Reverend G. Barton, pastor of Newtonbrook Baptist Church, and Mrs. Barton announce the arrival of their second son, Andrew Ware, born November 12. They have now moved into their new home at 65 Transwell Avenue, Newtonbrook.

Ladies of the Catholic Women's League Council held their monthly meeting recently in the parish hall of St. Paschal Baylon Church.

Mrs. George Baxter, president, presided. The convenors of the standing committees gave their reports and it was evident that once again the ladies of the council had been very busy in their many undertakings.

Mrs. H. Kane, social convenor, reported that 300 pounds of clothing had been donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Three families had been supplied with good used clothing. Several sick calls had also been made during the month.

Projects coming up for this committee include a visit to St. John's Convalescent Hospital, filling of Christmas stockings for the House of Providence and providing Christmas baskets for the needy of the parish.

Education convenor Mrs. M. Fox reported on the leadership course, sponsored by the Archdiocesan Council of the Women's League which has just concluded.

Mention was also made by Mrs. Fox of the various scholarships. The St. Paschal's CWL award of $50 went to the girl with the highest standing in St. Paschal's School, Kathy Burton.

The Archdiocesan Council awarded its first scholarship this year to St. Michael's College. It was also drawn to the attention of those present that the Ontario Government gives a scholarship of $400 to all students in Ontario making an average of 80 per cent on nine papers.

It was also stated that with the co-operation of the principal of St. Paschal's School, the students expect to participate in the Archdiocesan Public Speaking Contest this year. Two finalists will be chosen to participate in the regional contest in January.

Guest speakers at the Harold King Farm Founders' Dinner at the Regency Towers Hotel included Pierre Berton, columnist, author and TV personality; Lou Agase, former Toronto Argonaut football coach, and Father Charles Dismas Clark, whose years among criminals inspired the movie, "The Hoodlum Priest".

Money raised at the dinner will go into establishment of a farm to be operated near Keswick, Ont., by Harold King, a Toronto businessman who for 20 years has made a hobby of helping people who come out of prison with no families to go to.

Mr. King's hobby - soon to be kept him fully occupied - is being furthered by a group of Toronto business and professional people.

They have formed a non-profit, charitable organization to finance and control the farm and direct its operation as a halfway house. John D. Fienberg, well-known contractor and financier, is the fund-raising chairman.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Baxter introduced Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Love of the Ribbon Fabrics, Inc., who gave a fascinating demonstration of how to make various types of decorations of gift wrapping.

The meeting then broke up into discussion groups headed by Father Vincent Lo Savio, Father Ralph Vellello and Father Charles Zanoni.

The topic for discussion was the habitual sin of cursing and vulgarity and the discussions explored the reasons why teenagers indulged in such behavior and what could be suggested as a remedy.

During the discussion period coffee and refreshments were served by Mrs. S. Woolnough and her committee.

Mrs. Minnie Kosnmo is in charge of the Cancer Drive for this area. She would like some volunteer canvassers to help in this worthy cause. Please contact her if you are able to help.

Mrs. Dave Wilson fell in her home last week and broke her collarbone and badly bruised her arm and leg.

9 Accidents, Six Thefts Keep Hill Police Busy

Richmond Hill Police report a busy week with nine accidents and half a dozen minor unsolved thefts and break-ins. Only three of the accidents were reportable (over $100 damage).

Police estimate $550 damage resulted from an accident last Tuesday morning on Yonge St. near Benson Avenue.

Police say Bruce Mott, 28 Kirk Dr., Thornhill, and Bruce M. Glassford, R. R. 1, Beeton, were travelling south on Yonge Street when Mott, attempting a right turn into the R. D. Little car lot, was struck in the right rear side by Glassford's car. No charges have been laid.

Wet and icy conditions early Sunday morning resulted in about $400 damage. Police say a car driven by Joe Bauer, 30, 386 Browdale Cr., skidded into the rear of a parked car on Browdale owned by Michael D. Thatcher, 36 Palmer Ave.

Police are still investigating the theft of a quantity of scrap metal from York Metal Spinning, 35 Industrial Road. The theft was from a stockpile of scrap at the rear of the building. Police say it may have been unnoticed for a few days before it was reported December 10.

Police are investigating several smaller break-ins.
