

Two Will Move From Beverley To Crosby School

Four kindergarten pupils were refused admission to regular classes at Beverley Acres School Monday and Tuesday according to parents interviewed by "The Liberal" this week.

The children were asked to stay in the library while classes were in progress. They played games and took part in other kindergarten activities, said one of the parents.

Parents of the students were the last of 33 holding out against a school board request to transfer their children to Crosby Heights School in an effort to relieve overcrowding at Beverley Acres.

Two of the four parents said they will now obey the board's wishes and transfer their children.

The other two were unavailable for comment.

Town Resident Wed In Amherst, Nova Scotia

MR. AND MRS. GRAEME BALES

Trinity - St. Stephen's United Church, Amherst, N.S., was the scene of a pretty fall wedding October 6 when Donna Gail, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Layton R. Cameron became the bride of Graeme Finlay Bales, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allan Bales, Richmond Hill, Ont. Rev. Aubrey H. Moore, minister of the church, assisted by Rev. Alex McLeod, pastor of the United Church at Lakeburn, N.B., performed the double ring ceremony, following which the bride and groom joined the ministers in communion.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven" by Goss played by the church organist, Dr. Alfred Whitehead. During the ceremony Mrs. Harold Ettinger, Saint John, N.B., sang "The Lord's Prayer," and while the register was being signed sang "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length model of white peau de soie with fitted bodice, high neckline and full length sleeves ending in points over the wrists. A full skirt over hoops fell in unpressed pleats at the front and the bustle back effect featured a cascade of large roses of self material, the skirt being of the groom, Gary Oulton, Amherst, David Sutherland, Truro, cousins of the bride, and Norman Wells, Amherst. The fall color scheme of the bridal party was carried out in the floral arrangements in the church, with baskets of gold mums, bronze poms and chalice roses in front of the altar which was lighted with white candles in tall candelabra. The guest pews were marked by gold sash over cedar tied with large bows of satin and net in which was centered sprigs of honey colored snaps.

Following the wedding a reception attended by some 120 guests was held in Hearts Hall with the units of the U.C.W. catering under the direction of Mrs. Darrell McGuire.

Receiving with the bridal party were the parents of the bride and groom. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cameron chose a sheath dress of forest green and gold metallic brocade, white marabou and velvet hat, and gold and white accessories. Her corsage was of white butterfly roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Bales, wore a taupe silk brocade sheath dress with beige marabou hat and accessories. Her corsage was of honey gold roses.

Mrs. W. R. Smith, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a royal blue lace dress with white accessories and corsage of pink sensation roses. Mrs. G. W. Cameron, paternal grandmother of the bride, wore a Dior blue lace dress with matching accessories and corsage of pink delight roses.

The tulle encircled four tiered wedding cake, cut and served in traditional manner by the bride and groom, centered the tea table and was attractive in its setting between low arrangements of chalice roses. Tall gold and ivory tapers in silver candelabra lighted the tea table. The bridal table, with a chalice rose centerpiece and white candles in low silver candleholders lighting the ends of the table, presented an attractive appearance with the addition of the bridal flowers at the supper hour. Name B. Gayman Unionville Chief Markham Township Council Monday afternoon announced the appointment of Ben Gayman as fire chief for the part of the township covered by the Unionville Fire Brigade.

Mr. Gayman replaces G. Alexander, who had been chief of the Unionville Fire Brigade. At the same time, council asked the Ontario Fire Marshall's office for a survey of the township's fire protection requirements.

A fire committee report recommending the survey, especially in the Thornhill area, to aid in planning fire stations, was adopted by council. The survey had been recommended by provincial officials.

NEWMARKET: Monday, December 3, between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. has been set as election date in the town of Newmarket.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Alex McLeod and fittingly responded to by the groom. A welcome to the family was extended by the groom's father, J. Allan Bales. Congratulatory telegrams were read by Robert Kent. The wedding service and reception were recorded and photographs taken by Roland H. Sherwood.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at several social functions in Richmond Hill where she has been residing while working in Toronto, and also by friends in Amherst.

Out of town guests at the wedding were present from Richmond Hill, Ont., Sharon, Ont., Saint John, Salisbury, Moncton, Lakeburn, Dorchester, Sackville, Baie Verte and Point de Bute, N.B., and Springhill, Truro and New Glasgow, N.S.

SCARBORO: Plans for a board of control in Scarborough Township have been dropped by council.

Local Man Makes Presentation To Mr. Diefenbaker

An oil painting by a well-known area artist will be presented to Prime Minister John Diefenbaker in Ottawa today. Otto N. Grebe, of 47 Pemberton Cres. North, will make the presentation along with John Naedia, president of the Latvian National Federation, to Mr. Diefenbaker for speaking on behalf of Latvia at the United Nations last year.

Measuring 30 by 40 inches the painting depicts a typical Canadian scene painted by Mr. Grebe of the Langstaff - Bathurst Street district.

Cicely Thomson Directs Tea House

Considerable activity is going on among the members of Richmond Hill's Curtain Club in their endeavour to make their next production "Tea-house of the August Moon," an even greater success than all previous productions. Cicely Thomson who is directing the play is a perfectionist and is demanding a high standard of reality as far as set, props and costumes are concerned - not to mention the cast who spend several hours a week jabbering away to each other in Japanese! But back to those items which are the problem of the back stage crew. The cries go up "has anybody got a couple of U.S. Army uniforms", "Where can I get a jeep?", "May we borrow your goat?", "I need a dozen kimonos", "Genuine Japanese musical instruments or good replicas please" and so on, and so on.

And how is the club progressing in its quest for these exotic items (a goat exotic?) So far the results are most encouraging. Where the genuine article has not been obtainable, willing hands have stitched, sewed, hammered, painted and have produced faithful replicas and the followers of Richmond Hill's own little theatre are going to be surprised, impressed and delighted when they see what is probably the most ambitious production in the history of the Curtain Club.

Why Sanitone Service is more than just drycleaning

"I'm your Spotter..."

Safe, scientific spot removal requires careful analysis of each individual spot. Trouble fabrics must be recognized and tested to prevent fibre damage. You should see our equipment, and the array of bottles! Sometimes I even use enzymes that actually "digest" certain stubborn spots. That's why Sanitone-cleaned garments always come back spotless—looking like new—just part of our "more than just drycleaning" service. Try us today."
