Miss Penny Houston and Miss Gail Melnic sang a hymn "Tis the Soul of Spring Today" during the presentation of the offering. Miss Bushell is to be highly complimented for her good work with the choir and as organist of the Church.

Former Aurora Schoolboy Now Prime Minister

An Aurora school-boy this week became prime minister of Canada. Lester B. Pearson, leader of the new Liberal government who took 130 of the 265 seats in the House of Commons in the recent federal election, gained his early education at the Aurora Public School, now known as Church Street School.

Mr. Pearson's father, the Rev. Edwin Pearson was minister of the Methodist Church, now Aurora United Church. The parsonage remains in the same location today, at the corner of Catherine and Spruce streets.

Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, minister of King City Charge, recalls Lester Pearson as professor of modern history at University College, University of Toronto, while he was a student there.

The prime minister's high school education was acquired in Peterborough, when his father was minister of a church in that city. Wilfred Adams, retired high school teacher, attended the Peterborough High School at the same time as Mr. Pearson and remembers him "as a good athlete, and fine baseball player."

Tight Schedule For York Hospital Auxiliary

The York Central Hospital Auxiliary has agreed to accept the responsibility of paying a co-ordinator to work with the hospital administrator, Mr. G. J. Chatfield should the board desire. This decision was taken at the April meeting of the YCHA executive Thursday morning of last week. It is understood this position will be on a part time basis at present.

Mr. Chatfield was unable to be present at the meeting, but was represented by Mrs. F. C. Jackson of the hospital board.

Mrs. Jackson told the executive that Mr. Chatfield will begin to appoint hospital staff shortly, and he wishes to have working with him someone responsible for auxiliary affairs.

In describing the requirements for this position, Mr. Chatfield has stated: "such a co-ordinator must have good organizational ability as well as a tactful personality. The responsibilities and status of this position will be unchanged whether the person is paid or unpaid, or whether the person selected is on a full or part time basis. The person selected will need a good relationship in working out problems with volunteers, but must remember that it is the hospital which sets policy and practices, not the auxiliary.

Reports were given by the branch chairmen, and Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier gave a resume of the two-day course in leadership held recently at the Ontario Hospital Association headquarters at Don Mills.

Various fund-raising activities were noted: Mrs. C. H.
