KING CITY, OAK RIDGES LAKE WILCOX

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. William J. Houston, telephone TEmple 3-5457; and in Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox, Mrs. Lillian Atcheson, Wildwood Ave., PR. 3-5479.

1 from 2.30 to 5 p.m.

James Sim Retires

Five After Three Spots On King Village Board

Taxes, roads and sidewalks, He enumerated his pre-ciec building. To me wallas, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wid-ran declined nominations as Six brigades service the townrates occupied the interest of ago and said he felt he had for us to bring up our homes. ble. 60 ratepayers attending the no-lived up to his promises. I hope next year this will be Mrs. Allan Smith will convene position".

mination of trustees in the vil- "I feel we have reduced costs given some thought." Returning Officer G. T. Supervision of roads was turn-terim financial statement, he ing; Mrs. S. Allen Cooke, candy; of King Sideroad has been made Retiring after 13 years on Thompson announced the names ed over to Tom Arlidge, town- suggested capital improvements Mrs. Irving L. Scott, sewing; the past few days by Cadden council, the last seven as reeve. of five candidates nominated ship roads supervisor, at a were possible from the $10,000 Mrs. John Dew and Mrs. George Brothers, with the removal of William Hodgson thanked his trustees and new candidates, King City. whose speeches were concluded in one and a half hours.

Farguhar, technician, John he said.

Mr. O'Reilly, serving as chairman in his second year as trustee, pointed out the tax line had been held, street lighting increased to the extent allowed in the budget, and much progress made in accomplishing sidewalks.

in connection with that as- obtained in seven months. sumption and in due course you. will get a financial statement high school sidewalk to trustees politics."

Mr. O'Reilly urged next would have to be done to meet the future possibility of rate friendships formed between dergarten room. year's trustees to continue a the eventual road grade. similar program of extending lighting and sidewalks, and a plan of economy.

Asked by ratepayer Jack Wilson about water possibilities, Mr. O'Reilly reported the village is in a good position. "We have a well that will produce 300 gallons a minute once it is developed."

Pressed "when", he hoped, "in the immediate future".

it? I'd like to get a bath!" restrictions could soon be lift- past boards. ed "so you may have a bath He felt previous trustees had stated.

Plans To Return Retiring one-year trustee en months this year.

once a day".

commitments prevented him walks on all main roads. to be able to run next year. much more was done to this councillor.

for 1963. All qualified by the great saving. Staff hours were surplus. "During the last two Harvey, dolls and dolls' clothes, lawn trees along the proposed supporters and invited any one reduced to two afternoons a months of the year the town- Mrs. C. E. Underhill of Mel- path. Robert Berwick, electrician, week. Police costs were shared, ship takes a fair bite in expen- rose Ave. gave a birthday party Ronald Bolton, engineer, Ross 50 per cent by the township", diture, so the surplus may be to celebrate the third birthday Debbie Shipley celebrated her ily with making it possible for half that".

ert O'Reilly, merchant, will there could be further savings second well was installed, Wemyss, Lynn Renninson and Bruce Shipley entertained Jo- at no time discouraged an air-Mervyn Long acted as chairexplained water fines "were all tion has grown to the point administration costs". He doubling capacity. The populaexplained water fines "were all tion has grown to the point and the contract of the point and the contract of the popular and the contract of

The fire department was re- early enough looking for water, gill, Diane Parsons, Susan Mc- Deirdre and Melinda Barry, The fire department was re- carry chough totaling to the difficulty and Don- Sandra Henshall, Debbie Gordon and near high class homes prov-Trustee Berwick said his platform had been sidewalks. He said the proposed well Dennis School. "I believe we have done a lot, was "a last resort" because, lohope next year's trustees will cated in the same valley as the ing by a girls' choir from of King City's landmarks will continue this work to make "There is no road in. One will choir of Grades 3 and 4. to prove the asphalt surfacing." cost money. In Spring you film, "Today's Child, Better or By December 2 the least

"fine co-operation" of the town- mer trustees left this year's ers and fathers took part in a storey building on the same lot a year ago, had entailed con- ship, Toronto and York Roads, trustees "good reserves, par- discussion. siderable work transferring as- and Department of Highways ticularly for street lighting". They considered whether par- torn down. sets. "Everything is in order with sidewalk approval being He said he had pushed for pur- ents know enough about a rate in effect three years seem- program. ed to be sufficient for a payas-you-go policy and capital For the first time on election enrolment were reported.

He attributed delay of the was what started me in local reation after school; how far had an opportunity to learn le on township roads.

to see taxes "as low as pos-instead of at the Masonic Hall, to the 31 parents. sible". He admitted he had no Voting hours for township While refreshments were be-

Mr. Bolton, who missed be- in charge of eight men. From a rear row came a ing elected by one vote last "As my platform I would Following an afternoon of voice, "It won't be too long will year after five consecutive like to see the town grow. E- skating at Nobleton arena Novyears as trustee, thought there nough has been said about side- ember 17, Peter Tetley, son of Mr. O'Reilly was optimistic should be representation from walks, something should be Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tetley, done about roads," Mr. Mann celebrated his eighth birthday by inviting a number of friends assisted in the pre-planning Mr. Thompson introduced to his party. stage of walks approved in sev-township candidates lawyers George DeWitt showed mov-James Sim announced other Mr. Bolton advocated side- Wilson, running for reeve, and light.

Donald Findlay and Ronald ies much to the children's dechartered accountant William running for 1963, but he hoped "I was disappointed not Curran, seeking re-election as Celebrate Ladies' Night

King City Lions Club held an entertaining social evening celebrating "Ladies' Night" with dinner and dancing at the Bolton Country Club. The party travelled by chartered bus. Lion Robert Walker acted as chairman for the dinner. Lion Joseph Houlton proposed a complimentary toast to the ladies. Mrs. Howard Clegg replied on behalf of the guests. Each lady received a red rose as a favor. A few played cards after dinner while the others danced to a variety of records operated by Jack Cruickshank. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boys were special guests.

Among those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Coutts, Mr. and Mrs. John Dew, Mrs. J. D. Greer, Mr. George Bennet, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Farquhar, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garbutt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goulding, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hadwen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hayward.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Houlton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kerr, Mr. and

Mrs. Harry Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. Reject Lounges

Whitchurch Township voters last Wednesday rejected the establishment of dining lounges in the municipality by almost Vote against serving liquor under a dining lounge license for consumption with meals on licensed premises was 1,021 to 598. Only 43 per cent of 3,800 eligible voters went to the

Less than one-half of the 1, 250 signers on a petition asking for the vote, voted in favor of dining lounges. Favorable votes in the semiurban communities of Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox and Musselman's Lake were more than offset by the vote in rural areas. Lemonville rejected dining lounges by 150 to 5.

"LIBERAL" CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS PHONE TU. 4-1105 or AV. 5-3316

Three Fight For Reeveship

Two lawyers, Donald Findlay the nomination meeting. for reeve of King Township last by acclamation.

Tuesday at Nobleton Hall.

Over 300 ratepayers attended seats as councillors were nom- attempts to assume assessment held, additional assests are all King City Notes tered accountant. Elwood Dale, ning board", he added. Continuing the tradition of an B. J. Langdon, Mr. and Mrs. chant.

UCW President Mrs. Donald Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roots, Mr. and Mrs. Loyis Tienkamp.

The reeve said he had never taken a definite stand on school areas in the past.

"I think this is very important, whether whole or part form an area. We should be in the same position for primary education as secondary education, with equal school tax and every one sharing the benefit of estate assessment and indus-

VOTE

FOR PLANNED PROGRESS IN KING TOWNSHIP

Hadwen will officially open the popular pre-Christmas event.

Mrs. Gordon Orr is general convenor and Mrs. Harold Kir
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker.

Alex Rybka and Jack Van Luyk were acclaimed as trustees in TSA Two.

Incumbent William Hodgson Whitehweek the three por ice villages this year. A water won't fall township.

Taxes, roads and sidewalks, He enumerated his pre-elec-building. To me the village of water wate the delicatessen table; Mrs. A start toward the building ferred to make his second try Bradford noted the chairman of and duplication of services. Glancing at the village's in- Donald M. Findlay, home-bak- of a sidewalk on the north side for the top council chair. to visit his wife and himself in Kettleby. He credited his fam-of her daughter, Kelly. Shar-eighth birthday November 21 him to serve on council. Mann, sales manager, and Rob- Mr. Sim added: "In future "During my five years the ing the party fun were Judy with an after-school party. Mrs. He pointed out that council anne Hadwen, Edith Davidson, port coming into King. It was Mervyn Long acted as chairman, calling upon this year's trustees and new candidates, trustees and new candidates are trustees and new candidates. ure of a new well. We started students Mary Evans, Jan Car- Mary Veltheer, Reid Crawford, couldn't foresee the difficulty ald Orr were heard by parents and Christine Common. Debthere would be finding it", the attending the Home and School bie's younger brother, Bruce, Association meeting at Eva L. joined in the festivities.

other two, access was difficult. Grades 7 and 8, and the mixed have only a few more days in film, "Today's Child, Better or By December 3 the branch will Mr. Berwick credited the Mr. Bolton recalled that for- Worse Than Yesterday's", moth- be moved into the new oneand the 35-year-old bank will be should parents go in assisting more about this year's course "Nobody is going to vote in out detriment to the municipalregarding hydro," he told the "go sheed" that rebuilding that rebuilding that rebuilding that rebuilding and should parents interfere in mosting last work at school; their children are taking at a favor unless the road is a direct ity.

Mr. Bolton noted the 12 mill Refreshments concluded the Mrs. James Wemyss presided Mr. Hodgson thanked town- well," he concluded.

OAK RIDGES AND LAKE WILCOX

NEWS

ON PAGE 21

inated. They are Donald Bowie, and welfare. "I can't understand paid for, and debentures are salesman, William Curran, char- why they need a county plan- going down", he reminded the merchant, Mrs. Ruth Mabee, Mr. MacMurchy advocated Mr. Findlay emphasized, "Ratehousewife, Kenneth McTaggart, raising the dog tax because despayers want more and better Ronald Wilson spoke of two ing farmers from raising them. voting or debenturing on trying to keep under control annual W. A. Bazaar, King City John Langdon, Mr. and Mrs. Four candidates will contest, After three years as council-roads."

Incumbent William Hodgson, Whitchurch the purchase of a by is tea convenor. Main attrac- Miss Helen Thomas, Mr. Jack Deputy-reeve Norman MacMur- water tank truck for Aurora, he > reeve. Ronald Wilson was also ship, Schomberg, Nobleton, King nominated a councillor. He pre- City, Aurora Newmarket and fire police and welfare.

> > Welfare costs were slightly lower than in 1961, reported Mr. Cook. He advocated replacing the 23 yearold grader "so we can do road construction ourselves. rather than get into larger contracts and engineering

He said it was important for located close to Highway 400 es. I don't expect any council to and near high class homes prov- lower taxes."

Reeve candidate Ray Jennings, who served eight years as councillor until the end of 1959, urged "a good road development policy as maintenance of gravel roads is costly".

Mr. Jennings, who has farmed on Concession 2 for over 30 years, recommended a survey of all township roads to determine costs and where improvement should begin. "I believe we could use more machinery and do more ourselves", he said.

Mr. Jennings favored planned chasing the hydro, "in fact that child's life at school or his rec-

"go-ahead", that rebuilding are slightly less and there is and should parents interfere in meeting last week in the kin-benefit to them. It only divides "I will do my best to serve the township," was his view. you faithfully, honorably and > for the brief business discus- ship officials and staff for their Mr. Findlay, who served on sion when a few vacancies in co-operation during his years planning board three years, the in office. He said he was leav-last few months as chairman, day, December 1, township and Mrs. R. O. Kerslake and Mrs. ing the township in good finan- and served several years as New candidate Mr. Mann village polling booths will be R. J. Stephen from Richmond cial condition. "I'm not saying King City trustee, said he was said as a taxpayer he wanted set up in King City Fire Hall, Hill outlined the year's program I won't be back, but if oppor- a candidate for reeve "to follow tunity presents itself, it will be out the protection I feel this a pleasure to serve." township deserves.

municipal experience, but said council and village trustees are ing served the teachers answer-would not run, after 15 years "modest debt, strong financial ed queries about the children's on council. Warm applause from position and attractive featurthe audience indicated agree- es", and pointed out the urban ment with his tribute to Reeve pressures experienced from Metro, York University and the mar-

"He will go down in history shalling yard. as one of the best reeves of King If OPP service is discontin-Township," said Mr. MacMurchy, ued, Mr. Findlay urged talks who also credited every member with adjacent municipalities be of the planning board with us-resumed toward establishing a ing "good judgment". combined force.

DON

BOWIE

your link to

COUNCIL

The retiring deputy-reeve re- He stressed "rigid economy", and Ronald Wilson and Ray- Gordon Cook, a farmer, and sented York County's moves "to possible "if you know the work" mond Jennings a retired farmer, member of council for three get rid of municipal government, and mentioned his experience were nominated as candidates years, was named deputy-reeve which," he maintained, "is the as village trustee when services felt he was up to date with cheapest form of government." and utilities were installed.

Six candidates for the three Mr. MacMurchy cited county "King City mill rate has been thought a reeve's responsibratepayers.

farmer, and Jack Rouble, mering farmers from raising them, voting or depenturing on depenturin

United Church Women are spon- John Loughran, Mr. and Mrs. the three trustees' posts in porters for the acclamation he porters for the acclamation he regarding the many than the porters for the acclamation he regarding the porters for the acceptance of the porters for the porters f United Church Women are spon- John Loughran, Mr. and Mrs. the three trustees' posts in soring their first bazaar under Ray Love, Mr. Bert Lutes, Mr. Township School Area One. hadn't expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Orr, Farren, Mrs. Dolina Paterson
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Orr, Farren, Mrs. Dolina Paterson
Orr, Farren, Mrs. Lovis Tienkamp.

hadn't expected.

He reported 84 fires in the township outside the three poliment pay for itself so the cost cause of the lack of water and the policy of the lack of water and water and the lack of water and water and water and ice villages this year. A water won't fall onto the rest of the sewage facilities. West of high-(Continued On Page 18)

He said council should look at physical fitness and what is facing council He ility was to see all pros and cons are brought out so council can vote on matters

BODY SHOP

Expert Auto Body Collision Repairs and Repainting FREE ESTIMATES - GMAC FINANCING C. M. LESLIE MOTOR PRODUCTS LTD. G.M. Dealer King City TE. 3-5301

LIBERAL CLASSIFIEDS-Get Results-TU.4-1105

HALL'S DOMESTIC FUEL OIL AND BURNER SERVICE TU. 4 - 4361 RICHMOND HILL

RE-ELECT

WILLIAM CURRAN

Councillor for '63 King Township

Electors Whitchurch Twp.

Re-Elect

MRS. ELSIE

GIBBS Councillor For 1963

+ Your Full Time Councillor

+ Four Years Experience

VOTING DAY MONDAY, DEC. 3rd Polls Open 10 a.m. - 8 p.m.

For Cars or Information Election Day PHONE PR. 3 - 5637

VOTE KEN MACTAGGART

A candidate for the first time, Mr. Farquhar said he thought the village is "fairly well handled." He said he would like to see road improvement and the water situation studied so an adequate future supply would be available "even in drought".

Councillor in '63

KING TOWNSHIP - DECEMBER 1st, 1962

For Common Sense & Sound Judgement

For a Progressive, Economical

Township Administration

ELECT RAY JENNINGS

REEVE OF KING

• 8 years on King Council

• Farmed 30 years in King

• King representative on Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority

· President, King-Vaughan Plowmen's Association · Former Public School Board Secretary

ELECTION DAY, DECEMBER 1, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Advance Poll, November 28, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. For Cars On Election Day

Phone PA. 7-4420

In Whitchurch By Large Margin

VOTE

DONALD M. FINDLAY FOR REEVE

ELECT

KING TOWNSHIP

FOR REAL PRACTICAL ECONOMY

• EXPERIENCED IN ALL DEPARTMENTS

• A RECORD OF REAL ECONOMY

FOR REEVE

FINDLAY

SATURDAY, DEC. 1st 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. PHONE TE 3-5451 - 3-6684 also 859-0121