Mrs. S. J. English received a letter from Mrs. A. C. Husted last week telling her of Betty's recent marriage to Byron Timmermans, a student at the University of Northern Ontario, Sudbury.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Christians celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary last weekend. They entertained friends on the occasion.

Mrs. Frank Oliver entertained catering group No. 3, Brown's Corners United Church Women, at a dessert luncheon on Tuesday of last week. Following coffee, plans were laid for the group's smorgasbord activities.

Friends are happy to see Mr. and Mrs. E. Hill back home on Hughson Drive after a summer spent in Haliburton.

The water level in this area is reaching an unprecedented low, and water tank service is in great demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sherman attended a wedding in Owen Sound last weekend. Mrs. Jean Cook accompanied them for a visit with members of her family.

The Stores and members of the staff were busy late Friday night when a busload of customers from Mart Kenny's Ranch made arrangements to stop for refreshments on their way home.

Local women are swinging in to their autumn stride. On Tuesday evening of last week Buttonville W.I. members catered when the Victoria Square and District Lions held their founders night banquet; Friday at noon, catering group 3, Brown's Corners United Church served dinner for Massey Ferguson personnel at the farm, and this week they plan a smorgasbord for 500 at the church.

That isn't a baseball mitt on Allen Hooper's hand these days, it is a sturdy protection for a broken hand. A falling stone during play was the cause of three-year-old Allen's injury, and he spent some time last Thursday morning having X-rays taken in hospital.

Rev. John Linton of the Ontario Temperance Federation and general secretary of the Canadian Temperance Federation, was guest speaker at Brown's Corners United Church Sunday morning.

Next Sunday services will be withdrawn at Brown's Corners and Headford so that congregations may attend anniversary services at Victoria Square.

In the morning (11 a.m.) the Brown's Corners Church choir will sing, with Mrs. Don Reesor at the organ, and Mrs. S. J. English directing. Rev. Douglas Davis will speak.

Rev. Ray Hord, B.A., B.D., S.T.M., newly elected secretary of the Board of Evangelism and Social Service, and presently minister at Royal York Road United Church, is the guest speaker. Music will be by the York Choralists under the direction of Richard Edmunds, at 7.30 p.m.

Dist. Phones Working
Some Unionville telephone subscribers in the area had a mad time last Sunday sorting out the puzzle of their new telephone service. Constant ringing until a phone is answered is useful, but somewhat disconcerting to those accustomed to hearing only one ring, and taking their time about answering.

In some cases rings have been changed without the subscriber being notified and this sometimes resulted in no answer to a call.

Councillor and Mrs. Charles Hooper attended the Unionville Firefighters Banquet and Ball at St. Phillips Anglican Church and the Curling Club. Mr. Hooper is chairman of the Markham Township Fire Committee.

Sgt. Harvey Cox of the Markham Township police was a dinner guest.

Buttonville W.I. Hostess
Mrs. Fred Porter, John St., Thornhill, entertained W.I. members at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week, when they held their monthly meeting.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. F. H. Leaf was in the chair. Convenors were Mrs. Porter, Mrs. A. Robinson and Miss C. Brodie.

Guest speaker was Dillwyn T. Evans, minister at Thornhill Presbyterian Church. His address dealt with discrimination problems in Canada.

During the business session it was noted that convention delegates, November 7, 8 and 9, would be Mrs. Richard Pralet and Mrs. George Barker, November 7, and Mrs. George Kelly and Mrs. E. Walton November 8 and 9. Tickets for the Thursday luncheon are $3.

Convenors of the social and work committees gave reports. Mrs. A. Robinson noted banquets were to be held November 22 and December 4, and Mrs. Leaf announced a quilting to be held at Mrs. R. Boyington's home this month and at Miss Mary Rodick's home in November.

The autumn euchre series started October 19 and will continue every second week until the end of November. On December 14, the W.I. will sponsor a card party for the Canadian Cancer Society.

Last week W.I. quilters gathered at the home of Mrs. Russell Boyington. Among those present were Mrs. W. McGimpsey, Mrs. E. Hill, Mrs. J. Rodick, Miss E. French, Mrs. Geo. Kelly, Mrs. Mary Rodick, Mrs. J. Donaldson and Mrs. F. Leaf. The quilters arrived early in the morning and enjoyed luncheon on noon.

Silver Tea
When Mrs. A. F. Binnington opened her home for a tea Thursday afternoon of last week several local women were present. Mrs. S. J. English, Mrs. H. Steffler and Mrs. Wm. Rodick poured tea. Attending were Mrs. A. W. Miller, Mrs. F. Oliver, Mrs. J. Donaldson, Mrs. W. W. Miller, Miss M. Rodick, Mrs. J. Harris, Mrs. D. Hood.

There were 17 tables of players present for the first game of the present euchre series at Buttonville W.I. Hall, sponsored by the W.I.

Prizes were won by Miss Cora Brodie, Mrs. Patton, Mrs. W. Middleton (tied with Mrs. J. Trimble), Dr. George Kelly, C. Attridge, Bert Nichols (tied with A. Robinson).

Mrs. Trimble, Sr., won the lucky draw. Freezout winners were Dr. George Kelly and Mrs. Trimble against R. Burr and Mr. Klinck.

Next game will be November 2. On November 30 the grand winner of the series will take home a turkey.

The "Happy Timers" of Brown's Corners United Church met at the home of Mrs. John Brumwell Tuesday of last week, and enjoyed an evening of discussion.

The group broke into three sections, and attacked such subjects as "How do we keep young people in the church?" "What of the Nuclear Bomb?" and "Divorce Laws?"

The executive committee was in charge of the program and the devotional service. Mrs. A. Martin, Mrs. D. Melvin, Mrs. John Brumwell and Mrs. Gordon Brumwell.

During the business session the group agreed to accept responsibility for the bazaar tea room, November 10, at the church.

Neighborhood Notes
Mrs. George Kelly heaved a sigh of relief following Markham Fair activities where she was a director of women's work. Now, however, she is engaged in helping to organize a bus trip to Ottawa for the purpose of seeing Parliament in action. A group of women, sponsored by the local Women's Liberal Association, will spend two days in the capital - October 25-26.

Mrs. Dick Jones spent several days at Wallaceburg recently, visiting Bruce and his family.

Peter Tully was a member of the CBC play "A book with Chapters In It," over Channel 6 on Thanksgiving night.

Several local young people attended the Young People's Rally at Brampton Thanksgiving week-end. Among them were Janet Craig, Joy Fuller, Margaret Patterson, Judy Hord, Reg and John Crawford and Jim Hood.

Mrs. A. W. Miller and Mrs. F. H. Leaf visited the Sisters at Terra Cotta recently. Mrs. Sister, who was seriously ill for many months, is much better, and Rebecca is finding the life of an artist a busy one. This year she has signed up for a lecture series, and has already spoken at Windsor and Sarnia.

It is good to have the F. W. Bakers back in the community again after their western holiday.

A notice in the mailbox carries the announcement that we have a new eating place in the community - Paul's Snack Bar, at the Supermarket on Don Mills Road north of No. 7 hwy.

That bridge over the CNR by-pass at Don Mills Road is way behind schedule. Completion date was first announced for the latter part of August, but now it looks as though the snow may fly before it is finished.

Mrs. C. B. Boynton has not been well of late, and Saturday of last week received a visit from Brown's Corners Church friends, Mrs. H. R. Paterson, Mrs. E. Walton, Mrs. D. Hood and Miss M. Rodick.

Three local families have suffered bereavement recently. Mr. Alfred Copp's father died in Toronto, September 27, and following a Toronto service interment was at Beechwood Cemetery, Ottawa. On Thursday of last week a funeral service was held for Mr. Wm. Palmer's mother, who died earlier in the week. Saturday of last week, Mr. W. G. Hahn, father of Mrs. J. H. Johnson, passed away at York County Hospital, Newmarket, and the service was in Hamilton on Wednesday of this week, with interment at Woodlawn Cemetery. Mr. Hahn lived with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson until last summer, when he was taken ill.

To all these families we offer sincere sympathy.

Plowing Match of Local Interest
The International Plowing Match, held last week in the Owen Sound district, was of particular interest to several local people.

The farm on which the tent city was located was Mrs. Milton Sherman's old home, and now belongs to her brother, Norman Barber. Another farm where plowing contests were held belonged to Mrs. Sherman's brother-in-law, Jim Gourlay of MF Farms was a familiar figure in that firm's display tent, and visitors to the event included Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sherman and Anne, Mr. Douglas Hood, Don Reesor, Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. Jean Cook, Jim Miller, Mike Horton, Jack Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. James Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Sherman, who were on vacation, were guests in the locality and regular attendants.

Reading a copy of "The Liberal" and resting in her favorite rocking chair is Mrs. T. H. Anderson who celebrated her 86th birthday September 30. Still fairly active, Mrs. Anderson lives with her two daughters, Irene and Lillian, at 165 Richmond St., Richmond Hill. The spinning wheel in the background is a vivid reminder of days gone by.
