

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. John Bayley, Yonge Street North, is progressing satisfactorily following surgery at Toronto General Hospital.

Midmer Dance Academy
Congratulations to the pupils of the academy for winning first prize with their Ukrainian dance on "Uncle Jerry's Club" (televised on channel 4 last Sunday).

They will be appearing again in two weeks time on the same programme.

The many friends of Greg Sheppard, 20 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sheppard, Colborne Street, will be sorry to hear that he has returned to Branson Hospital where he is a patient in the isolation ward, having undergone a second major operation.

Greg, a former student at Richmond Hill High School, is now associated with Litton's systems at Rexdale.

The Sacrament of Baptism was held at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on June 2. Those receiving the rite were: James William Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Stevenson, Toronto; Robyn Leanne Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bennett, Richmond Hill; and Jennifer Nicole Heburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Heburn, Scarborough.

Relatives from Ottawa, Florida, and Richmond Hill were present for the baptisms. The children were also presented with New Testaments from the Sunday school.

June is the month for brides, showers, trousseaus, teas, trips to the cottage, vacations and graduations. All make interesting reading for "Life in the Hill" and your editor Margot Crack would appreciate hearing about these social events. Call us at TU. 4-1105, drop a note in the mail to 63 Yonge Street South, or call in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

Last week's Metro news carried headlines about the recovery of $300,000 stolen jewellery and furs and the arrest of some suspects.

Prominent in the case was Detective-Sergeant Thomas MacLeod, a Richmond Hill old-boy and well known to many in this district.

As a boy, Tom MacLeod attended Patterson Public School, Richmond Hill High School, Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church and Sunday school. For some time his father was a member of the Don Head Farm staff.

Something New Under The Sun . . .
SHIFT

Holding office are: Denny Featherstonhaugh, past president; Dennis Stainer, president; Ernie Madden, vice president; Dennis Thatcher, publicity; Louise Queen, secretary and Margaret Bergin, membership.

Plans were finalized for the picnic which will take place on June 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hughes, Unionville.

Richmond Hill WI
The next regular meeting will take place on June 16th at 1 p.m. in the library auditorium. This is the pot luck luncheon, and members are also reminded to please bring articles for the "Bring and Buy" auction.

Her many friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. Gordon Stephenson, Harding Boulevard, is progressing favourably following an operation. She is a patient in Northwestern Hospital and hopes to be home again shortly.

A pre-Communion service will be held at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on June 7, at 8 p.m.

Members of the women's association will serve refreshments at the close of the service.

Rev. W. W. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson attended the testimonial dinner for Dr. Kenneth Cousland, retiring president of Emmanuel College held at Eglington United Church on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Patterson, formerly of St. Matthew's United Church, is now associate minister at Trinity United Church, Smiths Falls.

Mrs. Rita Hamilton, Edenbridge Drive, Etobicoke, attended the Sylvia Garson Dance Revue on Friday with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hamilton of Maple, to see her granddaughter Janet, who was dancing in the revue.

Mrs. Hamilton is with the Etobicoke Philharmonic Orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fitzsimmons, 257 Richmond Street, leave on Monday to take up residence in Port Credit.

Mr. Fitzsimmons is with the Special Products and Applied Research Division of De Havilland Aircraft at Malton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ward and son Julian, Driscoll Road, attended the wedding on Saturday of Mrs. Ward's sister, Miss Cynthia Teague to Mr. Thomas Vierson at Yorkminster United Church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Sunset Terrace.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Teague, and sister, Mrs. G. D. Hill, who are at present holidaying in Canada, returning home next month.

At the annual general meeting of the Curtain Club held last week at the club house, minutes were read, reports heard from the various convenors, and officers elected for the coming year.

Holding office are: Denny Featherstonhaugh, past president; Dennis Stainer, president; Ernie Madden, vice president; Dennis Thatcher, publicity; Louise Queen, secretary and Margaret Bergin, membership.

Plans were finalized for the picnic which will take place on June 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hughes, Unionville.

Mr. R. D. Little, Arnold St., leading horticultural enthusiast, will be a guest on John Bradshaw's garden programme over CFRB this Saturday, June 8th, at 9 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stretch returned home to Winnipeg last Thursday, having spent the last month with their daughter, Mrs. J. P. Miller, Sussex Avenue.

During their stay they received a pleasant surprise—a visit from Mr. Stretch's nephew, Mr. K. L. Stretch, who is vice-principal of the College of Advanced Technology in Birmingham, England. This is the first time these two branches of the family have met since 1918.

Mr. Lotin of the Children's Fashion Shop, in the centre of Richmond Heights Centre, is seeking antique articles concerned with children to display in his windows during the centre's coming Bonanza Days. He is offering a prize for the most interesting item brought to his store by Monday, June 10.

Richmond Hill Senior Citizens
Celebrating Senior Citizens Week, about 40 members of the local senior citizen group were present at the regular Lions-ingo Monday night. Two of the group were among the prize-winners. Fred Rose received $15 as winner of one of the regular games, and Frank Gilbert $1 on the lucky number draw.

Further activities in this special week for the seniors included a church service at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Sunday evening; a visit to Sterling Drugs, Tuesday; open house at the clubrooms on Wednesday, and a visit to Evyan Perfumes on Thursday.

Friday, the group will visit the lovely Edwards Gardens and the bus leaves the day centre promptly at 1 p.m.

A classical ballet demonstration was given by the Audrey Parker Ballet Studio on Friday last at Our Lady Help of Christian School.

Parents and many friends attended. Mrs. Parker's remarks which explained the history of classic ballet as well as the aims of her school were greatly appreciated by the audience.

All of the pupils of the studio assisted Mrs. Parker in the demonstration and provided graphic proof of the skill each pupil is learning.

Short ballets were performed by the following pupils: Nancy Ashworth, Karin Batke, Bonnie Bryon, Elizabeth Burgess, Janet Da Costa, Vera Tie, Suzanne Fitchett, Rae-Marie George, Corrine Grets, Judith Hook, Ingrid McLeod, Susan Ostergaard, Cheryl Packer, Kelly Patten, Mary Jean Payette, Elizabeth Payne, Barbara Peirce, Laurie Peirce, Patricia Smith, Lynne Spink, Deborah Stoness, and Sandra Veysierr.

The highlight of the evening was a solo by Mrs. Parker, which demonstrated her great dancing ability. An outstanding job was done by Mrs. Helen Hook at introducing each ballet. Refreshments were served to climax a very informative and enjoyable evening.

The annual Spring Fair of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church was blessed with perfect June weather on Saturday. The large array of home baked goodies and household treasures disappeared rapidly, and the games and refreshment booths were well patronized.

A weekend of fishing and relaxation was enjoyed by salesmen of the Town and Country Food Marketers and Credamatic International, at the Muskoka cottages of Mr. Fred Wise, Mr. Hugh Kerr and Mr. Ben Thompson.

The closing meeting of the Allenbrae Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary will be a garden tea at the home of Mrs. E. Buterworth, 444 Markham Road at 2 p.m. on June 10th.

Mrs. R. J. Miller, Mrs. W. Finlay and Mrs. W. S. Pocknell will be guests of honor.

The next meeting will be held in September.

Mr. Phil Barnes, Alverna Rd., is at present conducting an interesting experiment—he has started viewing sessions for the assembly of a "do-it-yourself" Schober organ kit.

Interested parties from the Hill, Toronto, and many parts of Ontario, are meeting at his home and enjoying this intricate but fascinating art of making a fine instrument from a package of parts.

The project is expected to take six weeks, although the actual working time should not exceed fifty hours.

"Tops in auto racing" was the comment of two veteran auto racers after attending the annual Memorial Day speed classic at Indianapolis, the Mr. and Mrs. C. Lagerquist of Richmond Hill.

Pink and white floral arrangements made a pretty setting for the Nuptial Eucharist which followed the ceremony performed by Canon Norman E. Petersen, in the Church of the Resurrection, Valois, Quebec.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Hubert Rataj, wore a short length gown of white tulle over stiff taffeta. The gown featured a high round neckline, with 3/4 sleeves.

A Bell skirt, with Swiss embroidery across the bodice and around the lower skirt to the hemline. The centre front waistline was ornamented with a lace flower applique and organza string bow. Her fingertip veil was caught to a pill-box style headpiece, gracefully draped with white peadese-soie. She carried an orchid and white carnation arrangement, on a white satin prayer-book.

Mrs. John Maunder, sister of the groom was matron of honour and Irene Maunder, niece of the groom, and Elke Reineke of New Jersey, were the flower girls. The matron of honour wore a simple sheath of baby blue Swiss embroidered taffeta, with a bateau neckline and 3/4 sleeves, with a matching tailored bow head-dress. She carried a nosegay of pink roses, blush pink carnations and white mums.

The flower girls wore identical dresses of white polka-dotted Triviera, imported from Germany, with blue sashes of Swiss embroidered taffeta, and carried smaller versions of the matron of honour's nosegay.

The best man was John Maunder, brother-in-law of the groom and the ushers were Ron Gough and Peter Eastwood, of Montreal.

Following the ceremony, the guests were entertained at the Edgewater Hotel, overlooking Lac St. Louis. Mrs. Hubert Rataj received wearing a black sleeveless sheath with white

MR. & MRS. FRANCIS WILLIAM CLARENCE LAGERQUIST
May Wedding In Quebec

On Saturday May 18, a wet, but very happy event took place when Ruth Katherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Friedrich Kromrey of Rendsburg, Germany, became the bride of Francis William Clarence Lagerquist, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lagerquist of Richmond Hill.

Pink and white floral arrangements made a pretty setting for the Nuptial Eucharist which followed the ceremony performed by Canon Norman E. Petersen, in the Church of the Resurrection, Valois, Quebec.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Hubert Rataj, wore a short length gown of white tulle over stiff taffeta. The gown featured a high round neckline, with 3/4 sleeves.

A Bell skirt, with Swiss embroidery across the bodice and around the lower skirt to the hemline. The centre front waistline was ornamented with a lace flower applique and organza string bow. Her fingertip veil was caught to a pill-box style headpiece, gracefully draped with white peadese-soie. She carried an orchid and white carnation arrangement, on a white satin prayer-book.

Mrs. John Maunder, sister of the groom was matron of honour and Irene Maunder, niece of the groom, and Elke Reineke of New Jersey, were the flower girls. The matron of honour wore a simple sheath of baby blue Swiss embroidered taffeta, with a bateau neckline and 3/4 sleeves, with a matching tailored bow head-dress. She carried a nosegay of pink roses, blush pink carnations and white mums.

The flower girls wore identical dresses of white polka-dotted Triviera, imported from Germany, with blue sashes of Swiss embroidered taffeta, and carried smaller versions of the matron of honour's nosegay.

The best man was John Maunder, brother-in-law of the groom and the ushers were Ron Gough and Peter Eastwood, of Montreal.

Following the ceremony, the guests were entertained at the Edgewater Hotel, overlooking Lac St. Louis. Mrs. Hubert Rataj received wearing a black sleeveless sheath with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Clarence Lagerquist assisted, wearing a small petal hat of beige and matching accessories, a sheath dress of open blue with matching coat, and corsage of white carnations.

When the bridal couple left for a week's honeymoon at Manoir St. Castin, Quebec, the bride travelled in a 3 pce. ensemble of double knit jersey. The blouse was white, the skirt navy and the short jacket navy of navy, trimmed with white. Navy mohair hat, white accessories and an orchid corsage completed her ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Lagerquist will live in Dorval, Quebec.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. Foord of Newmarket, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Wainwright of Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. John Maunder of Deep River, Mrs. Conrad Lagerquist of Longbranch and son Brian, Mrs. D. Mitchell of Port Credit, Mr. and Mrs. Gunter Reineke of New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kay of Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Dale of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. M. Kolking of Toronto.

The Richmond Hill United Church Sunday school picnic will be held at Centre Island on June 15th.

Watch this column for further information — please reserve this date.

The U.C.W. of Richmond Hill United Church will meet this Thursday, June 6th, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bales, 317 Mill Street at 1 p.m. Please bring a box lunch.

Cars will leave the church at 12.45 noon.

SALES - SERVICE - RENTALS
L. H. SIMS
Typewriters - Adding Machines
Your Office Machine Specialist
88 Baker Ave., Richmond Hill
See Portable Models at
"Wight's Pharmacy"
Day or Evenings, TU. 4-1745
All popular makes on hand
Special Students' Rates

LAMB THE MOVER LTD.
Over 45 Years Experience
LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING
(Across The Street) Or Across The Continent
FURNITURE HANDLED GENTLE AS A LAMB
MODERN STORAGE WAREHOUSE
127 Birch Ave. - Thornhill, Ont.
PHONE AV. 5-4911-2-3
WE ARE THE BEST

BEDDING PLANTS
35 VARIETIES
Hybrid Petunias
ORIOLE GARDENS
W. E. GLADDING
114 MILES NORTH OF VICTORIA SQUARE
ON THE DON MILLS RD.

JUNE SPECIAL
Free Free Free
STYLED HAIR CUT
with each shampoo and set
FREE SHAMPOO & SET
within two weeks of each permanent
Chez - Pauline
HOUSE OF BEAUTY
24 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill
884-2726

Wright & Taylor
CHAPEL OF PIPHER FUNERAL HOME
LIMITED
Established 1878
Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

INSURANCE
AND
MORTGAGE SERVICE
HERBERT R. BUTT
24 Elizabeth St. N. 2 Carlton St.
Richmond Hill Toronto

TELEVISION RENTALS
FROM $10.00 MONTHLY
RENT A T.V. FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Dealers For Electrohome, R.C.A.,
Philco T.V. & Hi Fi
Largest Display of Portable
Televisions North of Toronto
FROM $169.
Richmond Hill TV
34 YONGE SOUTH
TU. 4-7456 AV. 5-3756

Good eating AT SAVINGS!
CUT-UP CHICKEN
Legs & Breasts lb. 49¢
NOW COLOURED TULIP
Margarine 3 lb. For 63¢
FRESH
Pork Riblets lb. 25¢
Wieners 3 lbs. 89¢
C. NELS GAGE
BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

Lucky Winners At Hydro Show

Seen above admiring the door prizes they won at the "Quick Tricks" small appliance cooking demonstration in St. Matthew's United Church last Tuesday evening are, from the left: Mrs. L. G. Obee, 313 Osiris Drive (blender); Mrs. E. A. Bagg, 432 Osiris Drive (coffee percolator); Mrs. T. Buchan, 17 Cartier Cres. (mixer); and Hostess Miss Barbara Woodall, from the homemakers' service of Ontario Hydro.

The evening was organized by St. Matthew's United Church Women in conjunction with the Richmond Hill and Ontario Hydro Commissions. Over 100 ladies attended.

Prices
$2.98
&
$3.98
Wyn-Dot
The Ladies Shop
Bayview Plaza
TU. 4-2214