

Yule Drama At St. Mary's

This year's Christmas production at St. Mary's Anglican Church in Richmond Hill was "Child of Peace", a narrative drama. Costumes in the play, produced December 11-15, date back to the 13th century. Part of the tradition of the play forbids the release of the names of any of the players, including the Virgin Mary and her cousin Elizabeth, shown above. (Photo by Chaplin)

When the Tully children came home from school Tuesday of last week a special Christmas present awaited them. Slightly early, to be sure, but none-the-less welcome, was their new baby sister - red-headed Amanda Jane - all seven pounds, seven ounces of her.

Father and mother Patrick and Patricia were taken by surprise, but they coped, and when the doctor arrived it was he who handed out the cigars.

Brown's Corners United Church is particularly beautiful this year for the Christmas season and appreciation for the decorations should go to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner who spent much time and effort on it. They even clipped their hedges to make the yards of cedar rope which border the chancel.

A special Christmas service will be held next Sunday morning at Brown's Corners. In the evening the Candlelight Service will be held at Victoria Square Church.

Allan Binnington and Ann Buchanan will be married this week-end at Victoria Square. Allan is the son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Binnington, and Ann the daughter of Mrs. Arthur Buchanan.

Mrs. S. J. English will attend the wedding of her step-grandson at London, Ontario, late this week. Rev. Eldridge Currey, formerly of the Victoria Square charge, will perform the ceremony.

Cancer Society Benefit
There were 24 tables of card players December 14 at Buttonville W.I. Hall for the W.I. sponsored cancer society benefit.

Prizes for the evening top scores went to Mrs. Harry Lak, Mrs. Ethel Attridge, Mrs. Jean Trimble, Mrs. Alvin Klink, Cecil Latham and Bill Riseborough.

In the bridge section winners were Mr. and Mrs. H. Hill.

George Hooper was in charge of the euchre games and tallies and Mr. Sinclair made the ticket draws for the lucky prizes.

Winners were: Joe Robinson, a turkey donated by Leitchcroft Farms; Dr. George Kelly, a chicken, M. Sherman; Wm. Middleton, Eaton's of Canada voucher; Miss E. Trimble; gift from Robert Simpson Co.; Matt Davies, Christmas plant from Wm. Spaans, florist.

Other prizes were won by Charles Hooper, Mrs. Hilda Campbell, Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Wm. Allan, Newton Burr, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, J. Tooley, Charles Sinclair, Mrs. W. Craig and J. Tooley.

Hospital Campaign
The spirit of Christmas was abroad early this year or perhaps when a cause is worthy good people everywhere want to help in any way they can. At any rate, volunteer canvassers for the York County United Hospitals' Campaign are finding people anxious to assist in many ways.

Those who can give money are being most generous. Others, whose funds are low, have found ingenious ways to help. From teenagers to senior citizens, the response has been excellent.

The Junior Auxiliary "Candy Strippers" have done baby-sitting for senior auxiliary members attending meetings, or for volunteer canvassers, donating their services free.

An 80-year-old lady, just released from a long stay in a nursing home, explained that she could not give money to the hospital, but asked if a lace cloth she had made would be useful. This beautiful gift was gratefully accepted and will be raffled early in the new year to swell campaign funds.

Mrs. R. J. Miller, president of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary, gave this encouraging report when the YCHA executive met at the Richmond Hill library last Thursday.

Campaign funds to date have reached $600,000. Some areas, such as Unionville, have not yet been canvassed and in other areas books are still out. Canvassing will be discontinued until after the new year.

Gift Shop Progress
The hospital gift shop, that potential gold mine for auxiliary work, is now more than a point on a blueprint — it is an actual space in the new hospital building. To be sure, it is a tiny space — 15 feet by 14 1/2 feet — but the plans for it are large.

Mrs. William Finlay, gift shop convener, has spent many hours visiting other hospital shops and pouring over blueprints to discover the best kind of lighting, walls, decor and stock.

As well as such items as toothbrushes, cigarettes and note paper, the shop will carry handmade articles and luxury lines which have been found to be best sellers.

Mrs. Finlay brings a fine ability and rare knowledge to her task, being a former purchasing agent. She plans to call her committee together in January in order that work on the gift lines may proceed.

Other auxiliary work is also progressing. A tea and sale was sponsored recently by members of the Allenbrae branch of the YCHA and the Gormley-Headford-Victoria Square branch held a similar event which netted $200 for auxiliary purposes.
