Winter Sleigh Ride

The old-fashioned winter pastime of riding through the snow in a horse-drawn open sleigh is being recreated by the Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority at its picturesque Black Creek conservation area, site of the pioneer village, at Jane Street and Steeles Avenue. These sleigh rides are offered to the general public on weekends, weather permitting, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. and to organized groups during the week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Skating is also provided at the Black Creek area where the lower parking lot has been flooded.

Agencies Join In Drive For Treatment Centre

A $1,104,536 development from available governmental grants and proceeds from the sale of property. Remaining needs will be met from the Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority's first full-fledged residential treatment centre to aid emotionally disturbed children. Warrendale and Boys' Village, two agencies actively engaged in rehabilitating disturbed children, are joining forces for the fund-raising appeal seeking gifts totalling a minimum of $924,536 from corporations, foundations, groups and the general public. Warrendale, a lodge for girls, is presently located in Newmarket. Plans for a proposed new site for the lodge in Etobicoke call for four home-like residences of family-sized living arrangements, each self-contained for four girls under treatment. There will also be an expansion of out-patient services along with greater educational and social opportunities.

Debating Group Slates Meeting For February 26

A group of men active in public life in Richmond Hill have formed an adult debating club, to be known as the Richmond Hill Parliament.

Object of the club, according to Publicity Chairman Tom Broadhurst, is to "promote the widest and best informed discussion of topics of major interest and importance... to stimulate political interest where it exists and attempt to create it where it does not".

Executive of the new group includes Bill Leishman, chairman; Cecil Williams, vice-chairman; Cyril Bell, secretary; Don Plaxton, treasurer; Ken Tomlin, membership chairman; Bill Ferguson, procedures chairman and Mr. Broadhurst.

First of two sessions for 1963 is slated for February 26 in Wrixon Hall. This inaugural meeting will be held in conjunction with the Allin Club, one of Toronto's oldest debating societies.

Tentative plans call for guest speakers well-known in the political field. Membership in the organization is open to all responsible adults at $2 a year. All non-members will be welcomed at any of the society's debates.

Nurse Returns Home From Overseas Post

A Richmond Hill nurse returned to her home on Richmond Street last week after a year in Ceylon as a Canadian Overseas Volunteer. She is Grethe Dahl.

Although Miss Dahl, a graduate of Toronto General Hospital, received only a dollar-a-day pay from the Ceylon government, her room and board in an upper middle class home took only half that amount.

In Ceylon, she became a minor celebrity among the children in the fishing area in which she worked as a public health nurse. She was one of the few women they had ever seen riding a bicycle.

Miss Dahl returned to Malton Airport by way of Japan, India and Honolulu.

7 Per Cent Drop Recorded In '62

Building in Markham Township during 1962 was slightly down from 1961, according to figures submitted to Monday afternoon's meeting of Markham Township Council.

The decline, about seven per cent, was from $6,083,135 to $5,636,663. Last year was still the second best year in the township's history.

Building in the township had shown a steady growth since 1958. Permits for buildings with a total value of $1,455,460 were issued in 1958.

This figure increased to $2,207,020 in 1959, and to $4,719,615 in 1960. Residential building accounted for 68 per cent of the total or $3,842,648. Public building totalled $1,420,140 or 25 per cent of the total.

Commercial and industrial building accounted for only $373,875 or about seven per cent of the total.

be well-advised to keep busy at something that really interests them. As it is, my days are never long enough!"

NEW PRODUCTION ON THE WAY BY THE FOOTLIGHTS CLUB

Last year, Betty Priestman, the director of the Footlights Club was introduced in this column. She has directed many successful plays for the Footlights Club in the past and she is busy getting her cast ready for another. This time it will be "The Happiest Days Of Your Life" by John Dighton. Betty Priestman lives at 70 Grandview Avenue. Other members of her theatrical family are her husband Rodger and son Bob. The play is scheduled to come off in March. Watch the paper for the definite date.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

It just seems that these amazing residents just don't hide their light under a bushel. I'm not surprised, for the Townships of Markham and Vaughan are teeming with talented and interesting people and only time is needed before they will be recognized and enjoyed by all. In the Globe and Mail, January 2, the Carville Animal Defenders Club under the leadership of Mrs. Bruce Wark was the subject of an interesting sketch. The idea that motivates this club is bound to catch on, it is so worthwhile. In the Telegram, January 4, Mary Lee Axelson was pictured at her typewriter surrounded by admiring sons, David, Michael and John. Mary says the boys make good critics and she tries all her stories on them first. Other authors of children's books were represented in the same article. They were Max Braithwaite, Robert Furguson and Fred and Beulah Swayze.

WILL SOME ONE LEND A HAND!
One doesn't hear too much about the wonderful work of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society. The society works quietly in our district helping severely disabled people. They need three or four volunteers to take Richmond Hill patients to the North York Hydro-Therapy Pool. This treatment has been recommended by their doctors but they can't go unless someone takes them. If anyone is interested in doing something for these people, phone Miss Mary Neville, — collect — at 924-7361.
