and decorations fall into the same financial category. What makes any award valuable, and the value is purely intrinsic, are the requirements necessary to qualify to receive it.

The lady softballers and the rugged footballers won championships — no mean feats in their own right. They proved that they were the best in their sport in their respective leagues and brought recognition to themselves and to the Town of Richmond Hill. A book has been purchased, a book to be kept with other town archives. In this book the name of everyone receiving an award of merit will be entered. It is hoped that in this way some permanent record can be preserved and will serve as a reminder of some very agile citizens in years to come.

So there you have it. The crest itself is only a small piece of cloth but it has a fairly significant meaning. We hope that those of you who receive them wear them or put them away with other personal treasures with a great deal of pride. It's Richmond Hill's way of saying "Thank you" and a sign of our pride in you and your achievements.

— SPORT SPOTS —

In our house the lot of writing Christmas cards falls on the capable shoulders of our efficient wife and mother. The reasons for this are legion. She is most conscientious about keeping track of addresses, she likes doing it, all except the stamp licking bit, and she has the neatest handwriting. When any of the rest of us apply pen to envelope it is quite possible to read Thailand into what was intended as Thornhill. Must cause no end of confusion in Her Majesty's Postal Service!

For all these reasons it is definitely the chore for the lady of our house. In all the hustle and confusion we invariably miss sending greetings that we know we should send but somehow never quite get around to. Everybody has the same thing happen year after year, but it never seems quite right. Nobody should be overlooked or forgotten at this time of the year.

Our wish therefore, for all of you, every last one of you, is that this Christmas will be just as happy as you wish it to be. May your cups run over and may you all be surrounded by love and good fellowship. May your reunions be joyous and your festive tables groan under the weight of good food and good companionship.

"A merry Christmas to all — and to all a good night!"

To the people of Ward 3 who supported me and to the kind friends who worked so hard for me

MY SINCERE THANKS —

To all the people of Richmond Hill
A Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

It's been a great bowling season up to now on the local scene with everyone having a lot of fun and some fine scores being posted. During this Christmas season most leagues are enjoying a real deal — bowling and a lot of socializing with turkey rolls being the order of the day.

To the members of all bowling leagues we would like to take this opportunity to wish them a very merry and happy Christmas. May dear old St. Claus bring each and every one of you a few more points to be used after the turn of the year. Keep your fingers crossed and hope!

Monday Niters
Eight league members were fortunate enough to win the big birds to grace the Christmas table. Jim Hoult, Cliff Goodman, Jim Curtis, Les Adams, Peter Svenson, Adele Brown, Anne Clarke and Reg Allen all won plum juicy turkeys. Chickens had their turn in the proceedings and winners were Shirley Mansbridge Pat Jordan, Jim Hope, Barbara MacFarlane, Ken Mock, Al Patterson and Jim Neal. For those with a sweet tooth, chocolates were on the list of awards. Recipients of the chocolate goodies were: Pat Kerfoot, Rene Allen, Marg Beatty, Gerry Stewart, Bob Hawkins, June Hawkins, Shirley Mock and Ethel Patterson.

Eastiders
Last week was just plain turkey roll night and scores registered will not count toward individual records or to team standings.

Gord Cameron and Geoff Royston have given the league brass an interesting problem. Both men tied for a turkey award. One of them will get a turkey while the other settles for a capon. It will all be decided on a one game roll-off and even the loser will come up a winner. Nice odds those!!

Capon winners were Jeanne Richardson, Nell McDonald, Dave Nicholson, Jack Thomason, Ron Ribbons, Nan Shadoff, Anne Bishop, Don Mayor, Terry Mersaka, Marge Field Lyn Roberts, Alta Harcourt, Colleen Miller, Mary King and Fran Smith.

Good eating to every one of you!!

White Coloured Game Often Lack Pigments

From time to time Department of Lands and Forests staff receive specimens or reports on "off-color" game species. Usually these refer to a white phase, although occasionally reports on black specimens are received.

During the past deer season a white deer was taken in Northern Ontario by hunters from the Bradford area. More recently a white raccoon was killed by a car near Camp Borden. Other animals and birds, such as white muskrats, white beaver and white pheasants, have already been observed, including a white fox, inhabiting the Camp Borden military property.

In the minds of the public these specimens are regarded as "albinos". However, in most instances, according to J. S. Ellis of the fish and wildlife staff at Maple, the animals are merely lacking in the necessary pigments and could be regarded as mutations. A true albino has a white skin, pink eyes, nose and paws, which the mutation lacks.

Our Hornets Are Too Hot For The North Yk. League - Await Clancy

Earl Methe and Gord Pipher, coaches of the pee-wee Hornets have a tiger by the tail. Their young proteges are breezing through the other teams in the North York League like a brush fire in a very dry September. Woodbridge and Bradford were the latest Hornet victims. Woodbridge was defeated 7-0 while Bradford were bombed to the tune of a 12-1 score.

King Clancy Series hockey will be the Hornets' first real test of hockey this season. Local opposition is apparently too ineffective for the two coaches to judge the true worth of the team. The boys will only learn through playing against teams of high calibre and the Clancy Series should provide the opposition sadly lacking in the North York League.
