Lions
The Victoria Square District Lions Club meeting on Tuesday evening of last week was the occasion of the annual inter-club visit of the King City Lions Club who came by bus. The King City Lions Club were suitably welcomed by President Forest Dullege.

Lion Ed. Gibson was received into Lionism by an impressive induction ceremony conducted by Lions Aubrey Stephenson, Harvey Collard, Frank Donnelly and Lion President Forest Dullege. The certificate was presented by Kenneth Sutton, president of the King City Lions Club. The Lions emblem was presented by Lion Carl Walker, his sponsor.

Visitors were present also from the Humber Valley Club, Woodbridge.

Mr. James Aikenhead, a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, entertained with several piano instrumentalists.

The Lions Club is collecting used spectacles, frames, lenses, monacles and even lognettes, which are packed and shipped to India and Pakistan. Call Lion Carl Walker at 886-5413 for a pick up or mail them to him at Gormley R.R. 2, Ont. When house-cleaning, the ladies are asked to save any unwanted articles for the Lions auction sale in September. Contact any Lion member for a pick-up.

The Easter meeting of the United Church Women was held in the Sunday school room on Wednesday evening of last week.

A film produced by the Church's own Berkley Studios entitled, "Land of the Calm" was shown, which depicted the life in Korea today. With a population of 23 millions and only 7 or 8 per cent who are Christians. This is a great challenge to us and the church as a whole. Noted was the contrast, very poor shacks for dwellings on the hill-side, and such buildings as Erba Women's Christian University, one of the largest in the world. The members of the group led in an Easter worship period.
