

LIFE IN THE HILL
Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier, Don Head Farms, recently returned from Columbus, Ohio...

In the Hill last Friday night were Rev. Paul Morley and Mrs. Morley from Brampton who attended a "Twist of Lemon" at the Curtain Club Theatre.

"Business as usual" — Mr. Al Pyle, piano tuner, is now back in the Hill having spent the summer months in Parry Sound...

The junior choir of the Richmond Hill United Church will be assisting at the morning service and the C.G.I.T. will attend as a group...

Word has been received from the Yexex family who recently left to take up residence in Victoria, Vancouver Island...

The popular Fall Tea and Sale held annually by the Inner Wheel of the Richmond Hill Rotary Club...

Tickets are now available, please call Mrs. R. Chandler, TU. 4-4194.

A pre-birthday party was held on Saturday last for Virginia Redelmeier, who, following a luncheon with guests Nicola Douglas-Crampton and Susan Hannah...

A popular social event of next week will be the Richmond Hill Lions Club anniversary ball which will be featured by the big draw for $6,000 in prizes.

All proceeds will be divided equally between the York Central Hospital and Lions Welfare fund.

R.C.A.F. Veteran Dies Suddenly

A well known and highly esteemed citizen of Richmond Hill, Mr. Vincent Ernest Tapp passed away suddenly on October 13th...

Resident of Richmond Hill for the past five years, Mr. Tapp made his home at 381 Palmer Avenue and was in his 48th year.

At the time of the outbreak of World War II, Vincent Tapp was a member of the Royal Air Cadets, volunteered the first day and was accepted for service overseas.

While serving as an air gunner, Vincent Tapp was wounded in a plane crash in England, which resulted in the amputation of one leg and being invalided back home to Canada in 1942.

In Canada, he was appointed gunnery officer, instructing in officer training, at No. 1 Battery & Gunnery School, Jarvis, Ontario.

Mr. Tapp held the post of office manager, Prosthetic Services, Department of Veterans Affairs.

In community affairs, Mr. Tapp was an active member of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, past president of the Couples Club, member of the War Amputations Association...

Mr. Tapp is survived by his wife, the former Grace Elizabeth Clark, one son Richard Eric, and one daughter Susan Elizabeth, also by one sister Mrs. O. Moore (Phyllis).

Rev. J. N. Hepburn conducted the funeral service from the Wright & Taylor Chapel of the Pipher Funeral Home on October 16, with interment in Richmond Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. N. Drew (Mabs), Elgin Mills, heard this week that her short story "Widows Should Cry" has been accepted by the C.B.L. and is slated to be read by John Drainie on November 28th.

Many from Richmond Hill and district attended the opening of the exhibition of oil and water colour paintings by well known local artist Otto N. Grebbe at his studio, 47 Pemberton Crescent in Vaughan Township Sunday afternoon.

The exhibition will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. until October 28.

The "Green Room" party following the final curtain of "A Twist of Lemon" on Saturday last was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sevenoaks, Thornhill.

During the evening members of the cast made presentations to the director, Rex Sevenoaks; producer, Muriel Gillard, and set designer, Mary Donnelly...

Layman's Sunday will be observed at St. Mary's Anglican Church on October 28th at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. services.

The address at that time will be given by a layman, namely Dr. Stanley Laing who served the Church's Medical Mission at Srinagar, India, for two years.

The evening branch WA of St. Mary's Anglican Church held an executive meeting at the home of the vice-president Mrs. W. Bedford, 377 Sugar Maple Lane on Tuesday October 23.

A report was given on the rummage sale by the convenor Mrs. W. H. Purvis.

General business matters were discussed and plans made for projects and programs which are pending.

On October 16th, the cast of the Curtain Club's revue, "A Twist of Lemon" performed a selection of numbers from the show for the members of the Victoria Square Lions Club...

The program was received with enthusiasm, and at its close the director of the revue, Rex Sevenoaks was presented with a cheque for the Curtain Club by the president of the Club.

During the evening, Mr. Bennett spoke on the big draw and whoop-de-do to be held at Mart Keny's Ranch on November 1, the profits from which are to be divided between York Central Hospital and Lion's welfare work.

The draw held in 1960 made a profit of $5,421. In 1961 - $6,851, making a total profit of $12,272.

In Canada, he was appointed gunnery officer, instructing in officer training, at No. 1 Battery & Gunnery School, Jarvis, Ontario.

Mr. Tapp held the post of office manager, Prosthetic Services, Department of Veterans Affairs.

In community affairs, Mr. Tapp was an active member of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, past president of the Couples Club, member of the War Amputations Association...

Mr. Tapp is survived by his wife, the former Grace Elizabeth Clark, one son Richard Eric, and one daughter Susan Elizabeth, also by one sister Mrs. O. Moore (Phyllis).

Rev. J. N. Hepburn conducted the funeral service from the Wright & Taylor Chapel of the Pipher Funeral Home on October 16, with interment in Richmond Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. J. W. Johnston, Boisdale Avenue, has returned from Ottawa where she has been for almost twelve weeks, due to the illness and death, September 6th, of her father, Mr. G. L. Monahan.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church Women held their November meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. Myers of 110 Rockport Crescent. There were 20 members and guests present...

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Jim Ellis who will be celebrating his 90th birthday on October 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sparrow, Starlight Crescent, returned recently from a week's holiday in Vancouver, with side trips to Seattle and the Okanagan Valley.

Their daughter Jacqueline, who lives in Prince George, accompanied them on the return air flight, enjoying a week with her parents, visiting relatives and friends, before returning on Tuesday last.

Miss Carol Lane, one of Canada's most widely travelled women and noted authority on travel by car, will be the guest speaker at Richmond Hill United Church Auditorium October 30th.

In spite of the rain, crowds of parishioners and friends turned out on Saturday last, to make the second annual Fall Bazaar of Our Lady Queen of the World Parish a great success.

There were aprons and delicious homebaking, Christmas decorations and knitwear, white elephant articles and home preserves, a parcel post and potted plants, a delicatessen and a unique containers booth.

For the children there was the ever popular fish pond, a puppet show, popcorn and candy. The well deserved prize for best decorated booth went to Mrs. C. Wilson and co-convenor Mrs. R. Baldox for her beautiful Christmas decorations and candles.

The bazaar was the culmination of months of planning and organizing by the general convenor, Mrs. J. McArthur, South Taylor Mills Drive.

Two colorful clowns added to the carnival air by distributing balloons and favours to the children.

Special thanks must go to the men who set up the booths and ably took care of the heavy work and to Mr. J. McArthur for his stage decorations.

The first fall meeting of the Richmond Hill Women's Progressive Conservative Association was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Margaret Harrison.

As all officers were returned by acclamation, the chairmanship was then turned over to Mrs. Harrison. The officers are as follows:

President Mrs. M. Harrison; vice-president Mrs. S. Lucas; secretary Mrs. Arnold Piceas; treasurer Mrs. E. Borcham; membership Mrs. Stone; publicity Mrs. L. J. Oliver; social Mrs. J. Cappy.

Arrangements were made for the next meeting at which time it is planned to have a Bridge and Euchre night.

Plans for the association's annual dinner were discussed. More will be heard on this subject when plans are finalized.

Refreshments were then served and the meeting adjourned.

On the TV Country Hoedown program last week Mrs. Kay Anderson of Toronto, formerly of Richmond Hill, was honored by a birthday dedication number.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Jim Ellis who will be celebrating his 90th birthday on October 26th.

Mr. Ellis lives in a nursing home at 171 Yonge Street South.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sparrow, Starlight Crescent, returned recently from a week's holiday in Vancouver, with side trips to Seattle and the Okanagan Valley.

Miss Carol Lane, one of Canada's most widely travelled women and noted authority on travel by car, will be the guest speaker at Richmond Hill United Church Auditorium October 30th.

Miss Lane, women's travel director for Shell Oil, is the author of several booklets and articles on travel.

What to take on a two-week vacation trip is a problem for any woman. Miss Lane has a practical answer — a colour coordinated wardrobe that gives a woman a broad selection of outfits requiring a minimum of luggage.

She demonstrates a unique packing system that enables her to pack a carefully selected but complete two-week wardrobe and all the miscellaneous requirements in a 24" suitcase.

Messrs. Ross Scrimger, John Rosevear, Ross Wood and John Spanner represented the Richmond Hill United Church at Muskoka Sands Conference last weekend.

Two colorful clowns added to the carnival air by distributing balloons and favours to the children.

The tea court was graciously served by the 8th Richmond Hill Girl Guides and was convened by Mrs. J. Tucker.

During the afternoon there were many lucky people holding winning raffle tickets.

Bingo was an added attraction conducted by the men of the Holy Name Society.

Plans for the association's annual dinner were discussed. More will be heard on this subject when plans are finalized.

Refreshments were then served and the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Robinson, holder of Canadian Drama Awards in his field, spoke of the history and mechanics of stage make-up and with models, showed how make-up is used to strengthen features for visibility or alter features for character.

Also under consideration by Richmond Hill is annexation of an additional 750 acres in Markham Township east of Bayview Avenue for future industrial use.

Refreshments were then served and the meeting adjourned.

Refreshments were then served and the meeting adjourned.

St. Matthew's "Snowball Fantasy" Fair. At their regular October meeting, members of St. Matthew's United Church Women modelled some of the attractive hats and kitchen headgear which will be offered for sale at their forthcoming "Snowball Fantasy" Fair.

Walter Scott School, Markham Road, is the Thursday, October 25th scene for Y.V.C.A. "Slim and Sam". Plans for a theatre night and also discussions about suitable Christmas craft will take place to interest local homemakers.

An executive meeting of Our Lady Queen of the World CWL was held prior to the general monthly meeting on October 17. President Mrs. H. O'Toole, chaired both meetings.

Minutes were read by secretary Mrs. J. Hornet, Mrs. O'Toole introduced the new corresponding secretary Mrs. Rita Gallienne following the resignation of Mrs. B. McConvey.

Mr. Robinson, holder of Canadian Drama Awards in his field, spoke of the history and mechanics of stage make-up and with models, showed how make-up is used to strengthen features for visibility or alter features for character.

President D. Featherstonhaugh announced in a short business meeting, that Fred Euringer, director of Twelve Angry Men recently shown at the Crest, has been engaged to direct the Curtain Club Drama Festival entry in the spring.

The meeting closed with refreshments convened by Muriel Gillard and Esther Postlethwaite.

LIBERAL CLASSIFIEDS JUST PHONE TU. 4-1105
RON'S FISH & CHIPS 19 Yonge St. North — TU. 4-3450
Fast Take-Out Service
SATISFACTION & COURTESY ARE OUR AIM
OPEN MON. TO WED. UNTIL 7 P.M. THURS. & FRI. 'TIL 8 P.M. - SAT. 'TIL 7 P.M. - COSY COFFEE BAR - Free Parking At Rear Of Store From 5 To 6 P.M.

...a message from your neighborhood Lutheran Church... about GRACE and FAITH... great REFORMATION principles!
At this season of the year — as for nearly 440 years — Lutherans everywhere will observe the Reformation period with special services and music. We invite you to come to our church next Sunday and hear again the comforting assurance of how "... by grace have ye been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not of works that no man should glory."

St. Paul's Lutheran Church (Walter Scott School, Markham Rd.) Sunday October 28th. 11 a.m.

CLAIRTONE MARATHON CONTEST PRIZES TO DATE $238
I estimate the Clairtone Italian Provincial will run day & night without stopping for ..... hrs.
Name .....
Address .....
Deposit This Coupon and See Prizes on Display at Richmond Hill Music Centre In The Mall at Richmond Heights Centre

Closing Down Sale PROPERTY SOLD
Everything Must Be Sold Including Fixtures
33 1/3 - 50% OFF
PATS VARIETY
44 Yonge St. S.

Wright & Taylor CHAPEL OF PIPHER FUNERAL HOME LIMITED
Established 1878
Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

HERBERT R. BUTT INSURANCE SERVICE
126 Elizabeth St. N. 112 Yonge St. Toronto
Telephone Toronto, Ontario Empire 2-3456

Clean Up - (Continued From Page 1)
"Our revee (Wilfred Dean) should have been asked to sit in on these meetings," he said. Plans for annexation of a 257 acre site for industrial development is now being considered by Richmond Hill Town Council.

RON'S FISH & CHIPS 19 Yonge St. North — TU. 4-3450
Fast Take-Out Service
SATISFACTION & COURTESY ARE OUR AIM
OPEN MON. TO WED. UNTIL 7 P.M. THURS. & FRI. 'TIL 8 P.M. - SAT. 'TIL 7 P.M. - COSY COFFEE BAR - Free Parking At Rear Of Store From 5 To 6 P.M.

SHIELDS Footwear LTD. FINE FOOTWEAR FOR THE FAMILY
An unlined, flexible shoe with smart walking mid-heel
And, Naturalizer's soft construction that features airfoam inner sole and flexible sole $15.99
TU. 4 - 5341 RICHMOND HEIGHTS CENTRE SOUTH BLOCK

STAN BUDNY — SAM BRUZZESE
Announce The Opening Of STAN'S EUROPEAN SERVICE
Specializing In Volkswagen Repairs And All Makes Of Cars Also Fender & Body Repairs
STOP 24A RICHVALE B.P. SERVICE STATION TU. 4-2601

Good eating AT SAVINGS!
MINCED BEEF 35c lb. 3 lbs. 95c
LEAN Stewing Beef lb. 45c
T-BONE WING STEAKS lb. 69c
C. NELS GAGE BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691