There were two christenings of local interest performed in the Toronto area last weekend, when four little girls were baptized.

At Donlands United Church Rev. I. G. Perkins officiated at a service for Susan Elizabeth and Margaret Anne Stots, infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Stots of Toronto, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. K. Stots.

Afterwards the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watton, entertained immediate relatives at luncheon.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Gray of Calgary, arrived at Malton with their five daughters, Christine Anne and Janice Marie, and a christening for them was held Saturday afternoon at Presteign United Church, Rev. A. P. Gilles, who had baptized all the Gray children at Kirkland Lake, officiated.

Later, the babies' grandparents Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gray, entertained for family members and friends. Among those present were Mrs. S. J. English, Buttonville, Mrs. Olive Bartlam, London, Mrs. James Russell and Miss Betty Russell, Unionville.

For the second week in a row the Jones family had news of a narrow escape from serious injury by a close relative.

Two weeks ago their son Bruce's boat blew up on the river at Wallaceburg, burning his daughter Wendy's clothes and hair, and damaging the boat beyond repair.

Last week Mrs. Jones' brother M. Bunker was driving his car near the medical clinic in Stouffville when a large tree limb fell across the car just in front of the windshield. Mr. Bunker was unhurt but there was $1,000 damage to the car.

Last week at the Markham Fair Mrs. O. Brooke, Mrs. K. Stots and Mrs. J. Wilkins were busy keeping fair board directors and judges happy with refreshments.

Friends were sorry to learn that A. W. Miller was taken suddenly ill last Saturday morning.

Harvey Brown was chosen a member of the OAC judging team this year and has been on a 10 day trip in various parts of the United States and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robinson were hosts at a couples' club party, from Holy Trinity Church, Thornhill, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sherman and Mrs. Jean Cook were guests of Mrs. James Sherman and her daughter in Toronto, Sunday.

There was a good representation from Brown's Corners congregation at Headford Church last Sunday morning when they celebrated their 112th anniversary.

Most of them were on time, too, in spite of the Buttonville News announcement that the service would be at 11.30 instead of 11 a.m.

The morning speaker was Rev. W. J. Burton, and in the evening Rev. J. Lavell Smith, a former student on the charge, was the guest.

On October 18, Mrs. A. F. Binnington is entertaining at tea in the manse. Proceeds will be for manse improvements.

School Parents Club Wednesday evening of last week the Buttonville School Parents' Club held their first meeting of the season and elected new officers for the coming year.

They are: president, Howard Atkinson; vice-president, Mrs. George Arnold, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. Gerald Johnson; social, Mrs. Alex Woods and Mrs. Bert Craigie; membership, Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan; program, Jack Stewart and Bob Leitch.

S. R. Patterson, chairman of finance for TSA, and Gordon Morton, whose bus transports the children to and from No. 5 school at Buttonville, were present to discuss matters of transport with the parents.

The timetable has been a problem, but Mr. Morton stated the bus would be at Highway 7 and Don Mills Road at 8.15, and would leave Lunar Drive and Don Mills at Arnleigh Heights at 8.20.

Arnleigh Heights is the

Approve Application For Propane Plant

Building of a propane gas-storage plant for the north-western part of North York has been approved by the township's committee of adjustment.

The application came from Monarch Propane for a site in the Milvan industrial subdivision on the south side of Fenmar Drive, west of Weston Road.

A proviso on the committee's recommendation was that the storage plant could only be built subject to approval of the fire and plumbing department.

source of half of this year's school population, with more than 45 children attending from that area.

Several parents have taken advantage of the school bus which takes children to Bayview Glen School. There are eight attending the kindergarten, at a cost of 50 cents per day.

At Buttonville School, the caretaker, Mr. Stinchcomb, has been instructed to allow the children on bad days to enter the school upon arrival.

1963 OLDSMOBILE

An entirely new roof line is the chief characteristic of the 1963 Oldsmobile Dynamic 88 Holiday Sedan shown here. It is one of six Dynamic 88 models, which includes two sedans, a coupe, two station wagons and a convertible. All the new full-size Oldsmobiles are restyled throughout and feature an optional tilt-type adjustable steering wheel and improved safety features. Each of the regular-size Oldsmobile series — Dynamic 88, Super 88, 98 and Starfire — has its own distinguishing side chrome trim. All Dynamic 88 models are powered by the famous 280-horsepower Rocket engine or a 260-horsepower version for use with regular grade gasoline.

You are cordially invited to the 1963 SHOWING of the all new OLDSMOBILE On display Thurs., Fri., Sat. OCT. 4, 5, 6 Refreshments will be served - All welcome
