evening. Music of Mendelssohn, Shaw, Gounod, Bach, Franck and Handel most well chosen. Jack Himecock, tenor, maintained the standard of performance with his solo work in Sanctus. Mrs.
Eileen Robbins assisted very much along the same line with her part in the soprano solo part in the St. Cecilia Mass would make an admirable piece for future choir and orchestra activity.
It was of course noticeable that only one number was performed with the joint use of both groups but that is an eternal problem of finding the necessary choral music and orchestral parts in time enough for this effort. Preparation must sometimes be a year in advance. Mr. Arthur Burgin, conductor of the orchestra brought forth some choice musical presentations to suit the occasion and the church. In the Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze, the flute duet played so well together by Mr. H.

Standing and J. Pollock, was another admirable sign of using the potential wealth of musicianship now becoming available to this orchestra without having to look towards Toronto for help as is the case of most amateur orchestras in and around the 'Big City'. The strings in their performance of Mascagni's Intermezzo have shown themselves to be a complete unit capable of putting on an evening of string music alone.

The evening, Mrs. Jackson was formerly a member of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir and Timothy Eaton Memorial Church Choir both at that time being led by Sir Ernest MacMillan. The well known Leaside Girls Choir was founded and led by Mrs.
Jackson for many a year. So it is with sadness we wish her goodbye for now. You notice that I said for now.
Old soldiers never die and musicians never, never retire or quit, so we look forward to the Spring and better roads from Mount Albert and Mrs. Norma Jackson hustling about again in some form of musical activity.

Of Entertainment and All That Jazz

Mel Parisi of La Cantina right next to the Richmond Theatre is planning an experiment in live entertainment. Mr. Parisi is currently embarking on plans of large scale potentiality to make his present spot into a top rate dine and shine sort of affair. This will include the use of live talent such as club groups, jazz combos, etc., and, etc., so the next time you drop in there for a cup of coffee or a meal, pick up one of the forms on the counter and fill it in. Don't forget you great lovers of the art. Follow through on this and you will be the ones to reap the enjoyment. For a few Saturday nights an experiment has been carried out by Phil Barnes, Lou Donnelly and company in an effort to find out just how well it will be accepted.

The Concert Artists Series

Don't forget on February 4th there is to be another fine concert at the King Composite School. Here's your chance to hear the Duo-Pianists Daryl Irvine and Walter Buzinski perform both as soloists and as a two piano team. Since the two piano four hands is not too commonly available this is a wonderful opportunity for teachers and students alike to broaden their appreciation in this field.

Her Last Concert?

Quite unknown to most of us at the above mentioned concert, Mrs. Norma Jackson was appearing for the last time. A most befitting finale indeed that she led both her choir and the orchestra in the final selection from Handel's Messiah "And the Glory of the Lord". A farewell party was given in her honor at St. Matthew's Church on January 23, and I'm sure that there was many a wet eye throughout

Announce Name Change Of Realty List Service

David McLean Limited, realtors, have reported the change of photo co-op listings used by the Toronto Real Estate Board to photo MLS.
The MLS term stands for "multiple listing service" and is the same service formerly provided by photo co-operative listings.
The Toronto Real Estate Board has 2,700 members, 2,200 of whom are salesmen and 500 real estate offices.
In Richmond Hill, David Mc-Lean Limited, have the only local real estate office providing this photo multiple listing service. An MLS listing is a multiple listing of property through one realtor and distributed as information together with a photograph of the property to all members of the Toronto Real Estate Board.
Five days a week listings are prepared, photographed and mailed to each board member.
The board employs seven full time photographers, who do nothing else other than take pictures of multiple listed properties.
Last year $161,878,920 worth of real estate was sold through the photo co-op system.
David McLean Limited employ a staff of 20 salesmen, all of whom are members of the Toronto Real Estate Board as well as the Ontario and Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards.
Multiple listings are not restricted to residential properties. In the past year alone one
