

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. D. Fettes and family of Trayborn Dr. enjoyed dinner Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Chote, Toronto.

Mrs. Frank Southwell will be visiting her daughter Barbara, and Mrs. L. Clement, her son John, when the Women's Student Body of McMaster University entertain mothers of the co-eds on Thursday of this week.

The many friends of Mrs. J. Gardner will be sorry to hear that she is at present confined to her bed at the home of Mrs. W. Costoff, Walmer Road.

Mrs. Gardner is the mother of Mr. Frank Gardner, formerly of Weldrick Road.

The Explorers of the Richmond Hill United Church, combined business with pleasure on Halloween night by collecting $16.01 for UNICEF.

They were very pleased with the success of their campaign, and wish to extend thanks to all those who so willingly donated.

The Central Branch of the Richmond Hill York Central Hospital Auxiliary held its first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Holmberg, Lawrence Avenue.

The members discussed money raising measures and it was decided that members would proceed with handicrafts of their own choosing until after Christmas. There will be a work meeting on November 7 at the home of Mrs. J. Heard, Observatory Lane, and a meeting on the first Wednesday of each month until further notice.

All members were asked to keep the open meeting of the hospital auxiliary on November 8 in mind.

The monthly executive meeting of the 1st Richmond Hill Scout Mothers Auxiliary was held October 30 at the home of Mrs. E. Dunn, 230 Rumble Avenue.

The monthly meeting will be held at the Scout Hall, November 14. Mr. Ronald Scutthorpe, District Commissioner of York Summit District will be guest speaker.

Mrs. J. Kosteci and Mrs. Dunn served refreshments.

May Start Work On Park House

Construction work on a new change house in Richmond Hill's Town Park is slated to begin in the near future.

Parks board last Tuesday night decided to ask council to start work on the building in time that it can be carried out under the winter works program.

The proposed change house will have two men's and two women's dressing rooms, along with public washrooms.

Estimated cost of the project is $12-$15,000 less any subsidy under the winter works program. The parks board has only $8,000 left in its budget.

Engagement Of Interest

Mr. and Mrs. David Higgins, Harding Boulevard, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Ione Higgins to Pilot Officer Lt. Kingsley Arnold of the RCN Air Arm. Lt. Arnold is sports and recreational director of Venture Naval Academy, Victoria, B.C.

He is the son of Mrs. Noel Arnold and the late Mr. Arnold of Aurora, formerly of Lindsay. The wedding will take place at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Saturday, November 24 at six o'clock.

SPECIAL
AT
ALLEN COURT HAIRSTYLIST
Allencourt Plaza TU. 4-4581
Open Thursday and Friday evenings
FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER ONLY —
PERMS
Our Regular $12.50 Now $10.00
Our Regular $10.00 Now $8.00
We have added a new and wonderful perm to our selection. Ask about the wave that gives body only to your hair. This is the perm so many women have been looking and waiting for.

Next Sunday morning at 11 a.m. in St. Mary's Anglican Church, the local branch of the Canadian Legion and its women's auxiliary will hold their annual Remembrance Day Church parade.

Mayor James Haggart will read the First Lesson and the president of the Legion, Frank Barrett, will read the Second Lesson.

The Holly Berry Fair at St. Gabriel Anglican Church last Saturday was an overwhelming success. Hundreds turned out to buy the delicious home baking and beautiful handicrafts. The adults were able to relax over tea, while the children enjoyed a film, and refreshments at their own snack bar.

The door prize draw was made by Miss Nancy Danter, daughter of the People's Warden. The prize, a hand carved leather bag, was won by Mrs. G. Fowler, Rumble Ave.

The WA of the Presbyterian Church held their regular meeting on Monday evening. They opened with the scripture given by Mrs. R. Titt followed by a short reading and prayer by Mrs. M. Donohery.

Mrs. P. Ross then introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. J. Joynt, a representative of the Canadian Peace Research Institute. Mrs. Joynt introduced a recorded speech given by Dr. Norman Alcock. Mrs. Burnie thanked Mrs. Joynt for the very interesting and informative evening.

The business consisted mainly of the forthcoming bazaar to be held on November 17 in the Church hall. Reports were heard from the convenors of the various groups, and some of the finished bazaar articles were on display. There were a good assortment of articles for the children's table and Christmas booth, as well as stuffed animals, knitwear, etc.

As in the past it is hoped that the congregation will support the WA by coming out and spending an enjoyable afternoon.

"Good friends and fair weather" helped to make a great success of the bazaar of the 1st Beverley Acres Cub & Scout Auxiliary, held at Bayview Plaza on October 27th.

Mrs. T. Carney and Mrs. Haviland took care of the bake table; Mrs. Derek and Mrs. Hemphill, baby wear and doll's clothes; Mrs. Reswick and Mrs. Hamilton, aprons and linens; Mrs. Pappas and Mrs. Oakes, white elephant; Mrs. Kells and Mrs. Plummer, Christmas; Mrs. Bromley took care of the jumble with Marilyn Sparling helping wherever needed.

The auxiliary would like to thank all the other ladies, too, who worked hard, including those who served refreshments to the boys on Apple Day, October 20th, also at the Halloween parties for the Cubs — Kaa and Shere Khan packs, Monday, October 29th, and the Scout Troops on October 30th.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held on November 20th, at Beverley Acres Public School, at which a fine social and relaxing evening is anticipated.

Attending the house warming party of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wells, Netherford Road, Maple, on Saturday last were, Mr. and Mrs. W. Musselwhite, Mr. and Mrs. J. Diceman and Miss R. Byron.

Major Robert Pimm and Mrs. Pimm attended the Garrison Ball on Friday night at the Royal York Hotel.

Mr. C. R. Smith, manager of The Bank of Nova Scotia, has just returned from a two-day conference in Toronto where he met with over 100 other Scotiabank managers mostly from Eastern Ontario, discussing staff, credit, customer-relationships, international operations, protection and other key aspects of banking.

Saturday, November 10 will see the second in this season's series of special films for children in the auditorium of the local library. The season got off to an excellent start last month with a capacity house for both morning and afternoon performances.

Austria is the setting for the feature film this month - "The Lone Climber" tells of the adventures of a young Austrian boy when he attempts to climb a mountain on his own. When he fails to return a search party is organized by his friends to go to his rescue and all ends well for him.

On the occasion of her 8th birthday Miss Susan Downey entertained a few girl friends at a birthday party held at Scott's Restaurant, Toronto. Attending the party were Susan's sister, Margaret Lynn, Lynda Lotin, Lynda Maskell, Karen Redburn and Lorie Scutthorpe.

Following the party, and on their way to the Royal Ontario Museum, a treat not included in their plans, was a colourful parade after the Varsity football game. Points of interest at the museum were the dinosaurs, Indian and Eskimo exhibits. A delightful walk from the museum along Bloor Street, where they viewed the British Travel exhibit showing replicas of crowns and jewels and authentic life size models in traditional "beefeater" costume from London Tower, concluded the eventful trip for the young ladies.

A very successful Training Conference was held by central area, Girl Guides of Canada in Richmond Hill United Church on November 3. Over two hundred and fifty leaders of Brownies and Guides, and district and division commissioners attended the various sessions conducted by diploma trainers from Oakville, Hamilton, Ottawa, Toronto and Richmond Hill East. At the lunch hour, the Area Commissioner, Mrs. E. A. Collins, spoke a few words and introduced the trainers, members of the area executive and the division commissioners. A delicious luncheon plate was served by the ladies of the Church.

Thursday night last week was a highlight in the current Sector plan in Richmond Hill United Church. It was the congregational dinner and meeting. An excellent dinner was prepared under the direction of Mrs. G. K. Martin. There was good fellowship and an abundance of fine food. At the conclusion of the dinner the scene of activity was transferred to the Church sanctuary. After some hymn singing, led by Bob Sheppard, with Franz Loesgen at the organ. Mr. Higginson opened the meeting with prayer. He then called on Ross Scrimger, general chairman to take charge. Mr. Scrimger gave a general outline of plans, then called on the following panel of speakers: Mr. Paul Angle traced in a most interesting way the history of the congregation from 1905 down to the present day. He revealed some stirring responses from the people in his face of emergencies.

Mrs. A. Macdonald painted a picture of the scope of the present Christian Education program. She challenged all to face up to personal responsibility for service. Mrs. J. Vanden Hoek, chairman of the missionary and maintenance committee called for a fresh look at the responsibilities "beyond our walls." He gave a comprehensive review of the range of projects depending on these funds. Dr. Gordon K. Martin, chairman of the program committee, presented the specific financial proposals for 1963. The total goal presented and accepted by the meeting is $60,540.00. Rev. Higginson summed up the spiritual challenge in a brief and inspiring message.

St. Paul's Will Observe Loyalty Sunday Nov. 11

Loyalty Sunday will be observed in St. Paul's Lutheran Church November 11. Featured in the 11 a.m. worship service will be "the commissioning of lay visitors."

Teams of these visitors will call at each home in the parish. Every member will be given an opportunity to make a commitment to the 1963 church budget.

The every-member visits climax six weeks of stewardship emphasis. The program and proposed budget of the congregation have been discussed in special home meetings throughout the parish.

At the home meetings four or five families met with a member of the Church council and the pastor to discuss the congregation's work and worship. Chairman of the stewardship emphasis is Harvey Duffert.

The home meetings were arranged by Mrs. Sylvia Limpert. They were held in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Melness, Robert Hull, Albert Harvey, Leonard Nordgren, Kenneth Dawe and Hans Bratfisch.

During the morning worship on recent Sundays members of the congregation have spoken about the emphasis. They have

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brumwell of Roblin, Manitoba, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown, 175 Church St.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Chandler, children John and Susan, Church Street, leave on Friday to take up residence at Brentwood Road, Oakville.

Richmond Hill WI The next meeting of the above organization will take place on Thursday, November 15, at 2 p.m. in the library auditorium. An interesting programme has been arranged, so a good attendance is anticipated.

Mrs. H. H. Mackay and Mrs. R. Fox will oppose Mrs. A. Lander and Mrs. C. Harding in a stirring debate.

Be prepared to answer the Roll Call - name "Something money can not buy."

Mrs. H. H. MacKay as president of York East District Women's Institutes will take an active part in the coming area convention to be held in the Royal York Hotel, November 6, 7 and 8. Mrs. R. Fox and Mrs. F. Davis will be the delegates from Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lyon, Woodlawn, have just returned from an interesting trip to the east coast.

They motored through Cornwall, across the new Eisenhower Bridge to Messina, N.Y. and through N.Y. State across the head of Lake Champlain, through Vermont, New Hampshire to Calais, Maine re-entering Canada at St. Stevens, New Brunswick, with two days at St. John, N.B., crossing on ferry to Digby N.S. Six days was spent at Digby Pines Hotel, which they recommend highly to anyone. Many side trips were taken, visiting Peggs Cove, Sandy Cove, Freeport, where they saw the largest fish cannery factory. They then continued to Lunenburg over to Halifax. They left Nova Scotia across the Canso Causeway into Cape Breton Isle.

The highlight of the trip was to Biddick, home of the Graham Bell museum. They attended an interesting lecture on his life was interested in helping deaf and dumb people (Helen Keller etc.). A visit was paid to the Beian Breagh Mountain, on which Mr. and Mrs. Bell are buried (Mr. Bell requested that they be buried there because the sight from there reminded him of Scotland). They left via Igonish, home of the Keltic Lodge, owned and operated by the government of Nova Scotia. They returned through the heart of New Brunswick to Lewis, then by ferry to Quebec.

Attending the Upper Canada College and St. Andrew's football game at Aurora on Saturday last were, with their families, Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney and Mr. and Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson.

Causing considerable interest on Yonge Street (next door to the 3 Coins Restaurant) is the Curtain Club's window display advertising "Teahouse of the August Moon", which is being presented at the theatre November 14-17, 21-24.

This delightful comedy, under the very capable direction of Cicely Thomson, is excellent entertainment for the whole family. Tickets are selling fast, reserve yours now by calling, TU. 4-7062.

On Wednesday, October 31 Miss Mary Millicamp died suddenly at her Rosedale Valley Road home in Toronto. Famous and widely known as former manager of the Park Plaza restaurant and proprietor of the Millicamp restaurant on Yorkville Avenue she was for many years a resident of Richmond Hill.

Born in Toronto she was a graduate of the University of Toronto and later studied in France. She taught French at Branksome Hall before entering the restaurant business. When a resident here she lived with her close friend and business associate Miss Pansy Reamsbottom on Centre Street West. The funeral was held last Friday and interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Richmond Hill United Sector Goal Of $60,540

Mr. Scrimger outlined the steps still to be taken and gave a personal witness of the individuals need to give - The joy to be found in giving, and the assurance that these things lead to a deeper and more significant commitment to Christ. The whole presentation might be summed up as a call to listen to the Spirit's voice speaking and to obey.

Dedication Sunday, when those who have made their commitment will bring their pledges for dedication. On November 18 the Visitation effort will be brought to completion by the visiting teams calling at the homes of those who have not already pledged.

Wright & Taylor
CHAPEL OF
PIPHER FUNERAL HOME
LIMITED
Established 1878
Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

ANNUAL MISSIONARY CONVENTION

FREE METHODIST CHURCH
Corner of Elmwood & Ruggles Aves.
Friday to Sunday - November 9-11

MISS NAOMI LINDSAY: recently returned from Egypt: Guest Speaker
FOUR BIG SERVICES - Friday 8:00 P.M.
Saturday Youth Rally 8:00 P.M.: (the Clark-Calverley Trio of Oshawa will be at this service)
Sunday 11:30 A.M. and 7:00 P.M.
Mrs. Marjory Creighton will be guest soloist on Sunday evening.
Curios from the field, slides!
COME JOIN US!

"What's Going On Down There Fisby?"
Captain Fisby (Bill Denison) enjoys certain aspects of Okinawan living! Sharing the role of Lotus Blossom and the affections of the captain in "Teahouse of the August Moon" are on the left, Esther Postlethwaite, and right, Dorothy Painter. A smash hit, first as a Broadway play, then as a motion picture, "Teahouse of the August Moon" comes to life again on the stage of the Curtain Club Theatre, November 14-17, 24-27. (Photo by Cross)

Attending the Upper Canada College and St. Andrew's football game at Aurora on Saturday last were, with their families, Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney and Mr. and Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson.

Causing considerable interest on Yonge Street (next door to the 3 Coins Restaurant) is the Curtain Club's window display advertising "Teahouse of the August Moon", which is being presented at the theatre November 14-17, 21-24.

This delightful comedy, under the very capable direction of Cicely Thomson, is excellent entertainment for the whole family. Tickets are selling fast, reserve yours now by calling, TU. 4-7062.

On Wednesday, October 31 Miss Mary Millicamp died suddenly at her Rosedale Valley Road home in Toronto. Famous and widely known as former manager of the Park Plaza restaurant and proprietor of the Millicamp restaurant on Yorkville Avenue she was for many years a resident of Richmond Hill.

Born in Toronto she was a graduate of the University of Toronto and later studied in France. She taught French at Branksome Hall before entering the restaurant business. When a resident here she lived with her close friend and business associate Miss Pansy Reamsbottom on Centre Street West. The funeral was held last Friday and interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Ruth's Kitchen
22 Leventdale Rd.
FALL SPECIAL
Old Fashioned
Apple Butter
HOME MADE BREAD, ROLLS
..... TU. 4-4188 .....

Good eating AT SAVINGS!
HOME MADE BEEF
SAUSAGE Link Farm Style lb. 29c Style lb. 19c
LEAN CORNED
Brisket Point lb. 49c
SIRLOIN and WING STEAKS lb. 69c
C. NELS GAGE
BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

Wright & Taylor
CHAPEL OF
PIPHER FUNERAL HOME
LIMITED
Established 1878
Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

Wright & Taylor
CHAPEL OF
PIPHER FUNERAL HOME
LIMITED
Established 1878
Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

Introducing
Walter Scudds
295 Bluegrass Blvd. Beverley Acres
YOUR CANDIDATE
FOR
Councillor Ward 1

THE MUSICAL INSTRUMENT OF YOUR CHOICE
LOANED FREE
Start Playing Today
Our 8-week Beginners Course at $2.50 weekly includes the free use of an instrument in your home.
Call TU. 4-5272 Today
MUNDINGER MUSIC
Yonge & Centre Sts. Richmond Hill

SPECIAL
AT
ALLEN COURT HAIRSTYLIST
Allencourt Plaza TU. 4-4581
Open Thursday and Friday evenings
FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER ONLY —
PERMS
Our Regular $12.50 Now $10.00
Our Regular $10.00 Now $8.00
We have added a new and wonderful perm to our selection. Ask about the wave that gives body only to your hair. This is the perm so many women have been looking and waiting for.

HERBERT R. BUTT
Insurance Service
24 Elizabeth St. N. 112 Yonge St.
Richmond Hill Toronto
Telephone
Richmond Hill Toronto, Ontario
TU. 4-1312 EMpire 2-3456
DEPENDABLE