Thornlea Home and School News
The first general meeting of Thornlea Home and School Association was held at the school on September 26. President Roots opened the meeting. Business under discussion was the coming fall bazaar to be held on November 3 from 1.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m. Further notice of this will appear at a later date.

Principal Lynne Evans, of Thornlea, introduced Mrs. McDowell, who assists him with Grades 5 and 6, he also extended a warm welcome to Mrs. Perry, who is known by many parents, from being at the school last year.

Mrs. Neizporuk, teacher of Grades 1 and 2 was unable to attend this meeting. Mr. Evans and Mrs. Perry then in the parents attendance count so each were awarded the prize of $2.

Further plans for the coming graduation banquet will be discussed at the October meeting. Mark - Vaun Women's Institute The ladies of Mark - Vaun WI were awarded sixth prize for their entry in this year's Markham Fair, their entry was "Apples".

One of their senior members, Mrs. Thompson, Morgan Ave., received first prize for her oil painting.

Birthday Greetings
Brian Stiver, Sussex Ave., celebrated his eighth birthday on September 27.
Gabriella Czarnopolski, No. 7 Highway E, celebrates her 11th birthday on October 1.
Carmen Maier will be six years old on October 5 and her brother Karl will be 8 on October 11.

Principal Peter Kurita of Richvale School, the guest speaker, showed films on his guided trip through Japan this past summer. This certainly proved to be most interesting and educational. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Socials
Miss Gertrude Lever, post-mistress of Richvale Post Office has just returned from a three week trip through Western Canada. Miss Lever spent one week with her sister, Mrs. R. Arnett in Ceylon, Saskatchewan, a few days in Banff, and then drove to British Columbia.

A surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. W. Turner, at the home of the Blackburns, on September 22. Cards were played, followed by the traditional refreshments.

Debbie Blackburn was one of the guests at Lorayn Barker's birthday party on September 15. The children all enjoyed a birthday luncheon, followed by a bowling party.

Mrs. J. Gardner who spent the summer with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gardner of French River, arrived on September 26 at the home of Mrs. W. Costoff, Walmer Rd., where she will spend the winter months.

AURORA: An Aurora coin, the size of a Canadian silver dollar, is to be minted for Aurora's 1963 Centennial.

STOUFFVILLE: The East York Stouffville Match will be held at the home of Cam Kennedy, Con. 7, Markham Township, October 24.

Members are reminded that it isn't too early to be screening their slides for the annual colour photography contest.

There are eight slides for 35 mm and 2 1/2 x 2 1/4 slides. 1. General garden views - anywhere in Ontario (beauty and design to be considered important factors). 2. A single plant, shrub or tree. 3. An individual bloom (one flower only - not a spray or branch). 4. Autumn scene - anywhere in Ontario. 5. Winter scene - anywhere in Ontario. 6. Ontario scene featuring water. 7. Ontario wild flowers or fungi. 8. A small section of your garden. While entries will be accepted up to January 15th, now is the time to add to your possible prize winners and the field trip will provide a wonderful opportunity.

District Young People Go To Stratford Rally

Young people from the Langstaff Baptist Church in Langstaff will be among the hundreds attending the Fellowship Baptist Young People's Association Thanksgiving Rally at Stratford, October 8.

Utilizing the luxurious facilities of the Stratford Shakespearean Festival Theatre, seating 2,258, sessions will be held at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. featuring the timely theme, "It's later than you think".

Speaker for the day will be Rev. Barry Moore, London Ontario, president of Crusade Evangelism of Canada, who has held evangelistic campaigns on both sides of the border.

Mr. Moore is an experienced youth counsellor who speaks with authority on youths' problems today, having taught school in London and served as director of London Youth For Christ. He has also ministered abroad.

Featured soloist is Homer James of Ottawa, who has recently been awarded a contract with RCA Victor. His singing won nationwide acclaim in Canada as a result of his winning "Talent Caravan" in 1960 on the CBC coast to coast television network. He served as member of the Billy Graham

Team during the Caribbean Crusade in 1958.

Accordian virtuoso Dixie Dean will also make a valuable contribution musically to the rally. Mr. Dean played professionally for a number of years before his conversion to Christ. Since that time he has become a member of the staff of missionary radio station HCBJ, the Voice of the Andes in Quito, Ecuador. Organist Lyall Conlin and pianist Paul Kerr will complete the musical team.

A highlight of the day's activities will be the annual parade of witness through the streets of Stratford prior to the morning session. Float and car entries will represent many of the young people's societies participating in the rally.

Following the afternoon session the top teams of the Toronto FBYP softball league and the Central Ontario FBYP softball league will meet for the FBYP championship in what promises to be a closely-fought contest.

Thanksgiving Day may mean a day of rest and relaxation for some people, but for Fellowship Baptist Young People it promises to be a day filled with activity and spiritual blessing at Stratford, the festival city of Canada.

Richmond Hill's downtown area has added another business. Reliable Service, a repair shop for appliances and televisions, has moved into the old Murray Upholstery store on Yonge near Lorrie. Owners of the new firm are Thomas Delorme, Herman Pleschberger and Herbert Kolarek. All three have maintenance and construction experience. Reliable Service will feature the front part of the store to feature furniture and appliances.

Photographic Field Day October 7

(By Elisabeth Grant)
On October 7, the camera enthusiasts of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society will set forth on a photographic field day at the Edwards Gardens (Bayview). This has been arranged by the chairman of the photographic section of the society, W. J. Large. Mr. Large has chosen the Edwards Gardens as offering a wide variety of subjects. It's acres of well wooded hills and valleys, its streams, ponds and bridges provide splendid vistas for landscapes. There should be fine autumn colouring to add to the enchantment. For those who wish to take garden subjects or flower close-ups there are many plantings, formal and informal, where the late-blooming flowers will delight the eye. Experts from our own society will be there to advise and offer suggestions. Mr. Large has also arranged that Mr. and Mrs. William Hussey will be there to give valuable help and assistance. They are old friends of our society and their work is well known. Aileen is a member of the Toronto Guild of Colour Photography and Bill of the Toronto Movie Club, so they are well qualified to give advice on both slides and movies
