About 135 guests attended the congregational supper held at St. Paul's United Church November 14.

Supper was served at 7.30 p.m. and Mr. and Mrs. McCachen from the Ridge Inn prepared the meal in the church kitchen with the help of Mrs. Lee Gallagher and Mrs. Irene Blyth, who also served the guests.

Heading the hostess committee were Mrs. Louise Winch and Mrs. Helen Laing.

Each hostess sat at the table with the ones she had contacted. After everyone had eaten, the guests went upstairs to the church where Rev. Gordon Winch, minister of the church introduced the program.

A comment was made by Bill Nicholls, chairman of stewards, on "the challenge of being a steward." Jack Blythe presented a financial and progress report headed "progress and hope" and spoke of what has been done and future events planned.

A. Gallagher presented the main speaker for the evening, Rev. Vic Wood, who spoke of past happenings, mostly on the funny side of things.

On closing Mr. Gallagher presented flowers to Rev. Wood for his wife and flowers and chocolates were presented to Mr. and Mrs. McCachen in appreciation of the lovely meal prepared.

November 25 marks the eighth anniversary of the first sermon given in the church, and the supper is given in relation to the anniversary and to the annual visitation to homes for financial help for the work done in the church.

One year the men of the congregation decided to "put on" the meal and it was to be a "mystery dinner". It was rumored the guests were to be served beans or hot dogs but it turned out to be a very successful meal.

Home & School Association
The Home and School Association of Oak Ridges School held their meeting of the month November 20.

After a brief business session, Mr. Carruthers, program convener arranged a panel discussion. Panel members were: Principal of the school, Mr. Reid, and two teachers, G. I. Thomas and Mr. Kolaska.

A very lively discussion was held on religion in school, strappings, parent-teacher-pupil problems and discipline in general.

A National Film Board motion picture was then shown titled "The Best", subject matter being home and school featuring local actors and actresses.

In view of the very interesting program it was disappointing to members present that the crowd was not as large as the October meeting when the auditorium was practically overflowing.

The Canadian Samoyed Club is sponsoring a dog anatomy and trainer's clinic at the Ridge Inn December 2, at 1.30 p.m.

Among the well-known judges and breeders present will be Dr. Winifred Shute, Mrs. Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins and Mr. McCallum, president of the Canadian-Dominion activities in the Dog Kennel Club, which governs the world.

This clinic and similar ones held in large cities across North America are organized by Dennis and Catherine Gardner. A recent meeting held in New York drew an attendance of over 6,000 people.

We have been asked to point out that this is a clinic and dogs should not accompany their owners.

Canadian Cancer Society
The Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox branch of the Canadian Cancer Society has been busy recently showing the film "To Smoke - or not to Smoke".

Mrs. C. R. Smith, chairman of educational services, has shown the film at the Oak Ridges and the Lake Wilcox Schools.

Eight ladies of the group visited Aurora where the annual unit meeting was held at the Legion Hall.

At the local group's November meeting, President Mrs. Flora Bunn reported on the Women's Services Convention held at the Lord Simcoe Hotel, Toronto.

There will be no meeting for December, but the ladies worked extra hard at their dressing meeting this month and of course their other work will go on as usual.

The Youth Club at St. Mark's Anglican Chapel, Yonge Street, has been revived by Rev. Tom Robinson, who is now conducting services at St. Mark's and St. John's since the departure of Rev. D. C. H. Mitchell for England.

The teens met November 26 and will meet twice a month. It is a mixed group and the ages are 14 and up. Miss Sharon Semper CFRB Sideroad, is the current president.

Cubs, Scouts, Guides, Brownies
The Oak Ridges Girl Guides are commencing a home nursing course beginning in January to be held every Monday evening at 7.30 p.m. for seven weeks, at St. Paul's United Church. More information may be obtained by phoning PR. 3-5578 or PR. 3-5485.

The mother's auxiliary held their meeting November 15 at the home of Mrs. C. R. Smith, South Road.

Mrs. Amos of the York Summit Auxiliary, performed the installations of the new executive.

Officers are: Mrs. G. Woods, president; Mrs. I. Plews, secretary; Mrs. Wm. Cragg, treasurer; Mrs. Wm. Orton, vice-president.

Mrs. A. Gibeault, immediate past-president, was unable to attend due to a sprained ankle. During the discussion it was decided to forego the December meeting. Frank Thiverge will give a cosmetic demonstration at the January meeting.

The group committee for cubs and scouts held their meeting November 21.

During the discussion it was decided to hold a party for the boys and a parents' night combined December 12. Parents are urged to attend and also take part in the games planned for the evening.

Parents will have a chance to see what their boys are doing and some of the work done during their time spent at the meetings.

Bridge and Euchre
The local association for Brownies and Guides held their bridge and euchre under the auspices of the Oak Ridges Legion November 21.

There were about 20 tables of euchre and three tables of bridge. The main door prize, a Timex watch was won by Harvey Workshop of Buttonville.

A prize given to the oldest person attending was won by Mrs. Ethel Taylor. She was presented with a box of chocolates.

Several prizes were also given to winners and runners-up in the euchre and bridge.

George Windsor was master of ceremonies for the evening and he kept the people playing euchre moving when the allotted time given for each game was up. Mr. Windsor is a member of the Oak Ridges Legion.

Lunch and coffee was served by members of the association.

Personal Notes
Fred Oxley has entered hospital for surgery and is coming along quite well.

Many little guests arrived at the home of Jonquil Seager daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Seager, North Road, the occasion being a birthday party for Jonni who was eight years old November 19.

Jonni received many nice presents and the children played games, one of which was a spelling team game. Guests were Susie and Nancy Brown, Gabrielle Kuechler, Billy Good, Brian Hunter, Vello Kleeband, Helen Hadley Susie and Janice.

Steve McGinn is spending a 16-day leave from the Navy, at his home on Rosemary Ave. Steve has finished his basic training with the Navy at Cornwallis and will be going to Stadacona, Halifax.

Considerable damage was done to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Post, Rosemary Ave., recently. Fortunately the family were all away. Tommy was at the Aurora Arena playing hockey at the time.

The fire apparently started shortly after the family had gone out, when Barry Willis, a neighbour, noticed smoke emerging from under the house and called the fire department in Aurora and while there was quite a bit of damage from fire, smoke and water did the most damage. The fire itself was confined to the living room, burning the chesterfield and chair. The Post family are being accommodated by Mr. and Mrs. George Cragg until the house can be lived in.

Ted Dickenson, Bostwick Crescent, will now be seen on Channel 9 Hi-Time, emceed by Ted Curt. Ted will be a regular member of the dance party.

Many people are still confined to hospital in this district and some are now home recuperating. Mrs. George Murray, Gormley Sideroad, is a patient at the Women's College Hospital; Bill

Good is still confined in Sunnybrook and Fred Oxley is in the Newmarket Hospital. I. A. Bracey is now home after a long stay in the hospital, but is still confined to bed.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. G. Cook, Moray Ave., Mrs. Ron Patterson, and Carol Orton, Aubrey Ave.

Bob Walls has returned to Hamilton Red Wings for another season of hockey. Bob played in the game against the Russian Nationals last week and assisted in one of the goals scored.
