ossler Lake, the remainder of the holidays of the Richards family was spent at Ossler Lake, where the swimming was enjoyed to the fullest, compensating for what was missed on cooler days.

Enjoy Trip To Europe

Well known local residents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Little are seen prior to their flight to England, with 25 other happy couples with whom they are now exploring the highlights of London, Stratford-Upon-Avon, Oxford, Paris, Versailles, Rome and other European tourist attractions. The 25 couples are Ford of Canada's dealers and their wives who are taking an all-expenses paid trip as guests of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaye, who with their West Highland terrier, Ch. Dina-Ken's Little Pip, took first place in the terrier group at the Canadian National Exhibition Dog Show.

Spending the weekend at Lakeview House, Jackson's Point, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch attended the Saturday night performance of the delightful melodrama "Murder in the Red Barn" at the Red Barn Theatre.

The regular schedule of two morning services begins again next Sunday at St. Mary's Anglican Church at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The Church School accommodates from 2 to 11 years during the 9:30 service, and infant care and those 12 years and over are accommodated during the 11 o'clock service.

All the young men of the parish who are Servers or Crucifers will attend Evensong at 7 p.m. with a meeting afterwards.

Caribbean Carnival

Pupils Of Miss Ruth Garson To Appear TV

Miss Ruth Garson, A.D.C.M., music teacher for the past 12 years, who, in only a short period of six years residence has brought to this community her vast knowledge of the piano, voice, theory; not only in regular lesson time, but through the M.T.H. Musical Club of which she is the founder. This group has brought to young people a better understanding and appreciation of music, the various instruments of the orchestra, the lives and interests of composers; the concerts, the guest artists who have appeared and performed for this group. Miss Garson, as well as some of the members of this group were interviewed recently on Channel 9, CFTO, and will be again seen on "Professor's Party" show, within the next few weeks. It has been a constant source of pride to Miss Garson, and her students, that those entered for Royal Conservatory Examinations have come through with honors or first class honors. Many have appeared on television from Hamilton and Buffalo; many have received medals and honor certificates from Kiwanis, Peel, York and Woodbridge Music Competition. Charitable groups have never been turned down, when a request has come for some talent to be presented for a worthwhile cause.
