Christmas Luncheon

The Edgeley Women's Institute held its annual pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Alf Bagg on Thursday, December 6, and it turned out to be the most pleasant and informative afternoon that the members have enjoyed in a long, long time.

At noon each member arrived bearing one of her food specialties. Mrs. Bagg had set up a long table in the recreation room of her attractive new home and decorated it with smart Christmas trimmings.

After feasting on over 20 different varieties of foods, the members exchanged Christmas gifts with Mrs. C. H. Boake acting as Santa Claus.

The branch members were most honored to have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and Miss Taylor from Western Australia. The Taylors are visiting relatives in Willowdale and were very pleased to accept an invitation to the luncheon.

Mrs. Taylor has been an active member of an Institute branch in her country for 35 years and is also a charter member of her branch. The Edgeley branch members were most eager to hear all about Australia and particularly the Institute work "down under", which, it was disclosed, is of a considerably different nature in her country than in Canada.

Each and every member posed one or more questions for Mrs. Taylor to answer and in this way they learned a great deal about life in Australia that they did not know before. Mrs. Taylor passed around colored pictures, including some of wild flowers native to her country and which we, of course, have never seen.

The business part of the meeting included a report from the Directors meeting by District Director, Mrs. C. H. Boake. Mrs. Boake also presented a report from the Area Convention for Mrs. W.

Maginn, who was the delegate to the convention but was unable to be present. The members regret that Mrs. Maginn is a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital and they wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Allen Aitchison, Mrs. Alf Bagg and Mrs. Frank Locke were appointed a committee to act with the president, Mrs. Fred Bodker, at a meeting in January at the home of Mrs. J. W. Dalziel.

To show her gratitude to the hostess for a memorable afternoon, and because Mrs. Bagg is a charter member in common with Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor presented Mrs. Bagg with her own Australian Women's Institute (CWA) badge. Mrs. Bagg was deeply touched by Mrs. Taylor's kind gesture and generosity and pinned the badge on her dress beside her Provincial and her life membership badges.

Announce Two Changes For Maple Subscribers

Two innovations in telephone service for Maple residents go into effect December 16, W. C. Barnes, Bell Telephone Company manager for this region, said this week.

One is the elimination of long distance charges on telephone calls between Maple and the new Nobleton (859) exchange, he said.

The other change will make it possible for Maple subscribers to dial direct to "information", instead of placing their requests through an operator as at present.

By dialing "113" telephone users in Maple will be connected to the Bell's information department in Toronto where listings of all subscribers in the greater Toronto area are kept.

The Bell manager explained that widening Maple's local calling area to include the Nobleton (859) exchange will in no way affect present toll-free calling arrangements with Richmond Hill, Thornhill, King, Kleinburg and Woodbridge.

He added that the basic monthly rates for service in Maple will also remain the same since the number of telephones added to the Maple local calling area will not bring the total above the maximum allowed for in its present rate group.

Effective December 16, Mr. Barnes said, it will no longer be necessary for Maple telephone users to dial "112" to reach Nobleton (859) numbers.

Calls to the new exchange should be dialed as local calls, that is, by dialing the exchange prefix 859 followed by the remaining four digits of the required telephone number.

Adjustments in the Bell's central office necessary to implement these innovations will be carried out during the early morning hours of December 16, when telephone calling is at its lowest ebb, Mr. Barnes pointed out.

Maple Notes

Elections!!

You can read the whole bit elsewhere in "The Liberal" and the VERY FEW Maple residents who did bestir themselves enough to "get out and vote" can be justly proud of our local candidates and the tremendous showing those elected made. One nice thing about the next two years — we will have only a mere nuisance value by way of griping and complaints because the majority who couldn't be bothered to go out to vote "surely won't have the nerve to open their mouths!" In another two year period perhaps they will show more interest and duty in their community and then any amount of constructive criticism will be accepted — and appreciated.

Those who were re-elected will now really be able to see fulfillment of their research and plotting during their "getting their feet wet" period. Congratulations to each one and may the coming term of office be in tune with the standards and needs of Vaughan Township.

Parties were held following the election finals at the homes of the various candidates — some receiving congratulations while others were consoled "until next time."

Reminder of Pot-Luck Supper

This is a highlight of any time of year — a pot-luck supper!! When it includes, on the notice following, bring either first course or dessert "don't forget your own plate, cup and saucer and cutlery to this ELIMINATE dish washing that evening" — now that in itself should inspire many to attend. That's December 18th at 6:45 p.m. in the education rooms of the Maple United Church —

The final meeting of the UCW for this year.

Annual White Gift Service

The Sunday School members of St. Stephen's Anglican Church held their annual white gift service Sunday, December 2. This is a wonderful event when children and adults share with others less fortunate than themselves.

As in other years, these gifts were especially chosen for the patients in our mental hospitals. The Mental Health Association will surely be pleased when they start to gaily wrap the many beautiful gifts, in a wide variety from cosmetics for women, shaving accessories for men, nylon lingerie, knitting wool and knitted wear, games — all thoughtfully chosen to make these patients realize someone cared.

St. Stephen's Sunday School is continually growing with an approximate average of 150 boys and girls attending. Their new hall surely is needed and hoped for soon.

Re-Elect Three Maple Trustees

NHL referee Dalton McArthur failed to gain election to the Maple Village Board of Trustees. In Saturday's elections for village trustees, he ran fourth to the three incumbents.

Heading the poll was Frank Robson, a retired garage operator, with 249 votes. Rounding out the 1963 board will be Roland Keffer, 227 votes, and James Hodgson, 207 votes. Mr. McArthur polled 82 votes.

Only 308 or just under 50 per cent of the 623 eligible voters in the village cast their ballots.

Complacency or Apathy

Although there are now vaccines against many of the communicable diseases that once were great killers or cripples, there are cases reported of these diseases every year. Many of the reported cases end in death. This is unnecessary.

Why do some Canadians neglect such an important procedure? IS IT DUE TO PROCRASTINATION, COMPLACENCY OR APATHY?

Concord Socials

Out of a total of 689 eligible voters in the polling districts of Concord East and Concord West a grand total of 156 persons voted. Isn't that wonderful! About 22.6 per cent. took advantage of the easiest exercise in the world — exercising their voting franchise. After such an overwhelming turnout we shouldn't hear too much beefing over decisions made by township council or school board, nor should any complaints be registered about the added Sunday evening traffic next season, when the two drive-in theatres close to us make themselves a small fortune by staying open seven nights a week.

Guides and Brownies

A Christmas party for the mothers' group committee was held last Thursday at Tori McClymont's with 21 mothers attending. The ladies played several games and held a gift exchange. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches and Christmas cake and cookies, were served at the close of the evening.

Socials

The Edgeley Women's Institute held its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Alf Bagg, Hillside Ave., last week. Although other special guests were present, we understand that a man (?) in a red suit stole the show during the gift exchange. There's a rumor going around that it was really Bea Boake, but I don't believe that, do you?

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ash are taking a short holiday to visit Mrs. Ash's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Keffer of North Bay. Honestly, they get mentioned more than anybody still living in Concord. I was so steamed up at the beginning of this column that I forgot about some pre-election news. Mrs. Tess Haines was hostess at a tea last week where Mrs. Ruth McConkey and Mr. Wilfred Keffer were special guests. Both council members gave an interesting account of their past term in council and answered many questions in general about council procedure.

Later the same day, Tuesday, the Concord Community Ratepayers held a meeting at Concord School when all candidates for council and school board were presented to the FEW electors present at the meeting. The candidates made themselves available to two meetings that evening (the other being in Pine Grove) when most of the voters couldn't get to one.
