Raising The Flag

Eager faces watch as Constable D. Young of the Richmond Hill Police raises Elmer the Elephant Safety Flag in front of McConaghy School. It will remain atop the pole until there is an accident involving a pupil. Const. Young appealed to the students to exercise every care so they might win the safety award plaque for an accident-free year.

HEADFORD NEWS
Mrs. Loren Guild
R.R. 2, Gormley Phone TU. 4-3040

The September meeting of Headford United Church Women met in the church schoolroom September 11. Mrs. Harry Burton, president, assisted by Mrs. Cummer Lee conducted the devotional period. The secretary recorded forty-two visits as reported. Mrs. William Wellman, corresponding secretary, read thank you notes from several residents for remembrances in time of illness.

An invitation was read from Brown's Corners to attend their Thankoffering Service September 26. An announcement of a conference to be held in Aurora October 30 was discussed briefly, plans deferred until a later date.

Mrs. Elmer Leek reported that the organ fund was within a few dollars of cost. The sale of Christmas cards by the H-C members had been very successful.

Donations for the bakeless bake sale were received and the do without envelopes are due in October.

The members of the UCW will make it possible for the visitors who attend the anniversary evening service to meet after the service and renew acquaintances. Tea will be served in the school room for a social hour.

The motion was passed to donate $50.00 from funds on hand to the church local fund.

Mrs. Lee, convener for the evening called on Miss Elizabeth Barker, who gave an intimate and informal talk on some of her experiences in Britain. She showed a selection of slides of particular interest to women, dealing with homes. Mrs. Wesley Clark expressed the appreciation of the women to Elizabeth.

Mrs. Norman Brodie is convener for the October meeting and the roll call word will be Providence.

The eightieth anniversary of Headford Church will be celebrated September 30. The morning service will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Burton and the evening service by Dr. J. Lavell Smith. The organ will be dedicated at the evening service.

Church and Sunday School met in one service to emphasize Rally Sunday September 16, at Headford. The choir was composed of the Sunday school pupils. Superintendent Stewart Rumble conducted the service of worship prepared around the theme, Hands that Heal in the Name of Christ.

The cover picture on the programme showed a mobile clinic in Korea and the special offering was designated for Wonju Hospital in Korea.

A flower decked arch and gateway was at the foot of the choir steps and as each class was called they passed through the gate to be welcomed by their new teacher who accompanied them to their place in the church.

Mr. Binnington extended congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cummer Lee who had prepared the effective gateway. He said that it was a fitting symbol for the occasion, indicating entry into a new experience.

Mrs. L. Guild told a true story with a Korean setting of the modern miracle of healing carried on by Christian medical men through hospitals and mobile clinics. The story dealt

Circulation Up 27% Over 1961

Circulation at Richmond Hill Public Library for the first eight months of 1962 is up 27 per cent over figures for the same period of 1961.

According to figures contained in a report to town council Monday night, total circulation for the period is up from 136,876 to 173,822 for 1962. In 1960, circulation for the same period was 122,223.

Registration also showed a sharp increase from 1,835 for the first eight months of 1961 to 2,163 for the same period in 1962, about 17 per cent.

The library board's financial report showed receipts to be $200 ahead of expenditures so far. Receipts total $29,345.19, with expenditures at $29,144.34. Budget for the year is $43,064.90.

A town levy of $22,813 and a provincial grant of $4,350 make up most of the receipts. Also included is $1,235.52 paid in fines.

Major expenditures were: $12,468.54 for staff salaries and $8,735.51 for books.

Average price of the 3,104 books purchased by the library was $2.82.
