

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brillinger of Roseview Avenue, will be celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary on March 1st.

The newly formed TOPS group met at the home of Mrs. A. Frank, 247 Ashlar Road on February 24th.

Anyone interested in membership, please call, TU. 4-4179.

Dos-i-dos!

A gay evening of square dancing was enjoyed on Saturday last by the Couples Club of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Leonard, Maple Avenue.

Twenty four members were present and were energetically put through their paces by the caller, Mr. George DeWitt.

Welcome refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

The York County Branch, Canadian Mental Health Association, are holding their fifth annual meeting at the York County Building, 62 Bayview Avenue, Newmarket on March 6th.

A preceding coffee party will be held from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. The Honorable Matthew E. Dymond M.D., Minister of Health for the Province of Ontario will be guest speaker. The subject of his address: "Ontario's Number One Health Problem".

A warm welcome to everyone.

Original and exciting costumes which ran the gamut from a walking barber pole to the exotic dress of an eastern potentate and his harem featured the Mardi Gras party at the Lions Community Hall, Centre Street, last Friday night.

This event, sponsored by the Holy Name Society of Our Lady Queen of the World Parish was well attended, and provided fun and amusement for everyone present. Costumes were many and varied, and Mr. Dennis Moore, who acted as judge, was hard-pressed to make a decision.

After much decision, the potentate and his harem won the prize for the most unusual costume, while the most humorous went to a character best described as a fugitive from the "Revenoo's" of the deep hills of Kentucky.

Door prizes for the evening included a complete barbecue, the largest cheque written by the Holy Name Society (it measured one and one-half feet by three feet) and a set of glasses. A gentleman representing the Oil Barons of Texas won the barbecue, and the cheque became the proud possession of a Spanish Matador.

Music for the evening was provided by Kal-Harris and his orchestra and the buffet supper was catered by the Bayview Plaza Restaurant. The floor show featured two zany characters from "Anywhere", "Anyplace", who were revealed as Lynne and Jim McArthur of South Taylor Mills Drive.

The Mardi Gras was under the direction of Russell Bruce, Jim McArthur and Jack Conway.

The Women's World Day of Prayer Service will be held in the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Friday, March 1st at 2 p.m.

There will be a similar service in the evening at St. Gabriel's Anglican Church at 8 p.m.

A very successful bridge and euchre was held on February 19th at the Masonic Hall by The Order of the Eastern Star, Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302.

Programme convener was Mrs. Cora Magee and convening the refreshments Mrs. Evelyn Miller.

All proceeds from the evening are to be used to purchase a wheelchair for the new hospital.

Explorer's Activities

The Explorers met on February 15th, with 20 members present. Games were played. Lenora Olson, Sandra Stickley, Debby Hasselfeldt and Brenda Ferguson helped in the worship service. Anne Martin and Janet Ferguson were the reporters.

A further meeting was held on February 22nd in the Richmond Hill United Church primary room. Members finished reading Tiger Tail Village. Donna Larson, Gail Hollowell, Debbie Hook and Brenda Hunt assisted in the worship service.

The annual father and son banquet of 4th Richmond Hill Cub Pack and Scout Troop was held on Wednesday last in Wrixon Hall.

The Cubs opened proceedings with the Grand Howl, followed by grace by Rev. James O'Neil. Over 100 guests were served a delicious turkey dinner by the ladies' auxiliary under the leadership of social convener, Mrs. Joyce Davey.

A warm welcome was extended to all present by Group Committee Chairman, Al Loughridge. The ladies were then thanked by a round of applause for their effort toward a very successful banquet.

A special welcome to the fathers was expressed by first class Scout John Ross and was replied to by John Lunn, "one of the fathers".

Mr. Ron Sulthorp, the representative from district headquarters, was introduced by Al Loughridge and spoke on the growth of the Scout movement in the past and of the future.

Among the leaders then introduced were: Scouts - Scouter, Bill McCord; assistant Scouters, Bill Armstrong and Mel Boyer; instructors, Bob Bowley and Ken Williams; camps and hikes, Joyce Goodier, Cubs - Akela, Mike Birkett; Beghara, Hilda Birkett; Baloo, Bob Painter; Kaa, Brian Atkinson.

Scout John Birrell then presented Scoutmaster Bill McCord, who is leaving next week with an official Scout desk set from the Scout troop.

The entertainment of the evening took the form of a movie showing a Canadian Scout jamboree, which was followed by a skit with members of the Scouts taking part. The entertainment was then concluded by a movie of conservation area, Beaver Valley.

The benediction was said by Rev. J. R. Moore, closing a very enjoyable evening for all.

Special services during Lent at St. Mary's Anglican Church, will be held on Wednesdays at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Next Wednesday, March 6, the address at the evening Lenten Service will be given by the assistant curate, Christ Church, Deer Park, the Rev. Allan Rix, B.A.

Marietta Evans, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Evans, Boisdale Avenue, won third prize in the class for 12 years and under playing a Bach minuet at the Kiwanis Music Festival.

Marietta, who has only been studying for one and a half years, is a pupil of Mrs. Estelle Markham, Laverock Avenue.

R.N.A.O. members are invited to attend a general meeting on March 5th at 8 p.m. at York County Hospital, Newmarket.

The program will be "Prevention of Disability in Rheumatoid Arthritis", consisting of a film, and commented on by Dr. J. Norrie Swanson, medical director of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society.

A very busy group of mothers met at the home of Mrs. Joyce Davey, 11 Leisure Lane on February 12th to make final arrangements for the annual father and son banquet.

On March 3rd, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the 11 a.m. service at the Richmond Hill United Church. The elders will not deliver communion cards for this occasion.

On March 4th at 8 p.m. a general meeting will be held of "The United Church Women". All women of the congregation are cordially invited. A panel discussion will take place.

Mrs. Ann Peters of Rockport Crescent received a beautiful silver tea service as a prize in the I.G.A. Checker Contest held recently at the Allencourt I.G.A.

On Wednesday last she attended the dinner held at the Seaway Towers in Toronto, where the I.G.A. Checker of "The Year" was chosen. The prize was a trip for two to Hawaii.

Denise Harcourt, 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harcourt, 378 Osiris Drive received an award at the Kiwanis Music Festival, and high praise from the adjudicator, for her beautiful playing with such excellent feeling.

Denise is a pupil of Ellen M. Blogg, R.M.T.

Following the "At Home" at the Richmond Hill High School on Friday last, students continued their partying into the early morning, dining at the Litchee Gardens in Toronto.

Members of the University Women's Club of York County enjoyed a dessert and coffee party Monday evening at Kingcraft House, King City. Guest speaker was Miss Vivian Wilcox, fashion consultant for Chatelaine magazine. Miss Wilcox grew up in Aurora where her mother still resides. Mrs. David Fayle, Elizabeth Street, Richmond Hill, was among the new members welcomed into the club.

St. Matthew's United Church Women have set Saturday, April 20 as the date for their rummage sale which has become an annual spring event. Please keep them in mind when you are cleaning out closets and drawers. Anyone requiring the pick-up service which has been organized may contact the following: Mrs. Barbara Maundrell, 242 Alsace, TU 4-4087; Mrs. Darlene Buchan, 17 Cartier Cres., TU 4-3713; Mrs. Verda Stoness, 268 McConvey, TU 4-7250.

Mrs. E. Lange of Maple, will be the guest speaker at the evening service of the World Day of Prayer on March 1st at St. Gabriel's Anglican Church, Bayview and Crosby when the women of that church will be joined by the women of St. John Baptist, St. Paul's Lutheran and St. Matthew's United.

Mrs. Lange, a most interesting speaker, has spent the past six years in India, during which time she helped her husband - a Lutheran minister and educator - with his work, and ran a most successful clinic. Guest soloist will be Miss Joan Hall of Richmond Hill.

Trustees of the York Central District High School Board were entertained at dinner on Friday last by Trustee Ernest Redelmeier and Mrs. Redelmeier at their home on Bathurst Street.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clement and Mr. and Mrs. John Honsberger from Thornhill.

Cicely Thomson, actress - director is currently engaged as assistant director for the Scarborough Choral Society's production of "The Vagabond King" which is to be presented at the Cedarbrae Collegiate on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Directing is Gino Empry, whom Richmond Hill audiences will remember as Sakini in "Teahouse of the August Moon".

Word has been received from Victoria, B.C. that Hugh Yerex, formerly of Richmond Hill has purchased the Melrose Cafe, 622 Yates, in that city. The cafe had been owned by the Reinhard family for about 20 years.

Mrs. G. Yerex and Mrs. L. Dickie are enjoying the mild weather of Victoria, and report that the flowers are coming up in the parks and gardens. They would be very glad to see anyone from Richmond Hill, and state they have found the people very friendly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knox, Kerrybrook Drive, are leaving on Saturday for a weeks holiday in Bermuda.

Miss Judy Shropshire entertained with a coke party at her home on Starlight Crescent, prior to attending the "At Home" at the Richmond Hill High School.

Ben Thompson, proprietor of Minerva's Beauty Salon, is convalescing at home following minor surgery at Branson Hospital.

His many customers and friends extend best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Miss Linda Drew of London, England, spent a few days at home last week before rejoining her ship in New York.

In March she will be flying to Nashville, Tennessee to make a record. Her future bookings for 1963 will include singing for the troops in Germany, visiting Israel, and touring Britain.

Popular Diane Hayes was crowned Prom Queen 1963 by Tommy Ambrose last Friday night. The four lovely princesses were Nancy Passmore, Carol Hayes, Wendy Ashkanase and Lorraine Webb. Last year's Prom Queen, Gail Methe, was present to assist in the crowning.

The decorations to follow the theme of "The Enchanted Garden" included lighted trellises, flower gardens, fountains and a lily pond. The streamers were shades of blue and green. The hardworking dance committee included the chairman, Mrs. Watkins, Joan Piercy, Leslie McRae, Brian Atkinson and Larry Lucas.

Peter Schofield with his Canadian Collegiate Allstars and guest singer provided the evening's entertainment.

Fifty members of the Library Club of Richmond Hill High School went with Librarian Roy Clifton, to the Yonge Street studios of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation on February 12th, to see the telecasting of one edition of Front Page Challenge, and the taping of another.

As a women's church organization from Buttonton had chosen the same night to go, the studio was packed, and seats had to be set out on the floor.

Of interest to the members of the club was a meeting after the programme at ten o'clock with Mr. Drew Crossan, the producer, and Mr. Paul Wayne, the writer. They spoke on how the guests are chosen, picture material found, background materials made available, and an afternoon rehearsal held without the panel in the afternoon, at which the guests are put at their ease, and familiarized with the kind of question which the panel are likely to put to them.

Lesley Nicholls, Susan Kirkpatrick and Brian Toogood, all of Richmond Hill will perform this coming Sunday on Channel 11, CHCH-TV, in a ballet "Pas de Trois" on the programme "Tiny Talent Time".

This dance trio are pupils of Mrs. Sylvia Garson, and are most serious about this wonderful art.

"Please - no homemakers! Please - do not bake March 16th! Please - do not have afternoon tea at home!" Why? The baking will be done for you... The afternoon tea will be prepared and served to you! Who by? The Afternoon Branch of the W.A. of St. Mary's Anglican Church!

This St. Patrick's Afternoon Tea & Bake Sale is in the experienced hands of Mrs. W. S. Pocknell, bake sale convener. Mrs. W. G. Angus, afternoon tea convener, Mrs. S. G. Phillips, president.

On Sunday morning at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church four new elders were ordained and inducted into the ruling eldership of the local church.

These were: R. Gemmill, W. Mirreles, M. Docherty, and W. Dunbar. Mr. Dunbar was already been ordained into the eldership at Fairbank Presbyterian Church, Toronto.

The addition to the session was necessary owing to the continuing growth of the Presbyterian Church in Richmond Hill.

A large number of friends from a distance were also present to see the impressive ceremony.

WED IN TRINITY COLLEGE CHAPEL Hill - Reville Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller Hill are seen leaving Trinity College Chapel following their wedding on January 26. The bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Richard W. Reville of Brantford. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Hill of Richmond Hill.

Entertaining prior to the "At Home" on Friday night at the Richmond Hill High School was Miss Susan Austin, who held a coffee party at her home on Traybourn Drive.

The executive of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church W.A. held a meeting on February 20th at the home of the president Mrs. G. Carmichael.

The main subject was completion of the plans for "An Evening of Fashion" with Miss Ruth Boxer to be held March 6th in the church hall.

To the accompaniment of old fashioned sleigh-bells, Teeny Town Nursery School went for a jolly sleigh ride on February 20th. The teachers and mothers on hand joined in the winter morning's fun with 30 preschoolers at the farm of Mr. Bert Witty, on Dufferin Street, just north of Highway No. 7.

The straw filled sleigh kept toes warm, and was pulled by two farm horses around the fields. The children sang songs and kept up animated conversation about farm life, which made for a most interesting time!

Following a good romp in the snowy fields, working up a good appetite - refreshments were served in the farm kitchen, before returning to the school.

An entertaining afternoon was enjoyed by the members of the M.T.H. Musical Club this past Sunday at the home of Miss Ruth Garson, A.D.C.M., when the topic chosen was "How the orchestra began from the Haydn era up to the modern orchestra of today," with illustrations in recordings of compositions written around the automobile horn and the typewriter.

Further discussed was composer Franz Joseph Haydn, after which refreshments were served; making the one and a half hour program pass all too soon.

The M.T.H. Musical Club was established eight years ago; and as a non profit organization is dedicated to anyone with a sincere desire to further their musical appreciation.

STOUFFVILLE: Dr. M. B. Dymond, Minister of Health, will officiate at the opening of the new wing addition on the 4th Line public school, S.S. No. 4 Uxbridge, March 1.

STOUFFVILLE: Pretty 16-year-old Barbara Howard, a grade 11 student, is the new posture queen of the Stouffville District High School.

Lenten Services Start At St. Paul's Lutheran

St. Paul's Lutheran Church began a special series of mid-week worship services yesterday in observance of Lent.

The series will be held each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. jointly in Zion Lutheran Church, south of Maple on Keele Street.

Lent is observed by Lutherans as a special time of preparation and meditation. It climaxes on Good Friday, April 12.

Pastor Myers of St. Paul's and Pastor Lange of Zion will alternate as preachers during the Wednesday series. Their theme is "Personalities of the Passion."

Characters to be treated from the last hours of Jesus' life are Judas, Peter, the high priest, Pilate, Simon of Cyrene, the thief on the cross, and Jesus Himself.

St. Paul's will observe the first Sunday in Lent with Holy Communion. Pastor Myers' sermon will be "Hunger in the Wilderness." Sunday's service will begin at 11 a.m. in the Walter Scott School.

Last Sunday's service featured observance of Boy Scout Week. Cubs and Scouts of the 7th, 8th and 9th Richmond Hill and the Beverley Acres Scout Groups attended the church parade.

Pastor Myers, 19-year Scouting veteran and member of the York Summit District Executive Committee, preached on "What is Required" (Micah 6:8). Ronald Sculthorp, District Scout Commissioner, and Peter Peterson, convener of the 9th Richmond Hill Group Committee, also spoke.

New flags of the 8th and 9th Groups were dedicated with special prayers. The 9th Group is sponsored by St. Paul's congregation.

Hold Tea Gatherings To Kick Off Drive

The Richmond Hill unit of the Canadian Cancer Society, met February 12. Plans for teas to be given by the branches are under discussion for the campaign kick-off.

The need for education concerning the dangers of smoking is now thought to be needed at the public school level, particularly in the upper grades. In many cases it is too late to start this education at the high school level.

The women's service chairman reported her committee has been busy making and distributing dressings, visiting, and supplying daily transportation to hospital for a number of patients.
