

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Councillor Margaret Southwell, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clare Atkinson and Mrs. F. Dodds, took time off last week from her busy schedule for several days shopping holiday in the States.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rice and family, Leisure Lane, recently returned from a two week car trip to Tucson, Arizona. Their son Tommy and his grandmother, Mrs. H. Rice, who have been holidaying in Tucson for the past two months, accompanied them on the return trip.

The ladies of the Richmond Hill Curling Club will open their fourth season of curling activities with an afternoon tea on Thursday, October 25 from two till four p.m.

The executive invites all lady members and prospective members to attend. Come and hear the minutes of the meeting and enjoy a sociable afternoon in the lounge of the curling club.

The Inner Wheel of the Richmond Hill Rotary Club met at the home of Mrs. Sandy Veysi, Tampico Drive, for their monthly meeting.

Plans for their tea and bazaar on November 7th, under the convener'ship of Mrs. Bob Johnston, Mrs. Ron Ryland, Mrs. Sandy Veysi and Mrs. Stan Pipher, are enthusiastically being carried out.

Mrs. J. Hunt and her mother, Mrs. J. Clapham, motored to Kirkland Lake for Thanksgiving to spend the holiday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Lamb, and enjoyed very much the beautiful autumn splendour of the northern bushland.

On Saturday afternoon they attended the wedding of Ronnie Barnard and Beverley Graham in Christ Anglican Church in Englehart. On Sunday they had lunch at Mr. Barnard Senior's lumber camp and dinner Sunday night at his home in Cheminis, returning home on Tuesday after a very pleasant week-end.

Mrs. John Large, chairman of the Canadian Mental Health Christmas Gift Campaign, will be entertaining at a tea at her Bathurst Street home this Saturday, for the group captain of the White Cross volunteers in York County.

Decisions will be made as to the method of gift collecting for patients in approved homes and the Ontario Hospital in Aurora. The wrapping and distribution of gifts will be held at the King Township offices on December 4 and 5.

A group of ladies met at the home of Mrs. C. Wilson, 333 Gells Road, to assist with making decorations for the Christmas booth at the bazaar of Our Lady Queen of the World parish being held on October 20.

The Curtain Club took excerpts from its revue 'A Twist of Lemon' to Buttonville W.I. Hall on Tuesday evening where they entertained members of the Victoria Square Lions Club on the occasion of their Charter Anniversary Night.

Come out to the next meeting of the Pleasantville Home and School Association at the school on October 22. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. Gordon Kidd of Etobicoke and he will outline how the 'Aims of Education' have changed and are changing. This promises to be a very interesting talk. Mr. Bill Luckins will be at the door with his hospitality committee to welcome you. Remember the meetings start at 8:15 sharp.

Richmond Hill W.I.
The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held on October 11 in the auditorium of the public library with 47 members attending.

The highlight of the afternoon came when Miss Marian Coulson, secretary of Unionville Horticultural Society, showed pictures which she had taken when on a tour of the British Isles, France, Belgium and Holland.

Please see 'Coming Events' for notice of Dessert Card Party.

The first meeting of the 1st Richmond Hill Scout Mothers Group for the season was held at the Scout Hall, October 10. The executive provided refreshments of desserts and coffee.

Six new members were welcomed to the group. They are Mrs. Cragg, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Harcourt, Mrs. Budney, Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Burton.

The most important topic discussed was the group committee's annual meeting to be held at the Scout Hall Monday, November 5. All members are welcomed and are asked to please bring their husbands. Refreshments will be served.

Next Sunday at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Children's Day and Youth Sunday will be observed by special services through the day.

At 11 a.m. the senior department of the Sunday School will be in attendance for the presentation of awards and prizes held over from the Spring.

The many friends of Mr. John Beresford, Arnold Street, will be pleased to hear that he is making satisfactory progress following an operation on Monday at York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grainger, Yonge Street South, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday last with a buffet supper attended by twenty-five close friends and relatives.

They had been married twenty-five years on October 16, 1937.

"Life in the Hill" is always pleased to accept your news items for inclusion in the column. The service is free, just call the Social Editor, Margot Crack at TU. 4-1195, or drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South — we'll be glad to hear from you.

Both the local and provincial hydro were represented at the official opening of the new head office of Ontario Hydro Central Region, held Wednesday afternoon of last week in Willowdale.

Chairman Sam Cook and officials Brydon Ellis and Al. Horwood represented the town hydro, while Area Manager L. J. Roy represented the rural operating unit of Ontario Hydro. In the evening some 40 staff members of Ontario Hydro and their families from this district toured the new building.

Several former local residents attended the official opening of the new head office of Ontario Hydro Central Region in Willowdale, Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mr. Duncan Chamney is personnel officer for central region. He was associated with the local office of Ontario Hydro here for many years.

Another former resident Mr. Norman Chatterley also attended. Mr. Chatterley is area manager for the Sutton district.

Mr. Roy Taylor was present from Brampton Hydro where he is now the superintendent.

Cast and production crew of the Curtain Club revue, "A Twist of Lemon" met on Saturday night for a mid-run party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Monks, Woodlane.

Twenty-five friends gathered at the home of Jane Clement, Harding Blvd., on Friday evening for a surprise party for Peter Hiscott, who celebrated his 17th birthday on October 17.

Peter is the president of the Richmond Hill High School Student Council.

Mrs. W. Purvis, convener of the 1962 Rummage Sale sponsored by the Evening W.A. of St. Mary's (Anglican) Church, and her committee, Mrs. J. Goodier, Mrs. J. M. Langton, Mrs. N. McLeod and Mrs. C. Williams, wish to thank "The Liberal" and all who helped in any way to bring this important parish and community event to a most successful conclusion.

New members added to the roll of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church and who took their first communion in the church on Sunday, October 14, were:

By profession of faith: Ian Ross and Rosemary Ross, 130 Centre St. W. and David Smith, 155 Centre St. W.

By certificate from other churches: Mr. and Mrs. David Don, 423 Wenlock St., from Alexandria North, Dumbaronshire, Church of Scotland; Mr. and Mrs. Angus Mack, 402 Fernleigh Circle, from Durham Presbyterian Church; Mr. A. C. MacLean, 25A Yonge St. N., from St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Toronto; and Mrs. Amy Johnston, 148 Yonge St. S., from Richmond Hill United Church.

They were received into fellowship at a special Pre-Communion service held in the church on Friday night, October 12, when refreshments were served by the women's auxiliary in the church hall following the service.

Two new members, Mrs. Dorothy Van Gozen and Mrs. Barbara Armstrong were introduced at last Thursday's meeting of the Friendship Circle of the Anglican Church of St. Gabriel, making a total of twenty six members present.

Mrs. Helen Fountain led the exercises, which included some new variations. Mrs. Gladys Palmer and Mrs. Rita Boyle showed the girls how to make colored candies and bath salts.

Mr. Walter Scudds, Blue Grass Blvd., attended the two day annual convention of the New York State-Canada Magicians Convention. The convention is held in a Canadian location every six years. This year's convention was held at the Central Y.M.C.A. in Toronto.

Mr. Scudds has enjoyed the hobby of a magician for several years and is in great demand at children's events.

Richmond Masonic Lodge Wednesday evening was host to a large number of visitors from Toronto and district lodges.

It was the occasion of the official visit of R. W. Bro. S. H. Brennan, District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto District 5. W. Bro. Stanley F. Tinker, the ruling master and the other officers were complimented on the degree work of the evening and at a banquet the usual toasts were honoured.

Once again the Midmer Dance Academy pupils entertained thousands when they appeared on Channel 11, on the popular "Tiny Talent Time" programme.

This time it was a modern jazz number. The dancers included Linda Bobo, Lynda Chartrand, Marilyn Chartrand, Judy Jenkins, Mary Johnson, Susan Owen, Bernice Pozdrowski and Linda Stokes. The children were rewarded with a "Mr. Channel 11" pin, and a parchment scroll to commemorate the occasion.

On Monday, October 15, a joint meeting of the Catholic Women's League, and the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's was held in St. Mary Immaculate School. The bake sale to be convoked by Mrs. Fergus Houlihan, will be held in Our Lady of Fatima School, 75 Yonge Street North.

The president thanked the ladies who helped with the membership tea. The membership convener, Mrs. James Coughlin, reported eleven new members. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. George, Mrs. T. Van Wieringen, and Mrs. R. W. Southcott.

At a recent meeting of the ladies of Empire L.O.B.A. No. 894, plans were discussed for their forthcoming bazaar and rummage sale to be held on October 27th at Wrixon Hall, 104 Yonge Street South.

There will be bargains galore for everyone at the rummage sale and the booths at the bazaar will be well stocked with fancy goods, aprons and gift novelties, to delight the early Christmas shopper — and to tempt the gourmet, a table of delicious home baking.

Sunday evening services have resumed at Richmond Hill United Church for the fall. Rev. C. G. Higginson will preach a series of sermons on the meaning of church membership.

Mrs. J. W. Eakins of Point Claire, Quebec, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hill, Wright Street, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner of Richmond Street have just returned from a motor trip to New York where they spent a week with their daughter Mrs. Doug Allan and family.

While in New York Mr. Wagner had the good fortune to be a guest at the fourth World Series Baseball game at Yankee Stadium.

The AOTS Men's Club of Richmond Hill United Church held a dinner meeting Wednesday evening. Mr. John Aspin of Presbytery Men installed the new executive. The members enjoyed an evening of fellowship including a sing-song, games and a movie.

Many happy returns! Five friends of Neil Paton gathered at his home on Driscoll Road on Wednesday last for a birthday luncheon to help him celebrate his fourth birthday.

Enjoying the fun were Judy Edwards, Terry Davis, Paul Evans, Kim McMaster, David McCartney and Neil's two older brothers, Ross and Alan.

"Apple Day" — that worthy annual event in the Richmond Hill area — is scheduled for this Saturday, October 20.

Bright and early that morning, the eager, smiling Cubs and Scouts will be around, visiting homes — offering luscious, red apples — and the usual generous response will be appreciated.

Carol Black Is Bride Of McConaghy Teacher

The Rev. R. Graham officiated at Kettleby United Church, on October 6, at the marriage of Carol Jean Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black, Kettleby, to Donald Ross Cober, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cober, Schomberg.

Tall baskets of gold and bronze mums were placed on the altar and the church pews were decorated with bows and heather which was sent from Scotland. Mr. Robert Carson played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Marie Lyons as she sang "Wedding Hymn" and the "Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie featuring a boat neckline and traditional long sleeves. The bell skirt had an overskirt chapel train elaborately decorated with cabbage roses and leaves. The elbow length veil was held with a tiny crown of crystal and pearls. She carried a cascade of yellow roses and white mums with trailing ivy.

Miss Heather Miller of Maple was maid of honour and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Marilyn Broad of Nobleton and Miss Beverley Miller of King. They wore gold peau de soie gowns with veiled bow headpieces, as did the flower girl, Miss Sharon Black of Ottawa. They each carried a cascade of bronze and gold mums.

Mr. Tom Cober, twin brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were the groom's brothers, Mr. Jack Cober and Mr. Alan Cober.
