M.P. Reports

Dogs" a magazine in Philadelphia, and an article on Harry Pridham's rural store at Elgin Mills to a Chicago magazine, Groceram.

"This year," said Loraine, "I am happy to have my story, River Life among the national prize winning stories in the 1963 anthology Rubaboo 2, published by W. J. Gage Limited."

Loraine Porter is a member of the Toronto Free Lance Club, and a former member of the Canadian Author's Association. She also belongs to the University club, the Federation of Ontario Naturalists and a small Spanish group but seldom has the opportunity to attend meetings as writing and home activities keep her very busy. Loraine believes that writing is a most rewarding profession for the woman who runs a home. She learns while she earns, from research and from the interesting people she meets.

However Loraine does not fear competition even if homemakers in general should decide that combining a literary career with home-making is just the thing and be tempted to add a typewriter in the kitchen along with all their other devices. Loraine feels that most women are too group addicted these days. They tend to conform to fit in with a mass-minded society and pattern their personal behaviour to group standards. According to Loraine's thought, the day of the free-thinking individual is declining and resentment arises against the one who does not adhere to "group thought."

P.S. Literary homemakers, here is your chance to write that perfect children's story. Manuscripts should be sent to: The Editor, Writing For Young Canada, W. J. Gage Limited, 1500 Birchmount Road, Scarborough.

of an Economic Council of Canada. Its chief responsibility will be to forecast the necessary increase in the gross national product (which is the value of goods and services in the nation) each year. This means a close and continuing study of all the country's industrial and economic needs and the way they can best be achieved.

The next step, through legislation, is to provide financial assistance loans to municipalities. This means that work will be created at the local level and that many necessary projects can be started very quickly in home areas. The municipal loan fund is to have a capital of not less than $400,000,000 which will go far to put our economy on a sound footing. The fund will be administered by a board which is to be created by Parliament.

Another major step is the establishment by Parliament of a new Department of Industry, which is something long needed in Canada. The main job of the department's minister will be to encourage industrial development in areas of chronic unemployment.

HELP FOR FARMERS
Of great interest to York North's farm areas and to all agricultural areas in Eastern Canada will be the government's measure to name a second Minister of Agriculture. Now there will be a minister responsible for western agriculture and one for eastern agriculture. For the first time in Canadian history the vastly different farming regions of east and west will have equal attention.

While the Atlantic Development Board, with a fund of $100,000,000 will be of greatest interest in the maritime provinces, this kind of development will also have a major effect in helping the whole national economy. Also at this session of Parliament, a special committee relating to defense will be established. Its need was widely demonstrated by the recent campaign.

CONTRIBUTORY PENSIONS
Aim of the new government under Prime Minister Pearson is to introduce legislation at this session which can be passed quickly. Among other vital measures will be the new Contributory Old Age Pension scheme. I am sure there are tens of thousands in York North alone who will find this one of the most satisfying undertakings of any government. The legislation is now being developed and you will be hearing and reading about its details as soon as the energetic new Minister of Health and Welfare, the Hon. Miss Judy LaMarsh, is able to put it before parliament.

GLITTERING ASSEMBLY
It was a thrilling moment when the meeting of the NATO ministers was formally opened in our House of Commons chamber last week. Ministers of 15 nations were present in a glittering assembly and Prime Minister Pearson addressed them as did our Minister of External Affairs, Hon. Paul Martin who is the host minister. Among those present were Dean Rusk, the United States Secretary of State, and Robert McNamara, both of whom have many friends in Canada. The NATO meetings, being held in a specially-prepared section of one of the government buildings, are among the most important to our future of any ever held.

Aside from business, Ottawa is breathtaking in the beauty of its tulip festival which is a fitting background for the great NATO meeting. The millions of brightly colored tulip bulbs were a gift of Holland after the last war.

POSTAGE FREE
As your M.P., I would like you to let me know if I can be of any assistance whatever. You may write your member postage free. Just write: John H. Addison, M.P., Room 107A, Centre Block, House of Commons, Ottawa, Ontario. Should you want to see me personally, call my office at 40 Yonge Street South, in Richmond Hill and it will be arranged. The phone number there is: 884-7175.

Sincerely,
John H. Addison

WILLOWDALE: Five North York firemen were injured last week when the engine in which they were riding skidded on wet pavement and crashed into the Hogg's Hollow bridge abutment. They were treated at Branson Hospital.

WILLOWDALE: Special event at the June 8 North York Track and Field Jamoree at Northview Heights Collegiate will be a relay between Willowdale's Dick Shatto and his Argonauts' team mates and the Maple Leafs. North York housewives are also competing in a relay.
