Traditionally We Get Tradition

Tradition dies equally hard down at Smythe's Emporium. At the height of the action during one torrid session a clarion cry rocked the house - "Come on Teeder"! There's one hockey fan who knows a good thing when he hears it and just refuses to give up!

The Spring Madness has us in its grip for fair. Traditionally it always has and probably always will. We're slaves of tradition but, like we said, it's comfortable. We know first what to expect and we'll probably be expecting anything, and we'll get it too. Traditionally we always have!

Arena Good For Many Years

As soon as the ice is removed from the Richmond Hill Arena this coming weekend, work will start on extensive renovations to the local ice palace. By the opening of the hockey season next fall, major portions of the old edifice will be virtually unrecognizable. Like your Aunt Sally after a session at the Palais de Beaute.

Some people have questioned the wisdom of spending good money on an old building. Their theory is that we need a new arena, and they are right, absolutely right. We do need a new arena - and the old one we've got as well!

Demand for ice time in this area is rising by leaps and bounds. The supply just can't equal the demand and a new arena would provide much needed relief. Only one catch - there's always a catch isn't there? Nobody has any idea of where the hundred thousand dollars needed for a new arena would come from.

In the meantime we have one arena. It may be old but it is structurally sound and it can be fixed up for a lot less than a new arena would cost. Common sense alone would dictate that the arena board would move to improve and protect our only arena. Maybe it isn't modern and maybe it's not a thing of aesthetic beauty but it IS an arena and it DOES have an artificial ice plant.

Plans for improvement will make it a far more valuable and useful building than has been the case heretofore. Once this phase of the work has been completed and a little of the financial outlay recouped, additional improvements are to be made. It is in the cards that, in the not too far distant future, the ice surface will be enlarged.

All in all fixing up the existing arena makes an awful lot of sense. By doing it this way we can have a sort of a pay-as-you-go plan and enjoy it along the way. Unless financial conditions improve a whole of a lot a new arena is away off in never-never-land. Thank goodness for the old arena - with a major face-lifting job she'll be good for a lot of years yet!

'Hope Springs Eternal'

At least two Richmond Hill families got their hands on some of the heavy sugar from the Irish Sweep. It's nice to hear things like this happening to local people, almost makes one really believe in the man with the red suit and the white beard. Congratulations are in order to these much publicized families - there's only one other family we wish it had happened to - ours!!!

Cleaners Bow Mad Hatters' Successful Party Out To Aurora

Aurora Bantams eliminated North End Cleaners from the North York League play-offs by virtue of 6-3 and 4-1 wins last week.

The Cleaners are still active in the Clancy Series and won a 3-0 victory over Dorset Park at Leaside on Saturday. Dave Broderick, Wayne Harrington and Harvey Gordon were the marksmen with assists going to Doug Acomb and Jim Wilson.

The Cleaners are entered in the Georgetown bantam tournament over the Easter holiday season. Should be a very busy week!

It was a real 'mad hatters' party at Beverley Acres School last Thursday night when the Beverley Acres Neighborhood Group of the YWCA were selling ladies hats at 50 cents each - sight unseen of course. Despite the element of chance taken by the more than 36 members of the group who were in attendance at the party many of the hats purchased by the ladies were as suitable - in this reporter's opinion at least - to any head piece which they may have studied for an hour in front of a milliner's mirror.

There was, of course, those hats that were 'away out' away out of this world that is, but to say the least were colorful creations indicative of the wild creative genius that lies dormant in the mind of many a woman. Objective of the 'mad hatters' party was to raise funds for sponsoring Y workers in other countries and for the purpose of bringing Y workers to Canada for training. Funds raised at the party will also go to aid the nutritional projects for India and South America. Other highlights of the party were a bake sale and a demonstration of the latest spring fashions presented by Rick Butt of Warwick House.

Radio Squirts Downed 2-0

C.F.G.M.'s squirt-age hockey team dropped a 2-0 decision to Leaside in the Tam O'Shanter tourney at Heather Area last week. With two games still to play the kids could still give a good account of themselves.

They won a Clancy Series game at Woodbridge by shutting out Scarborough in a 1-0 squeaker. A goal by Daryl Rice fashioned the shut-out win with Alan Lewis picking up an assist on the goal.

In an exhibition tilt against Faustina the locals came up with a 4-3 victory. Goals by Gary Oliver, John Barnett, Paul Martin and Paul Brown provided the margin of victory. The North York League final schedule has finally been resolved with C.F.G.M. meeting Newmarket in the final round.
