

"May I Come To See You?"

Asks the big flip chart as Graham Walter, Maple, begins the instruction of the men who will train the 5,000 canvassers in this month's County of York United Hospitals campaign for over $1 million. Life underwriters throughout the county have taken on the main job of training the canvassers who will soon be knocking on the 28,000 front doors.

GUIDE AND BROWNIE NOTES

2nd Richmond Hill Girl Guides

Reported by Guide Susan Bovard
"Back to work" was the motto of the 2nd Richmond Hill Girl Guide Company, after commencing regular meetings of the 1962-63 season. This company now numbers 25 ambitious members, all striving energetically to eventually earn the highest honour in Guiding, their "Gold Cord".

Just recently, a girl guide from Scotland, Kay Morrison, came to Canada, joining up with the 2nd and, due to her previous experience, will soon be presented with her Gold Cord.

Following the first meeting of the season, a barbecue was held at the home of Captain Mrs. Waters, each bringing along their own food, pop, and sleeping bags. The girls were shown how to pitch tents and roll sleeping bags. Games were played that concerned guiding, followed by a sing-song.

A downpour of rain delayed the programme, but, as soon as it let up, campfire was continued with songs of the company, such as "This Little Guiding Light of Mine", "Witchcraft", and others. This was followed by several skits, and a charleston dance by one of the guides.

Campfire was closed by two most popular songs in Guiding, "The Day is Done", and "The Golden Sun". With thanks to Captain Waters and Lieutenant Lorna Sutherland for such an enjoyable barbecue, all the guides were taken to their homes.

7th Richmond Hill Girl Guides

The continuation of "Indian Summer" weather for members of the 7th Richmond Hill Girl Guide Company, permitted them to engage in a very successful seven mile hike on October 13th to Shur-Gain Farm in Maple. Here, the girls were soon busy, practising for tests for Woodman badge, trail laying, and Kim's game, also hunting up specimens to enable them to pass their Naturalist test.

A real hearty dinner of meat and vegetables was cooked in foil over the hot coals, after which a tour of the barns was made, and the farm live stock all proved interesting to the group.

6th Richmond Hill Girl Guides

The 6th Richmond Hill Girl Guide Company have been active, both indoor and outdoor. On October 20 - 16 guides under the leadership of Captain Mrs. G. Rimmer and Lieutenant Mrs. J. Milligan - undertook a successful seven mile hike up to north Bayview, the objective being to pass tests on trails, firemaking and scout pace for 2nd class. All enjoyed the hot lunch, cooked and eaten outdoors.

Barn, Dwelling Razed By Fire Halloween Night

Halloween was a busy evening for Markham Township police and firemen. Police report a barn and house were completely destroyed by fire. The barn was on the property of Kenmore Sand and Gravel, Leslie Street, at Headford. Police claim the fire was started by unknown pranksters. Farm machinery and straw in the barn, which was rented by George Horner of Headford, were a total loss, according to police. Police attribute the fire which destroyed the house on Concession 7 at Highway 7 to unknown causes. The house, which was empty, was owned by Toronto General Burying Grounds. Pranksters kept police busy all that evening. Police say vandals did about $150 damage to the windows of S.S. No. 7, Den Mills Road at 19th Avenue. Police questioned and released a group of youngsters who were trying to break wigwag signals on the CNR tracks in Gormley. About $95 damage resulted when a car driven by Neil Blackwell of Markham Village swerved to avoid a youngster who was "trick or treating" on Kennedy Road near Hagerman Corners. Blackwell's car collided with a car driven by Margaret Davies of Kennedy Road, Scarboro.

This year Headford was exposed to outside tricksters on Halloween to an extent not experienced before. Local pranksters confine their elfin urges to lifting mail boxes and ringing and running. This year the invasion soaped house and car windows, threw eggs at doors and wrote obscenities on available spots. Following the usual custom here Headford children were accompanied by their parents as they called on their neighbours.

In post mortem one mother said that she had her children, though innocent, clean up the mess so they would realize the work involved. One home owner found an effective way of scattering wreckers. For two years he took up his vigil with a strong camera flash and at the first sound he went into action. Following the flash he exclaimed loudly, "Got them". The disorderly retreat was amusing. The sound of ripping cloth as the fence was scaled and some colorful expletives testified to the success of the surprise tactics. It put an end to broken windows and hacked doors. A flood of light turned on suddenly is quite a disperser of mischief makers.

Mrs. Ben Terry asks each Halloween caller to draw a picture of himself and sign it. She has an interesting lot of pictures from several years collection. Another feature at the Terry home is a count contest, "How Many Pennies In A Jar And The Closest Gets A Silver Dollar?" This year's winner was Lisa Staten and her count was exactly right.

A barn on the farm of Charles and Harley Horner was burned Halloween. The blaze lit the sky at 11:45 and the firemen were there soon after. A brisk north west wind was blowing and burnt embers were found as far away as the Wellman and Leek farms. Fortunately the land and neighbouring farm buildings were rain soaked.

The barn had a history. It was built from the lumber salvaged from the Hyslop mill on the farm now owned by G. H. Sheppard. The mill served the early settlers in the community but after the flood in 1912 the dams were not repaired and the mill was dismantled.

It was Rosemary Leek's turn to demonstrate at the 4-H club meeting at the home of their leader. She garnished the tossed salads with radish roses and celery. Miss Sandra Cheller, Home Economist, was present for this meeting. It is to be noted that the girls and leaders eat the culinary concoctions - and enjoy them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nixon, Manilla and their three sons were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Barker. They visited also in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Barker.

Susan Staten entertained six little friends at her sixth birthday, November 3. Best wishes Susan for many more happy years.

Thursday and Friday will see the playoff for senior and junior football in the Georgian Bay School Association. Congratulations to Thornhill Secondary School reaching the finals. The junior team will play against Barrie North at Barrie and the senior team will play at Thornhill against Midland-Penetang. Headford's interest is in Albert Leek junior team and John Rumble senior.

The H-C group of Headford United Church held its annual election of officers with the following results: president, Christine Terry; vice-president, Sharon Rumble; secretary, Susan Terry; treasurer, Albert Leek.

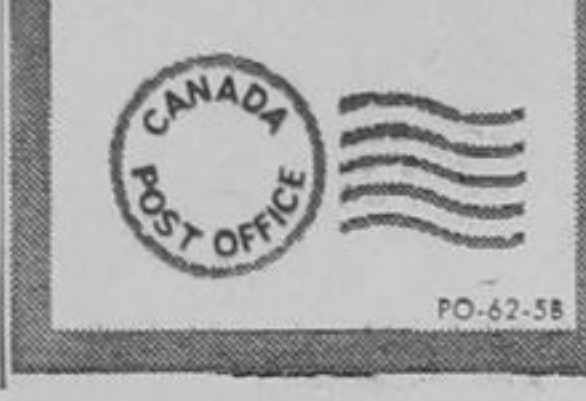

The enthusiasm of the audience was evident in the barrage of questions asked Miss Phyllis Haslam, director of The Elizabeth Fry Society, when she addressed the York County University Women's Club on October 22. Miss Haslam was prime organizer of the society which was formed nine years ago to improve the conditions of women offenders while in prison and after release. Last year the small staff and many well-trained volunteers handled over 500 cases in Toronto alone.

Miss Haslam spoke at length about the kinds of crime which involve women. Next to traffic offenses, more women are convicted of drunkenness than of any other single offense. Theft and narcotic convictions rank third and fourth.

The audience heard an appeal for understanding of these women who are really sick and usually belong in hospitals rather than in penal institutions. Miss Haslam described the typical woman who lands in jail as a shy, lonely person, probably middle-aged, of little financial means and with below-average intelligence. There is no doubt that excessive drinking is our largest social problem in Canada. The Elizabeth Fry Society tries to help these women by visiting them in prisons, writing letters, and by helping to establish them in jobs after their release from prison.

School News

At the Richmond Hill High School commencement last Friday night, former Jefferson Public School pupils receiving diplomas for completion of their Grade XIII were Mary Lake, Ann Fletcher, Larry Folliot and Peter Crack. Congratulations to Larry Folliot who was presented with a high school board prize for the third highest standing in Grade XIII. Larry also won an Ontario Scholarship.

Bill Hall, Peter Terry, Nancy Passmore and Wendy Wilson received diplomas for secondary school graduation.

Victor Folliot was presented with a prize for the highest standing in industrial arts for grades IX and X.

During the past three weeks parent interviews have been taking place at the school. These have been tried before and proved very helpful - at a pre-arranged time the teacher and parent meet to discuss problems concerning each pupil, and the solutions to these problems.

Sympathy
The sincere sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. H. Redman on the death of her husband last week.

Jefferson Community Club
The community club held its annual bazaar at the school last Saturday and it was a very successful affair. There was a good crowd and the tables were all laden down with most attractive articles. The following ladies were in charge of the sewing table: Mrs. R. Browne, Mrs. E. Hall, and Mrs. E. Gamble; the white elephant table Mrs. J. Hazlehurst and Mrs. George Gouling; the home baking Mrs. H. Hallgren and Mrs. E. A. Terry; the Christmas decorations

Mrs. C. Whalen, assisted by Rhonda Ford, Ruth Harper, Gail Hallgren, Mary Jane Terry and Joan Munro. The school children made all these decorations and they certainly deserve a lot of praise for their efforts. The fish pond was a popular place with the young folk and very capably handled by Judy Dodson and David McDowell.

In the tea room Mrs. Tuckerman, Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Ratchford and Mrs. Bell served refreshments and they did a rushing business all afternoon.

Mrs. E. Ford was in charge of the tickets and the winners of the prizes were Mrs. E. Hall, Miss Lillian Robinson and E. A. Terry.

The Elgin Mills-Jefferson Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary had a candy table, which did a brisk business. Mrs. J. Passmore and Margaret Passmore were in charge of this table. The plans of the hospital were displayed for all interested to see and the smocks that will be used by the volunteers.

The executive of the community club would like to thank all the parents who contributed to make the bazaar such a success. A special vote of thanks to Mr. C. Hanson who donated the flowers.

Family night will be held at the school this Friday night from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and join in the dancing and sing song.
St. John's Church News

home of Mrs. G. Kerswell.
Last Thursday the evening branch of the W.A. held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. L. Boyle when final plans were completed for the turkey dinner to be held next week at the parish hall.

Neighbourhood Notes
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Morrison, former residents of Jefferson, attended the school bazaar last week and all their old friends were very glad to see them.

Mrs. L. Boyle, Colleen and Gary, attended a farewell party for some of the telephone operators last Thursday in Markham at the home of Miss Elizabeth Williamson, former chief operator for Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gamble returned home last week after a most enjoyable trip to Calgary where they stayed with Mrs. Gamble's sister, Mrs. P. Large. They visited with Mrs. Gamble's aunt, Mrs. Deisman who is 92 years young, Mrs. A. Hall's sister, and they called on a cousin, Mrs. Ferguson and her family. They spent a day in Banff which they found very beautiful.

Several couples attended the Lions Club dance and draw last Thursday at the Mart Kenny Ranch.

Sharon Gamble was a winner at the intramural table tennis draw last week.

Mrs. A. McKay, one of the Hall girls, recently moved to Richmond Hill.

A speedy recovery to Mr. T. Bell, Brookside Road, who is at present in the hospital.

Mrs. C. Whalen's mother, Mrs. T. W. Jackson, Mrs. B. G. Whalen, Mrs. W. Cormack and Mrs. J. Hatherley, all of Toronto, attended the community club bazaar last Saturday.

To members of the hospital auxiliary - canvassers are still needed for the hospital campaign for funds. Please continue to send names in.

WILLOWDALE: Fred Young, councillor for Ward 5, North York Township has announced his retirement from municipal politics at the end of this year. He will seek the provincial NDP nomination.

AURORA: Councillor James Murray has announced that he will oppose incumbent Keith Nisbet in Aurora's mayoralty race.
