Fine Weather Aids Work On Hospital

An interesting pattern is formed by these steel supporting poles as construction proceeds at the new York Central Hospital rising at Richmond Hill. Volunteer canvassers are calling on York County families to help alleviate the extreme shortage of hospital beds in the county. Proceeds from the United Hospitals campaign will double the space at the hospital in Newmarket as well as building the new one at Richmond Hill.

Flyers, Win, Tie Weekend Clash

Last Friday night Jim Polard's bantam age Flyers played to a 3-3 tie with Newmarket at Richmond Hill. Jim Wilson netted two Flyer goals with Harvey Gordon hitting for a singleton. Ron Haldane played good goal for the Flyers.

The Flyers came back on Saturday to defeat Bradford 3-2 in Bradford. Doug Acomb, Jim Wilson and Tom Dyson notched the Flyer counters with Mark Reynolds guarding the Richmond Hill net.

Brown & Brooks Lead Squirts Weekend Win

The CFGM team coached by Ed Brown and Roy Brooks is piling up a real record. Undeclared in five starts they won two from Newmarket last week as they faced their toughest opposition to date.

On Friday night they defeated Newmarket 2-1 in Richmond Hill on goals by Daryl Rice and Steve Ground. On Saturday they shut out Newmarket 2-0 in Newmarket. Gary Oliver scored both goals, assisted by Steve Ground and Paul Brown. Ken Hughes played great goal to earn his shut-out.

T. & C. Midgets Win Two In Weekend Play

The Town & Country Midgets coached by Bill Points and managed by Marsh Amos are really hitting their stride. On Friday night they defeated Newmarket 2-1 in a real cliff hanger at Richmond Hill.

Frank Pirri scored the first goal for the Town & Country squad only to have Newmarket come back to tie the score at one all. With ten seconds left in regulation time Pirri hit Jack Dubkowski with a perfect pass. Dubkowski made no mistake as he stuffed the puck behind a baffled Newmarket netminder to give the locals a 2-1 win.

Bob Safruk in the Town & Country net gave the Richmond Hill team a real job of goal tending.

The team visited Bradford on Saturday night and came away with a comparatively easy 5-1 win. Gary Risebrough was in goal for the Town & Country whizzers.

Hockey School Will Open Season For Thornhill

Officials have announced that a hockey school to be held at Bradford Arena starting Sunday will open the 1962-63 season of the Thornhill and District Hockey League.

The league is designed for youngsters from six to 14 years of age, and is divided into age groups of six to ten, and ten to fourteen.

Regular schedule of nine to 12 games is played on natural ice in Thornhill. Play-offs are held in indoor arenas.

Registration fee is $5 for the first boy in the family and $2.50 for each additional youngster. Each player receives a hockey sweater in return for his fee.

Biggest improvement is the hiring of professional referees for the 10-14 age group.

Registration information can be obtained from Dave Barbour at 285-5205 or Bill Menzies at 285-4168.

Last year's winners were Bill Majury's Bears in the junior division and Richard Barbour's Red Wings in the intermediate group.

CLAREMONT: A Ski chalet is being built on the 8th concession, east of Brock Road. Three tow lines will be added for the winter sport enthusiasts. Next summer a summer festival theatre and 18-hole golf course will be added.

Just. He's always the guy who's going to quit this rat-race and live like a human being. And he's always the guy who comes back time after time in one way or another. Two such gentlemen are very evident in the persons of Marsh Amos and Bill Points.

Marsh Amos played lacrosse with Maitlands, undoubtedly one of the better-known lacrosse teams around the Toronto area and vicinity. Bill Points played hockey in the Scarboro League, played lacrosse with the Richmond Hill Zero team, and was once coach of the football Indians. While Bill was playing with the Zeros, Marsh was acting in the capacity of team manager.

Both of them said that they'd had enough and were going to take things easy from here on in. For the better part of a year they did enjoy not knocking themselves out for some team or other. Gradually, complete retirement began to pall and when they got an opportunity of guiding the fortunes of a midget hockey team, they hastened back into harness.

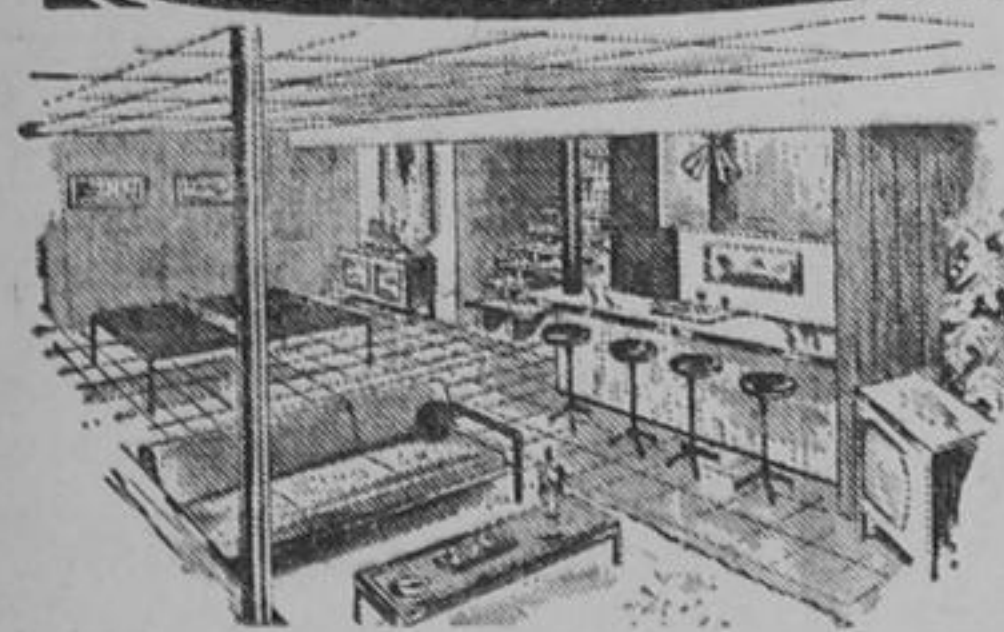

This year the midget hockey team in Richmond Hill (formerly known as the Blue liners) bear the name Town and Country Midgets. Thus far in the young season they have been quite successful, having beaten Keswick 3-0, at Sutton, and tying Aurora, 3-3, at Richmond Hill. Points and Amos are quite optimistic for their teen-age hockey aggregation.

One of the really outstanding things about the club is the fact that almost every player has played his way all through the house league set-up of the R.H.H.A. After seven years of hockey action in the lower ranks, these kids have matured into good hockey players—all of them raised in the local arena.

If a good job of coaching and managing can be counted on to take a team a long way, then this one should go far. Bill Points and Marsh Amos put a real effort into everything they do, and the midget team should put on a real hockey show under their leadership. It is really heartening to see hockey ivory grown on local ice moving ahead in the hockey world. Could this be the start towards a good junior hockey team in Richmond Hill?
