Richmond Hill Mayor William Neal made his first inspection of the York Central Hospital now under construction at the Maple Sideroad last week accompanied by Douglas H. Storms, chairman of the board of trustees, J. E. Smith, member of the board, and Frank Murray, clerk of works on the project for Angus Robertson Ltd., general contractors. Man Who Helped Accident Victim Sought By Police

A motorist who stopped to assist the victims of an accident in Milliken Saturday afternoon is being sought by Markham Township Police.

Police describe the man they are looking for as tall and gray-haired. He was driving a light-colored 1956 Dodge and apparently lives in or was visiting Unionville.

According to police, Fred Barchard, 76, was driving north on Kennedy Road when he tried to make a left turn on Victory Avenue.

Barchard's car was struck by a second northbound vehicle driven by Paul P. Chiavatti, 605 Pharmacy Ave., Scarborough.

Barchard, who suffered minor bruises to his chest and left arm was taken to Scarborough General Hospital and later released. Floyd Chaplin, 22, a passenger in the Chiavatti car, received serious cuts to his chin and mouth.

Force of the accident tore the right side and right rear portions of the Barchard car off, throwing the spare tire about 200 feet, police said. Damage to the Chiavatti car was about $500.

Police say the man they are looking for in connection with the accident talked with Barchard briefly after the accident, and went to his home to notify his son before leaving the scene. He had apparently promised to phone later to check on Mr. Barchard's condition.

McCONAGHY

In place of the regular December meeting members of the McConaghy Home and School, parents, teachers, and many guests were entertained by the children of grade 1-3.

The delightful program featured "The Christmas Story", recitations, several amusing and entertaining skits, and carols and Christmas songs by two choirs.

The young ladies of the teaching staff who did such an admirable job of training and producing such an enjoyable program deserve great praise as do the little performers themselves.

On January 16th in McConaghy auditorium the association welcomed back Mrs. Mildred Toogood, Executive Vice-president of the Ontario Federation of Home and Schools. Those members who attended the panel discussion in November will remember Mrs. Toogood as the charming lady on the otherwise all male panel.

As guest speaker, Mrs. Toogood gave us an insight into what has been happening to home and schools throughout Ontario.

In the past few years it has been the policy of many large companies to have surveys conducted and experts called in to examine methods and recommend any necessary changes or improvements to be made in management and operations. Such is the case in the home and school organization.

Over the past-year much time has been spent by a firm of consulting business analysts to determine how the federation may be run more smoothly and efficiently to play its role in the field of education.

In the limited time available Mrs. Toogood answered any questions on "The New Look for Ontario Home & Schools".

A warm invitation was extended to members and executives of the other local home and school associations to attend.

YORK-SIMCOE

The January meeting of York-Simcoe Council of Home & School Associations was held January 10 at the Prince Charles School, Newmarket. Mrs. B. Keeley, area vice-president, opened the meeting and after introducing various members of council she turned the meeting over to Mrs. W. Noble, Gormley, who is president of York-Simcoe Council of Home and School Associations.

Following the business part of the meeting, Mrs. Noble introduced Judge Margaret Moncrief Chambers of the Family and Juvenile Courts, Toronto. Judge Chambers has had many years of court experience, being called to the Bar at Osgoode Hall in 1937 and was created a judge in 1961.

Judge Chambers explained the various means by which a child is brought to court, and said that while court deals with children in the 7 to 16 age range, it is seldom that a child under 10 years of age is taken to court.

In Juvenile Court no record is held permanently against a child under 16. In other words, an adult who is taken to court on some offence would not have the fact that he had been in Juvenile Court held against him.

The three groups of people mainly responsible for referring children to court are the police, the Board of Education and the child's parents.

There are two types of charges laid against children. The first group covers such problems as truancy, vagrancy, chil-

United Church Women

The Carrville U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. Lew Morris January 9, with 14 ladies present. This meeting was the first meeting of the new year and it was a very successful and enjoyable one. The new president Mrs. Jack Bushel presided.

As mentioned last week in the column the Carrville Church annual meeting will meet Thursday evening, January 24. It is to be a pot luck supper followed by the reports of the different organizations of the church. The time for supper is 6:30 p.m. Folks whose name falls between the letters A-L inclusive are to bring the first course and folks whose name falls between M-Z are to bring the second course. Sounds like an enjoyable evening. Everyone welcome.

Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Middleton and their children Glen and Denise were involved in an automobile accident Tuesday morning of last week on Yonge St. and Clark Ave., Doncaster. Fortunately they were not too seriously injured but Mr. and Mrs. Middleton did require some hospital care during that day. The children luckily did not receive any injuries. The damage to their car was quite extensive with the rear end and side of the car badly smashed. Sure hope they are getting along okay.

"For The Birds"

There is a new up and coming "eating spot" on Bathurst Street in the backyard of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn which is "strictly for the birds". It is frequented daily by seven red Cardinals and four of their mates, five Blue-jays, a white breasted Nuthatch, one Hairy Woodpecker, and one Downy Woodpecker.

The one guest of honour is the Purple Finch who according to conservation authorities is a very rare visitor indeed. The Chick-a-dees are also very abundant and they have enjoyed the fine food all summer which too is very unusual.

Mr. Wynn said that it was really a delight to watch them and to see the beautiful colorings of the birds so close at hand and he said they do become quite tame.

Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton attended the East York County Banquet of The Orange Lodge at Diana Hall on Rhodes Ave. in Toronto, Saturday evening of last week. They were accompanied by their sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. David Barton and Mr. and Mrs. John Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Major Robinson and their daughter Adelle, Scarborough, visited with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lamb of Oshawa, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Farrow, Newcastle, visited with the Read family on Sunday.

WILLOWDALE: Reeve Norman Goodhead announced in his recent inaugural address to North York Township Council that he would not seek another two-year term in the reeve's chair.

U.C.W.

The annual meeting of the Headford U.C.W. was held in the church school January 8, with the president, Mrs. Harry Barker in the chair for the business session.

Ten visits for the month were reported and Mrs. Wellman read thank you letters from the shutins who had been remembered; and a letter from Mrs. H. Acreman, Keswick, extending an invitation to hold the June meeting in her home. Two announcements were read, the annual U.C.W. Presbytery meeting will be held in Markham in St. Andrews Church, January 22 and the annual Sunday School convention will be held January 17 in Unionville.

Mrs. Ben Terry, secretary, read the minutes of last year's annual meeting recalling many interesting features of the work in 1962.

Mrs. D. C. Calder, treasurer, reported receipts amounting to $258.59 with a balance of $47.36. The expenditures disclosed an interest in far away fields as well as in community needs.

A motion was passed to suggest to the session that the annual church meeting be preceded by a church supper in the Sunday school room, the U.C.W. to pay for meat, tea, milk and sugar and the congregation to contribute escalloped potatoes, salads and pies or other dessert.

Mrs. VanTol was hostess for the social period. Mrs. D. C. Calder expressed the appreciation of the group for her hospitality.

Christmas In Jamaica

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Rumble shared a letter received from Mrs. Ralph Tucker (formerly Isabel Rumble) from Montego Bay, Jamaica. Writing to Stewart and Jean she described a boxing day party given by Mr. Tucker to his employees. The labour manager bearing the name of Castro, had supplied a list of 'party food'. This consisted of two live goats, slaughtered and skinned on the spot, cut up, with nothing wasted and put into large pots. Rice, bananas and bread fruit, with a variety of condiments were added and all set to boil. The guests arrived but word had got around and instead of the 200 invited 400 arrived. It is distressing to be inadequate as hosts but the guests accepted it with the philosophy of their race and had a wonderful time in spite of shortages. They all returned the next day to thank 'the Boss'.

Mrs. Tucker said it was a colorful sight to see the gay dresses and turbans against the greens.

Mr. Tucker is supervising re-laying of a golf course.

A Unique Germ (2nd of a Series of Four)

As soon as its new home suits it, the TB germ acts rapidly, and a few germs become millions in a matter of days. It does not cause early symptoms or a feeling of sickness like other germs. It works so quietly that it has already done damage to the lungs, and spread to other victims before arousing alarm.
