Visiting at the home of Mr. J. Farrow, Centre Street West, is his nephew, Mr. George Elliott, from Saskatoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor is progressing favorably after undergoing surgery in St. Michael's Hospital and has been transferred to St. John's Convalescent Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Redelmeier, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. H. Redelmeier, Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas-Crampton and Mr. and Mrs. G. Holland attended the Athenian Ball held last Friday at the Toronto Art Gallery.

Keep our 'Life in the Hill' columns up to date with your news - the service is free - call the Social Editor Margot Crack at TU. 4-1105, or drop a line to 63 Yonge Street S. - we'll be pleased to hear from you.

"Dancing for everybody" over 16 years of age at a very modest fee, is an innovation for Richmond Hill, commencing this Saturday night 8:00 to 11:30 p.m., in the dance hall of the Bayview Plaza Restaurant. An excellent range of food is also available.

Ballet School To Test Local Talent

The Classical Ballet School of Judith Bubik gave a highly successful performance in the Loyal True Blue & Orange Home on Tuesday evening of last week. Warmly applauded were Vickery Cook, Wendy McCormick, Paulette De La Barre, Alice Kormendy, Christine Kormendy, Leslie Thornton for her cartwheels on one hand, Susan McLaughlin's graceful arabesques, and Jennifer Hopkins' and Dianna Wallace's artistic movements. These same solos will form part of the recital of the Classical Ballet School which will be held on June 8 at 7:00 p.m.

Miss Judith Bubik, who teaches ballet here by the Russian system, will conduct an aptitude test for local talent in the Lions Club Hall on Sunday, June 2 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome. Don't miss this great opportunity - good training is so important to future success. The only requirement for the talent test is the possession of a ticket bought for the recital to be held on June 8. Tickets will be available at the Lions Club Hall at the time of the talent test. A Figure Developing Course for adults is planned for September, 1963.
