Officials announced this week their trees will be sold from the Loblaw's lot, at Levedale Road and Yonge Street.

The lot will be attended by Rotarians each evening from six until nine and all day Saturdays.

Scotch pines cut by the Rotarians themselves and some spruce will be on sale at a moderate price, officials report.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the York Central Hospital Fund, youth activities, and general welfare.

Anybody wishing to pick up their tree during the day can pay for it at Barth's Cleaners or at Butler and Baird Lumber. Prices will be on the trees at the lot.

your home & school association

MacKILLOP
The November meeting of the MacKillop Home and School Association was well attended. The topic under discussion was of concern to all parents - "Discipline".
A nine member panel thoroughly discussed the subject. The meaning of discipline, what discipline is for and how self-discipline can best be achieved were all discussed. The panel consisted of four parents, Mrs. L. Wall, Mrs. W. Hannah, Mr. K. Addley, and Dr. J. Wynne. Constable D Young represented the local police and there were also four grade VII and VIII students, Ruth Carter, Joe Harwood, Nancy MacNaughton and Bob Cowan. Mr. John Lunn who has gained experience on Television was an efficient and amusing moderator.

During the evening the girls' Triple Trio, under the direction of Miss F. Thomson, sang several numbers. This group has been singing together for some time and competing successfully in local festivals. They recently travelled to Peterborough for a television appearance.
The December meeting of the home and school association will be a Christmas program with pupils from all the grades participating.

Your Christmas Gift Will Bring Joy To A Lovely Mental Patient

"A Christmas gift to a patient in a mental hospital will add great joy to the holiday and can increase his readiness to rejoin the community," commented Mrs. John Large, chairman of the York County Branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association Christmas gift campaign.

"Christmas gifts are a universal language bringing together the giver and the receiver in the joy of friendship and remembrance. There is a double joy and meaning in gifts for patients where illness deprives them of the presence of family and friends. Each parcel from outside represents a visit with a special friend for the patient unable to make such a visit or to celebrate Christmas at home," stated Mrs. Large.

"Mental illness is generally accompanied by difficulty in relationships. When patients lose contact with friends in the community they naturally become more dependent on the hospital and on relationships available there. They tend to look more and more to the hospital for the satisfaction of needs normally provided by the community. Eventually they may see the hospital as their permanent community providing all the shelter, friendships, recreation and even Christmas cheer that they experience. Their rehabilitation may be endangered by this "institutionalization". A Christmas gift from a friend in the community - a token of remembrance of kindly interest, can carry the message that the patient has a friendly community outside the hospital and may be his only tangible evidence of it and renew his desire to return to it."

"A small Christmas gift to a patient can be wonderful medicine bringing immeasurable joy at the holiday season and much needed social confidence" added Mrs. Large.

Receptacles have been placed in many district stores in which people can leave their gifts. If you have any questions regarding your gifts please phone Mrs. Large at TU. 4-5489.
