

KING CITY, OAK RIDGES LAKE WILCOX

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. William J. Houston, telephone TEmple 3-5457; and in Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox, Mrs. Lillian Atcheson, Wildwood Ave., PR. 3-5479.

King City Notes

For the "Civic Night" dinner meeting of King City Lions' Club at Temperanceville Church, special guests were Deputy Reeve Norman McMurphy, Councillors Gordon Cook, Jack Rouble and William Curran, who is also a club member; Village Trustees Robert O'Reilly, James Sim and Robert Berwick.

Wing Commander D.C. Laubman, D.F.C. and Bar, of the Downsview Station, RCAF, spoke on the security of Canada, illustrating his talk with slides of the DEW Line and different types of planes.

Mr. G. T. Thompson was program chairman.

Saturday afternoon pleasure skating at Nobleton rink commenced recently with an attendance of 285. King City Lions' Club member Jack McMinn is in charge of the skating, made possible for village children by bus transportation provided by the club.

Last Saturday Lions George Armstrong, Clifford Courts, William Curran and Herbert Ross supervised the skating period.

Buses leave Temperanceville at 1:15 p.m. Saturdays and Doctors Lane at 1:30, picking up skaters en route to Nobleton.

Paul Cameron Saunders, infant son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Saunders of Hollingsworth Crescent, was christened at King City United Church in a service led by Rev. Martin R. Jenkinson November 3.

The following day Mr. Jenkinson christened Elizabeth Janice Smider, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Smider of Bennett Drive.

At Teston United Church Rev. Martin Jenkinson officiated at four christenings: Lee-Anne Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Busby of Kinghorn; Angela Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kerr; Debra Ann Kerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kerr of Strang; and Catherine Vera Marwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David James Marwood.

For the first time in nearly five years, school children using King City's double level railway crossing do not have the protection of a crossing guard.

Since Mrs. Al LaPlante resigned after completing two years' service October 31 as a member of the village's police department, it has not been decided whether her replacement is the responsibility of village trustees or the school section board.

The crossing guard service was started in February 1958, when the late Harry Edwards was appointed. He remained on the job two years and eight months until he was succeeded by Mrs. LaPlante.

King City Firemen's W.A. fed 175 adults and children at the annual turkey dinner in the United Church last Wednesday.

Eight firemen were on hand to help with the table service. The auxiliary expected to clear more than $100 from the venture.

A new purchase is the 75-cup coffee pot, which will be used when the euchre series starts in late November.

Mrs. Fred Curtis was named president of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W.A. at the November 6 elections conducted by Mrs. Victor Pötter.

The new executive includes: Mrs. Howard Cairns, first vice-president; Mrs. William Willoughby, secretary; Mrs. Fred Gray, assistant secretary; Mrs. Charles Gordon, treasurer; Mrs. Albert Holman, assistant pianist; Mrs. E. Lenhardt, sick and welfare convener; Mrs. Lenhardt, sewing convener; Mrs. John Tanner, social convener; Mrs. Curtis, quilt convener.

Col. J. G. K. Strathy, colonel of the regiment, and Mrs. Strathy were honored guests at the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, Sergeants' Mess, 79th annual ball last Friday evening at Casa Loma.

Among those on the committee assisting at the Visitors to Canada booth at the Royal Winter Fair are Mrs. C. F. W. Burns, Mrs. John H. Addison, Mrs. Brian Herbison, Mrs. Barry Collard, Mrs. Robert Silcox, Mrs. J. S. D. Tory and Mrs. Ernest Redemler.

It's "an ill wind that bloweth no man to good" . . . Leaving sample packages of a detergent at King City households, a Toronto firm was right on the bit with its accompanying advertising letter.

The company president addressed his message "to all residents of the King City area". Noting the village's water supply problem, the manufacturer trusts they will find his product requires less water for thorough laundry rinsing.

Rewarding by the best attendance in years, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W.A. raised $350.59 at their annual bazaar and tea November 3.

Four quilts made during the year were sold. The tea corner, where refreshments were served and music rapidly winning favor in guiding circles.

Mrs. Ralph Church of Hamby Avenue told "The Liberal" she has not named the song, which was well received when she recently attended a training conference at Doe Lake.

She says she doesn't read music and plays the piano a little "by ear". Nevertheless, her catchy composition is to be published in the Guide magazine.

Mrs. Church is Tawny Owl of the village's newly-formed fourth Brownie Pack. Her two older daughters, Brenda and Bonnie, are Girl Guides. Ruby Church is a Brownie and likely following in her footsteps will be baby Elizabeth, when she is old enough.

The CGIT of King City United Church arranged a movie night at the church, which resulted in a donation being sent to UNICEF.

CGIT leader Mrs. Alan Henderson showed slides of Jordan and the Holy Land, her husband narrating the scenes. A Danny Kaye film illustrated what UNICEF was doing for children in Korea and Jordan.

The CGIT meets each Monday evening with Mrs. Henderson in charge of the senior girls and Miss Beth Gellatly, leader of the juniors.

Mrs. Bert Newsome returned home feeling better after a few days' illness in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Agar, Mary, Ruth, John and Jamie, moved from North Keele Street to the newly-built manse on Elizabeth Grove. Assisting them in moving were congregation members Jack Walkington and Donald McCallum.

Former village residents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Urquhart, 55 Austin Drive, Waterloo, have a new eight-pound son, a brother for Laura, John, Jamie, Scott and Cameron.

While putting her baby to bed, a King City housewife composed a Brownie enrolment

Shortage Of Ice Hampers Players In Lions' League

Sponsored by King City Lions' Club, 140 boys between the ages of 8 and 15 are taking part in the Saturday afternoon hockey games at Nobleton Arena.

The younger boys in the house league start their practices around 3:30, while the seniors play until 6:30.

Lion Jack Jones, managing the hockey program, told "The Liberal", "There just isn't ice time for boys of 16 and 17 who want to play. We could get the coaches, but it's the lack of rink time."

The intermediates play as Lions, Tigers, Bears and Cubs, under the guidance of Ken Keates, Allen Cooke, Jack Hamilton and Charles Ormsby.

Seniors prefer to be known as the Leafs, Canadiens, Bruins and Rangers and they are trained by Joseph Houlton, Arnold Peter, Burt Wyer and William Curran.

Chief referees are Bob Gillies and Larry Monkman.

The teams expect to play 23 Saturdays before they conclude activities in March.

All those taking the examination at the end of the six weeks' first aid course at Laskay were successful.

The 13 earning St. John Ambulance Brigade diplomas were:

Mrs. Don Barker, Mrs. Clyde Cairns, Miss Beth Cairns, Mrs. R. Franklin, Mrs. Aubrey Glass, Mrs. Earl Lowe, Miss Marjorie McMurchy.

Mrs. Robert Starkey, Mrs. John Taylor, Mr. Nicholas Bynkowski of Maple, Mr. Don Domerchie of Schomberg, Mr. F. J. Chaffer and Mr. Donald Woodcock.

Three more members of the class expect to try the test at Newmarket. W. P. Gilbert of Newmarket, conducted the St. John course arranged by Laskay Women's Institute. Nearly 30 enrolled at the beginning of the Tuesday evening classes.

Mrs. Church is Tawny Owl of the village's newly-formed fourth Brownie Pack. Her two older daughters, Brenda and Bonnie, are Girl Guides. Ruby Church is a Brownie and likely following in her footsteps will be baby Elizabeth, when she is old enough.

A record turn-out of 42 mothers and Guiders attended the opening general meeting of the Girl Guides' Local Association at All Saints' Church.

Half-way through the business session there was a social intermission, with coffee and an eye-catching array of desserts.

District Commissioner Mrs. Alex Knight presided as reports were heard from leaders. Guide Captains Mrs. Harry Goulding and Mrs. Ray Runney described the day-long hike camps from King had taken at camp.

The mothers were interested in the supper which awaited the Guides' return — a pot luck meal cooked in a hole in the ground. Mrs. Runney explained how this was accomplished.

Mrs. Knight told of the formation of the new Brownie Pack at Maple, led by Brown Owl Mrs. William Lobraico. The King Association donated $10 toward initial expenses of the neighboring group.

It was announced the two King Guide Companies were planning a "Santa's Workshop" bazaar before Christmas. An enrolment of 160 was reported, 51 Guides, 93 Brownies and 16 leaders.

Mrs. Clyde Cairns presided over the business period at the November meeting of Laskay United Church Women. A profit of over $300 was expected from the fowl supper, which was reported to have "run smoothly" through three table settings.

Christian Citizenship convener Miss Marjorie McMurchy read a paper on the work of missionaries Dr. and Mrs. Ed Abbott, both doctors stationed in India with their family at Rasulia.

Mrs. Effie Bath led the worship service and sang a duet with Mrs. M. Hunter. Mrs. Tom Walker, also on the program committee, spoke on the study book topic, "The Rim Of Asia".

Miss McMurchy explained symbols of the United Church crest, representing the union of churches.

Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox Socials

A conference for commissioners, Guide and Brownie leaders and local association members was held November 3 at Thornhill United Church.

Those attending from this area were Guide Commissioner, Mrs. June Cartner; Guiders, Mrs. Good and Mrs. Findlison, Brown Owl Mrs. E. Charuk and local association members Mrs. H. Longhurst and Mrs. L. Marr.

The ladies learned many facts pertaining to better management of local association and guidance for the instruction of Guides and Brownies.

Mrs. Gibeault and Mrs. G. Woods, immediate past president and president-elect of the mothers' auxiliary to Guides and Brownies, attended a meeting for presidents only at Richmond Hill, October 29.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held November 15 at the home of Mrs. C. R. Smith, South Road.

The executive will be installed prior to the business session. Local association for Guides and Brownies have completed their plans for a bridge, euchre and cribbage evening to be held at the Legion Hall, Oak Ridges, November 21.

Prizes are now on display at the Oak Ridges Cleaners in the Plaza. Tickets are available for 50 cents. Refreshments will be served.

The next home and school association meeting will be held November 19 at the Oak Ridges School. A very interesting program has been planned and it is hoped the turnout will be as good as at the last meeting.

A parent's night was held at the Lake Wilcox School, November 8. Parents were able to inspect their children's work and talk to their teachers for a few minutes.

This gives the teachers the opportunity of meeting the parents of their pupils, and also for the parents to meet teachers and try to solve any problems that have arisen.

The Poinsettia Tea and Bazaar held at St. Paul's United Church, under the sponsorship of the United Church Women was a huge success. Many things were sold including gifts for Christmas, bake goods, aprons, doll clothes and toys.

Convener for the event was Mrs. Terry Farquharson assisted by Mrs. Lena Wooley, Mrs. Grounds and Mrs. Mellissa Rowe.

Mrs. Wm. Burns and Mrs. H. Gardiner poured tea and lunch was served.

Mrs. Vern Plante and Mrs. Wm. McDermott convened for the tea tables, Mrs. Ken Farquharson, bake table, Mrs. Dave Ground, woolen table, Mrs. Irene Blyth, Christmas fancies, Mrs. Louise Winch, aprons, Edna Geary, assortment table, Lee Gallagher, touch and take table, Mellissa Rowe, dolls clothes and toys, Helen Lang looked after the candy table.

Many other women worked at the various tables and sent baking for the tables and the tea and everyone is thanked for taking part.

St. Paul's WA had their annual meeting November 6 and reports for the year were read.

Harold Hall, Fergus Ave., has returned home from hospital. Mrs. Vi Cameron, North Road, is still confined to Newmarket Hospital.

Bill Good, North Road, entered Sunnybrook Hospital November 4 and will probably be there four or five weeks. He is the TV repairman and also postmaster of the district.

Ralph Appelhoff, Aubrey Ave., entertained his cousin, Barbara Jende, and friends Richard Kennedy and Florence Orton, at his fifth birthday party November 5.

A group of Baptist young people from Toronto were entertained by Ted Dickinson, at his home on Bostwick Cres., Oak Ridges, November 3.

Ted is vice-president of the group. Rev. James Talbot of Boon Avenue Baptist Church was also a guest, providing some of the transportation for the young folk.

Birthdays wishes for Brenda Bolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bolan, Wildwood Ave., who celebrated her 15th birthday November 12. Mrs. Edna Topp, Aubrey Ave., celebrated her birthday November 8.

Keen Election Tilt In King

At least three candidates have signified their intention of running for office of reeve of King Township.

The position is being vacated by Reeve William Hodgson, retiring after heading the township for seven consecutive years of his 13 years on council.

Prepared to replace him are lawyers Donald Findlay and Ronald Wilson, and retired farmer, Raymond Jennings.

Former King City Police Village Chairman, Mr. Findlay has been on King Township Planning Board three years, earlier this year being named chairman.

Defeated when he opposed Mr. Hodgson in last year's election, Mr. Wilson has continued his active interest in township politics.

Mr. Jennings served eight years as a township councillor, until 1959.

Only candidate as deputy-reeve known at press time is Gordon Cook, a farmer, who has been councillor for the past three years.

Early this week the incumbent deputy-reeve, Norman MacMurphy, had not announced his intentions.

Jack Rouble, Amsnorvoldt business man, is seeking re-election as councillor after two years experience.

A newcomer, Donald Bowie of Pottageville, employed in Toronto, announced he would try for councillor. He has been active on Pottageville community hall building committee.

William Curran, chartered accountant, who has been a councillor this year, will be a candidate again but by press time had not decided which office he would seek.

Stanley Metcalfe of Oak Ridges, a town planner working in Toronto, was considering whether to try as councillor again. He was defeated last year and currently instigated the committee studying advantages to Oak Ridges of becoming a police village.

Township candidates were invited to speak to ratepayers at Pottageville hall Tuesday evening.

Township nominations night is November 20 in Nobleton Hall and elections slated for Saturday, December 1, from ten a.m. to eight p.m. at 16 polling booths.

Three questions will be submitted to King Township voters this year.

"Are you in favour of the council setting apart the whole of the township as a township school area?"

"Are you in favour of extending the right to vote at municipal elections for members of council to all persons of the full age of 21 years, who are British subjects and who have resided in the municipality for at least one year, in accordance with the Municipal Franchise Extension Act?"

"Are you in favour of the election of members of the Council of the Township of King for a two-year term?"

In King City, where nominations will be received next Wednesday evening, November 21, at the village office, this year's chairman, Robert O'Reilly, was the only candidate stating his decision to stand for election. He has served two years as trustee.
