There have been some enquiries from people in this area regarding spring bear hunting. Bears may be hunted from January 1st to June 30th in every part of Ontario except provincial parks, crown game preserves, posted areas and in built-up townships.

It costs an Ontario resident $5.25 for a licence while a non-resident pays $10.50 for the same privilege. There is no limit on the size of bear that can be shot nor is there any limit on the number that any individual hunter can bring down.

Availability of bears in any given area varies widely with weather and other biological conditions which are difficult to assess. Unless you're a bear.

When you get your bear licence just remember that you cannot use a shotgun, a low powered .22 calibre rifle or a rim-fire rifle.

Crows and robins may signal that spring has definitely arrived but Russ "Casey" Cripps' attitude confirms that the magic season is here for real.

At the moment the mud is deterring the maverick mentor and the team is forced to hold indoor workouts at Richmond Hill High School.

Several new players have shown up at practice with promise of still more to come. Ken Coultis, a 215 pound backstop, who formerly caught Ray Judd at Peterborough is in the Jeweller field.

Needless to say the great Ray Judd is busily preparing for the season opener and is firing faster with each workout. Jack Foley, who was rated all-star catcher in the Beach League last year is also available to backstop for Mr. Judd.

Skip DeGeer, Gary Smith and Bill Robson, all members of last year's Jeweller squad have been turning out for practice. Casey also hopes to have Norm and Ken Roberts, Tony Centa and Matt Kinari working out shortly.

Wayne Jackson, son of Bob Jackson who has done so much for minor hockey in Richmond Hill, has turned up as a Metropolitan Toronto police cadet.

Eric Charity, incumbent president of the Richmond Hill Minor Hockey Association, is taking a flyer into the business world. He will shortly open a sporting goods store in Aurora.

He foresaw a need for this type of business in Aurora and decided to go for broke. If a capacity for hard work and being a thoroughly nice guy can guarantee success then he's got it made.

Thornhill Church League Ends Year With Gala Hockey Tournament

Before the largest church league crowd this season at the Bradford Arena, the six surviving teams in three divisions of the Thornhill Church League met head-on in the final contests of two total-goals-to-count games to settle the minor-atom peewee and bantam championships.

Holy Trinity 1—St. Edwards 0 Holy Trinity Eagles had to be at their very best in shading the Cinderella team from St. Edwards to earn their church's first championship in the three-year history of the league.

The game's only goal came at the 17-minute mark of the final period on a fine play by Ken Moore. Kenny grabbed a face-off deep in his own end of the rink and skated through the entire Saints team to score unassisted for what will always be a memorable goal.

In the final minute of play with St. Edwards goalie Garnet Baylis removed for a sixth attacker, there were several close calls around the Anglican net but Holy Trinity's goalie Mike Gerrard, who so well smothered loose pucks all throughout the game, proved unbeatable.

The Holy Trinity dressing room victory celebration was heightened by a congratulatory visit by the entire St. Edwards team.

St. Lukes 2—Thornhill Un. 1 The powerful Thornhill United Hawks dropped their first verdict in 19 straight games this season but won a championship in the process. St. Lukes, trailing by two goals as a result of their series-opening 3-1 loss, had their skating legs back and for most of the game appeared to control play against the non-pressing Hawks who appeared willing to nurse along their two-goal lead.

Wayne Jackson, son of Bob Jackson who has done so much for minor hockey in Richmond Hill, has turned up as a Metropolitan Toronto police cadet.

At the moment young Mr. Jackson is being trained as a motorcycle officer. Wayne is such a nice guy that it's hard to imagine him getting tough with anyone.

The closing night of the RHMA schedule will be held on April 12th. This will conclude hockey activity in the association this year and ice will be removed from the arena over the weekend.

The Saints kept up the pressure all through the final period in an attempt to tie the score on the round and finally pulled off a near-miracle when with but four seconds showing on the clock and their goalie on the bench for a sixth attacker they flashed the red light for the tying goal.

Holy Trinity lineup: Steve Cruise, Brian Phillips, Charles Sowdon, Bill Antonacl, Jerry Crouse, Jamie Cameron, Bill Garland, David Tyson, Mike Stratton, Don Sproul, Bob Geno, Doug Billings, Bob Bonnell, Group Capt. J. A. Sproule, manager, and Ian Ross, coach.

St. Edwards lineup: John Bolger, Jim Laviolette, John Casey, Peter McCarthy, Tony Lockerby, Danny Sloane, Charlie McHaffey, Steve Scully, Rick McEvoy, Byron Faratas, Frankie Grieco, Brian Giardello, Manager, Cliff Ashton; coach, Al Collins.

Immediately following the championship games players from all eighteen teams in the league, their managers, coaches, parents and respective clergy assembled at St. Luke's school auditorium in Thornhill to receive awards.

After an opening prayer by Rev. A. I. Higgins of Thornhill United Church president Tom Brown introduced the other clergy present as well as guest of honour Al Boliska from station CHUM and the remainder of the hockey executive.

Team crests and photographs were then presented to each team manager for his players by guest Al Boliska. Mr. Boliska congratulated the entire audience for their respective parts in the great success enjoyed by the league during the season.

Referee Stan Gibbons and Bruce Townsley of Newmarket were on hand and were introduced and were greeted with a

The C.F.G.M. squirt-age hockey entry were defeated twice by the same team on Saturday in two different games. In a Clancy series game at Woodbridge on Saturday morning they lost a 3-2 decision to Bert Robinson. Leaving Woodbridge they ripped down to Heather Arena for a Tam O'Shanter tourney game. The opposition? Bert Robinson.

Just to rub a little salt into an already raw wound the Robinson squad shut the C.F.G.M. kids by a 1-0 count. Some days it just doesn't pay to get out of bed!

Hornets To Leamington

Earl Methe and Gord Pipher will be taking the Peewee Hornets to Leamington next Sunday for the opening game of two game goals to count series for the peewee O.M.H.A. championship. The Hornets have fought long and valiantly to end up in this final series.

Fish Huts Cause Unsightly Scene

A great deal of unfavourable publicity has been given to the ungraceful condition of Lake Simcoe's ice-hut civilization. Garbage and waste has been allowed to accumulate in some areas and will eventually disappear into the lake as the ice breaks up.

With the enactment of by-law 3-62 it became necessary to obtain a licence for the erection of a fishing hut on the ice of any lake or river within the township's jurisdiction.

Huts are liable to inspection any time during the day or night and no refuse must be left in the huts or on the ice. No hut must remain on the ice after April 1st. Contraventions of this by-law carry severe penalties.

In the 11 a.m. draw a rink skipped by Peg Austin assisted by I. Hanna, Olive Harrower and Marion Gill won first prize. Other rinks skipped by Doris Vance, Ruth Nerlich, Joan Webb also came in for prizes.

A rink skipped by Blanche Smith, assisted by Nona Bedwell, Gwen Rose and Margaret Benton won high three games with the skip winning the third game with her last rock, the score being 5-4. May Ashkanase with her rink of Margaret Paton, Joan Taylor and Helen Pipher won high one game.

On Wednesday, April 3, the Richmond Hill Club will be hostesses to an open invitationalspiel, rinks from many clubs will be curling for the King-fied trophy.

Kent Clothiers

Limber Up With Indoor Practice

Joe Cornack and Al Webster had a fine turnout for indoor softball practice at Bayview Secondary School last Friday night.

Eighteen to 20 young hopefuls attended the session with most of last season's squad in attendance. Gerry and Al Case from Mt. Albert got in a good workout session and should be a tower of strength to the Clothier team.

Players limbered up with exercise sessions, basket ball and running then limbered up arms with a throwing and catching session. Pitcher Larry Guio has added some weight but looks to be throwing well as he has been doing a bit of serious work.

Sponsor Marvin Maretz seemed to be pleased with the turnout and even indulged in a little mild exercise along the way.

From all appearances this team won't be out of place in the new league. They're capable of playing fast, crowd-pleasing softball and should give a better than go 1 account of themselves in the upcoming season.
