Belated birthday wishes for Mr. Edward T. Leary who celebrated his 90th birthday on Monday, April 1. His daughter, Miss Audrey Leary and Mrs. B. Duncan, had a family dinner for him on the old Leary homestead now occupied by Mr. Fred Kierstein. He farmed at his life and lived at Gormley except for three years when they lived in U.S.A. after they were married. His three brothers, Wm. George, and Wes have all predeceased him. His wife the former Agnes Gillies, died in 1944. They had four daughters and one son, namely - Gladys (Mrs. A. Allan) of Markham; Velma (Mrs. Roberts) who died in 1944; Audrey, principal at Jefferson public school; Marie (Mrs. Bruce Duncan) also a teacher at Jefferson, and Jack of Gormley. There are 10 grandchildren.

Mr. Leary enjoys good health and for several years he has made his home with his daughters, Audrey and Marie.

Mr. Leary drove the first rural mail delivery for R.R.1, Gormley.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Houghton and family moved on Thursday to their farm at R.R.1, Lorneville. The good wishes of our community follow them to their new home.

We wish a complete recovery for Mrs. Roy Brillinger who took very ill at her home on Thursday evening. On Friday afternoon she was taken by ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, where she is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gilbert and two children moved on Thursday from the McKendry apartment to R.R.1, Stouffville.

A number of ladies attended achievement day at Buttonville Hall on Monday. The ladies who took the rug making course at the Women's Institute displayed their rugs.

Mr. Russell Elias broke his ring finger on his left hand last week and is wearing a cast.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Millen of Downsview spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett.

The Women's Institute is sponsoring a demonstration party in the Lloyd School on April 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Barkey of Stouffville, and Keith and Grant Nigh were supper guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. French on Saturday, in honour of Glenn's
