On Wednesday night, September 19th, the first meeting was held of the newly organized boys' group, the Sigma-C. Boys from 12 to 14 are invited to attend this group, which is under the leadership of Mr. Robert Abbey. Mr. Abbey was recently baptized at the church.

On the same evening, the Explorers, a group for girls and boys of 9 to 11, met in the church. Leader of this group is Miss Carol Ryder.

On Tuesday evening, September 18, the first meeting of the combined W.A. and W.M.S. was held at the church. The meeting began with a pot luck supper. The guest speaker, who was very well received by her attentive audience, was Mrs. Jessie London, an associate editor of Chatelaine magazine. Mrs. London is a member of Donway Baptist Church. She told the ladies that the purpose of Chatelaine is to serve the women of Canada. In order to do this better they spend a great deal of time and effort finding out the needs of their readers. This is often done by means of contests where their readers are invited to express themselves on various subjects. Thus, they have found that some 80% of their readers are middle income mothers of young children. Such information of course guides their advertising policy — they never advertise mink!

Rev. and Mrs. Johnston's youngest son, Leslie, received his degree in Honours Geography from McMaster University in June. He then enrolled for the summer course at the teachers' college and is now teaching at Stoney Creek where he has classes in both Geography and History.

High School News
Thornhill High School was the scene of much frenzied activity last week when election campaigns were in full swing for elections to the board of student senators. The halls seethed with frenzied supporters of the various candidates, clad in a variety of costumes, beating drums and chanting their slogans. (It all seems like a ghastly repetition of the American election campaign, which were unfortunately televised.) At this writing, the outcome of the election was still in doubt. And if the students will show only half this much energy and enthusiasm in tackling their books — look for many scholastic records to be set!

That's all for now folks. How about giving me a call at AV. 5-2331 and letting me know what's going on in your neck of the woods? How about those bowling teams — are you getting set for a busy season. Let's hear about it. And how about that new baby down the street? And the shower you went to last week? These are all news and everyone would like to hear all about it.

Hospital Auxiliary
The next meeting of the Thornhill Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary will be held on October 3rd at Holy Trinity Church at 10 a.m. Mr. Douglas Storms, chairman of the board of trustees of York Central Hospital will speak on the progress of the building of the new hospital in Richmond Hill.

150 people attended a wedding dinner at the Richmond Hill Golf and Country Club, the first reception held in the new clubhouse. Following the dinner, the guests enjoyed dancing. The mother of the bride received wearing a sheath style dress of old rose pea de soie with a floating lace panel at the back. She had matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother chose a jacketed sheath dress of taupe and gold floral brocade. She had a matching hat and accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

For her honeymoon trip to the Dutch East Indies the bride wore a Gino Puoli knitted wool suit patterned in brown and black. With this she wore a black velvet hat with a picture brim and high crown, black gloves and bag and brown shoes. Her corsage consisted of a yellow orchid.

On their return, the young couple will reside in Thornhill.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ALEX ROWAT

Wed In Holy Trinity Church

Historic Holy Trinity Church in Thornhill was the scene of a lovely autumn wedding at 10.30 a.m. on Saturday, September 8, when Rev. H. R. Howden officiated at the wedding of Shelagh Mary Halliday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robson Halliday, Thornhill to David Alex Rowat, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Mackenzie Rowat of 239 Woodland Drive, Oakville. Mrs. R. Markham, at the organ, played traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of white pea de soie and lace with train and a tiny pillbox headpiece with a very full shoulder length white veil. Her bouquet was of white mums and yellow rosebuds. Maid of honour, Miss Sharon Lewis, and bridesmaids Miss Elizabeth Coull, Miss Carolyn Myers and the bride's sister, Miss Donna Rowat, wore knee length dresses of pea de soie. The maid of honour wore a warm rust shade, the bridesmaids were in gold shade and the other in beige. All carried bouquets of yellow mums bordered by tiny rust mums.

Mr. Gerald Rowat was his brother's best man. Ushers were Mr. Ian Coull, Mr. Christopher Goodeve and Mr. George Hough. All male members of the wedding party wore directors' suits. Following the ceremony and a reception held at the Tri-Bell Four Winds Club on Steele's Avenue West, the happy couple left for a honeymoon at Cape Cod, the bride donning a beige suit with brown and beige accessories. On their return they will reside in Willowdale.

Choose Fall Setting

Carol Kuziw Weds Robert Haynes

Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Thornhill, was the lovely setting for the double ring ceremony on September 15th, when Carol Caroline Kuziw, daughter of Mrs. Rose Kuziw of Toronto, became the bride of Robert George Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haynes of 37 Idlewild Avenue, Thornhill.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Leo Cardinal. She wore a floor length gown of gardenia white pea de soie. The fitted bodice had a scoop neckline applied in French lace. The full bouffant skirt ended in a chapel train and the lace was repeated at the back of the gown. With this the bride wore an heirloom, full length veil, with embroidered edges, loaned by her mother-in-law which cascaded from a jewelled crown. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses centered with a yellow orchid.

Attending the bride were Miss Lana Phillips, maid of honour, bridesmaids Mrs. Margaret Vignaux, Miss Eleanor MacFarlane and Miss Helen Witiuk, and junior bridesmaid Sandra Vignaux. They were gowned alike in street length sheath style dresses of silk shantung, the maid of honour in yellow and the bridesmaids in burnt orange. They carried cascades of yellow and rose shasta daisies with wheat and croten leaves. The junior bridesmaid's dress was yellow, full skirted and she carried a small bouquet, similar to the other bridesmaids.

The autumn tones were repeated in the standards of mixed mums and gladioli which decorated the church.

The service was performed by Rev. H. R. Howden. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ralph Markham. Vocalist Mrs. B. Forsythe sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You". The groomsmen were Mr. Kenneth MacFarlane, Ushers were Messrs. Frank Vignaux, Ronald and Maurice Williamson and Robert Haynes, all cousins of the groom.

Following the ceremony some 150 people attended a wedding dinner at the Richmond Hill Golf and Country Club, the first reception held in the new clubhouse. Following the dinner, the guests enjoyed dancing.

Karen McEwen Weds James Cridland

In a lovely setting of autumn-toned mums and gladioli, Karen Mary McEwen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McEwen of 23 Dalmeny Avenue, Thornhill, became the bride of James Cridland, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cridland of Clarkson, Ontario, at Holy Trinity Anglican Church on September 15th.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Askew, the former minister of Holy Trinity Church. The church organist, Mrs. Ralph Markham played the wedding music. Soloist was Mrs. Winnifred Scott who sang the Lord's Prayer and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of white pea de soie, full skirted, and ending in a chapel train. Embroidered in seed pearls, the gown was styled with a square neckline and long sleeves. Her elbow-length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of cream coloured Johanna Hill roses, stephanotis and feurettes of pale blue delphinium with an ivy garland.

Maid of honour was the bride's sister, Miss Wendy McEwen. Bridesmaids were Miss Norma Mur of Toronto and Mrs. John Bright of Niagara Falls. All were gowned alike in street length dresses of periwinkle blue with lace bodices and bell skirts of pea de soie. They wore matching headaddresses with tiny veils and carried bouquets of Johanna Hill roses, interspersed with plumeria from Hawaii.

Mr. Kerry Day of St. Thomas was best man. Ushers were Messrs. Bruce Stephenson, Ronald Lockhart and Terrence Clifton.

In an afternoon of sparkling sunshine, some 120 guests attended a lovely garden reception and enjoyed tea in a marquee at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received in a sheath style dress of brown lace over pea de soie. With this she wore a feather hat and matching accessories. Her cor-

OCTOBER 6th - A DATE TO REMEMBER
At most of the 50 stands in York Farmers Market you buy directly from the fine people who grow, raise, or bake, the choice goods for sale, and this personal and friendly contact adds interest to Saturday morning shopping. Another unique feature of York Farmers is the traditional Thanksgiving market to be held on Saturday, October 6th. For the farmers it marks the climax of a year of hard work in fields, nursery gardens, orchards, greenhouses, barns, and hatcheries, and they vie in making the event a colorful one. It is an occasion for customers to share in their pride of accomplishment, and in thankfulness that the harvest was plentiful in spite of the dry summer weather.

Besides the stands devoted to fresh fruits and vegetables, beautiful cut flowers, potted plants and imported bulbs, plump turkeys, ducks and chickens, fresh and cooked meats, fish, delicatessen, eggs and dairy products, honey, and frozen rabbit, there is a counter where you can get a refreshing cup of coffee, and several stalls displaying a wide selection of attractive handicrafts for gifts or personal use. These include oil paintings of local scenes, ceramic tiles, door knobs, and door plates distinctively decorated by hand; tooled leather bill-folds, key rings and change purses; original hand made jewellery, wood carvings, hand woven place mats, trinkets; small antiques and many other desirable items. The market is open every Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. and there is plenty of room for parking.
