

WILL YOU HELP TO BUILD YOUR HOSPITAL ?

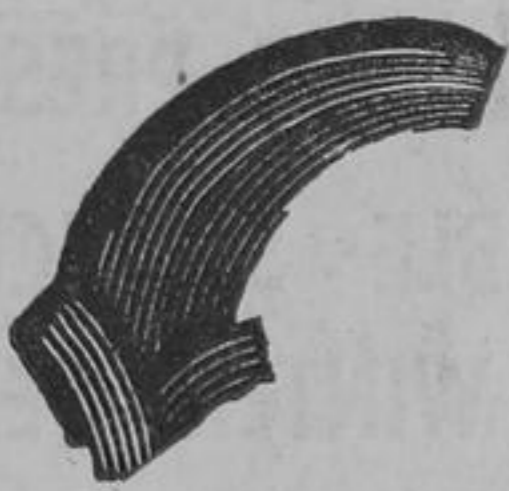

Three-year-old Dougie Gosbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gosbee, King township, is happy that he's found a hospital bed because that's where he is being "all fixed up". However, many others in the County of York have difficulty finding a hospital bed because there is a big shortage of them. The current United Hospitals campaign hopes to soon provide 389 beds — compared with 113 today — by expanding the York County Hospital at Newmarket and building a new hospital at Richmond Hill. Dougie was struck by a car.

The County of York United Hospitals Campaign is now in full swing. Construction is well underway on the new hospital at Richmond Hill and the additional wing at Newmarket. About 2,000 canvassers are campaigning at present --- but many more are needed. Will you help?
