President Mrs. Donald Hadwen made the presentation to Miss Dennis at the May 28 meeting of the U.C.W. The end of June Miss Dennis is retiring from her teaching profession of 47 years. Since 1930 she has taught at King City Public School, until 1957 as principal.

Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Thompson moved last week from Kinghorn to Eaton Hall Farm, where Mr. Thompson has been employed over the past 28 years.

Mrs. Thompson was born on the homestead property at Kinghorn, which her late father, William Egan, purchased 57 years ago. After Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were married in 1936, they lived in King City 3 1/2 years in houses on North Keele Street now occupied by Noble and Sankey families.

From there they moved to the same lot as the original homestead. Mrs. Thompson was a Bell Telephone operator at the King exchange for 12 years and was on the post office staff four years, mostly when it was located in Crawford Wells' general store.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O-

Brien from Tannery Hill purchased the Thompson house.

Mr. A. George Cusdin, former secretary-treasurer of King City Hydro System, is now employed in the technical representative department at Philco Corporation plant at Don Mills.

Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Jennings held Sunday "open house" at their home on King Sideroad in honor of their only daughter, Miss Donna Jennings, who graduated from Toronto General Hospital School of Nursing.

Among those entertained at the buffet supper were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rumble of Oak Ridges, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rumble with Laurie, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rumble and Stephen, Miss Mabel Jennings, all from Toronto; King Township's Reeve Ray Jennings and Mrs. Jennings, uncle and aunt of the young graduate; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rumble and Elizabeth from Hamilton; Miss Lynda Lloyd and Mr. Robert Lloyd from Delhi; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jennings and Debbie, Mr. Wayne Jennings, from Aurora, and Mr. Gordon Johnston from Bolton.

Feeling Better

Debbie Shipley is feeling better after a tonsillectomy at York County Hospital, Newmarket. Her mother, Mrs. Bruce Shipley, underwent a similar operation two weeks later.

To Moose Jaw

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wheatley and their daughter, Julie, of Sarnia are now residents of McBride Crescent. They are in the house formerly owned by Flight Lieut. and Mrs. Eric Cooke.

The Cooke family, including son Eric, are in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, where Flight Lieut. Cooke was transferred with the RCAF.

New Post Office For King City

John Addison MP York North announced this week that the federal government has approved the construction of a new post office for King City.

The Department of Public Works in Ottawa has included the new building in its list of proposed projects for 1963-64. Government officials estimate it will cost $45,000.

Langdon-Patterson Exchange Vows

King City United Church was the scene of a noon wedding of wide interest when Rev. Martin Jenkinson united in marriage Valerie Belle Patterson of Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Patterson of Montreal, and James Lloyd Langdon, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Blyth J. Langdon of King City.

Spring flowers and white satin bows decorated the church for the ceremony attended by 85 guests. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ewart Patton at the organ and the church choir sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace gown with applied scallop around the neckline to match the hem of the street-length skirt. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Attending the bride were Miss Nancy Darrach, as maid of honor, and Miss Joan McNaughton from Winnipeg and Miss Ruth Agar, bridesmaids.

They wore dresses of lemon yellow, similar in style to the bride's, and carried wicker baskets of sweet peas, yellow roses and heather chrysanthemums. Dresses for the bridal party had been made by the bride's mother.

Mr. John B. Langdon was best man for his brother and ushers were Mr. Andy Peters and Mr. Donald Gordon.

The reception dinner at Summit View Gardens was attended by 67 relatives and friends, including two grandmothers, Mrs. Bella Neale and Mrs. Agnes Patterson; Mr. and Mrs. F. Patterson with Jane and Judy from Fruitland, and Misses Donna and Denise Alstat from Winnipeg.

The bride's mother wore a

News Item In New York Times

The Townships of King and Whitechurch were mentioned in a recent news item carried in the huge Sunday edition of the New York Times. The article referred to Mrs. William Morning of King who until a short time ago was Canada's only dynamite retailer. Following the sale of her farm both King and Whitechurch refused her a building permit for a new storehouse for the explosives. Mrs. Morning had been in the dynamite business for 33 years.

The New York Times article made one error when it referred to Whitechurch as Whitechurch.

Guide News

The 1st Lake Wilcox Guides had their fly-up ceremony on May 27th, at Lake Wilcox School, and four Brownies have now entered the Guides. Sandra Charuk and Noreen Hall flew up to Guides and Bonnie Wayne and Pat Greavette walked up. The girls had obtained all possible badges from Brownies. Mrs. June Cartner, guide commissioner and the ceremony, along with the Brownies and Guides.

Two films, pertaining to animal life, were shown by a representative from the Department of Lands and Forests. The Lake Wilcox Guides now have a membership of thirty girls.

On June 16th, the Brownies and Guides will form up for a church parade, and will go to St. Paul's United Church.

Winners of prizes for most boxes of cookies sold in the recent campaign for the Lake Wilcox Brownies were: Shirley Ransom, 1st, 41 boxes sold; Carol Collins, 2nd, 27 boxes sold; Judy Peters, 3rd, 24 boxes sold.

Warning To All Swimmers

As this is the beginning of the swimming season many of the youngsters have ventured in for a swim, but some parts of the shoreline have not been cleaned out yet, after the winter. Eleven-year-old, Bonnie Wayne while swimming last week-end suffered cuts to her hand and foot by broken glass.

Tommy Post has his arm in a cast. He received a fracture when he fell recently.

This is not a fish story, as pictures have been taken of the 18 1/2 pound, 42 inch long Pike that was caught by Joe Barton, South Road, in Lake Wilcox on May 29th. It had an eighteen inch girth. Congratulations, Joe.

Corpus Christi Scene Of Colourful Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Campbell were in Toronto for the wedding of their niece, Miss Edith Ann Russell and Mr. Robert Graham Walker. At the morning ceremony in Corpus Christi Church Mr. Campbell gave the bride in marriage, since her father, Mr. John Russell of Hamiota, Manitoba, was ill and unable to be present.

Mrs. Russell flew from Winnipeg for her daughter's wedding. The bride wore a hooped white gown of nylon embossed with flowers. A crown of seed pearls held her shoulder veil of tulle illusion. With her bouquet of roses, shasta daisies, pom pom 'mums and white stocks, she carried a good luck heirloom handkerchief of Italian lace, the gift of her mother-in-law.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Hare, attended the bride, wearing a pale aqua organza street-length dress with matching head bandeau and bouquet of orange ice carnations.

The bride's mother was in broadened Italian silk of robin's egg blue with small matching hat and white gardenia corsage. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker of Toronto, were present, Mrs. Walker wearing a smart beige suit with small matching hat, beige accessories, and corsage of roses.

Mrs. Campbell wore a navy taffeta dress with navy hat and corsage of pink and yellow roses.

Following the double-ring ceremony, a reception for 25 guests was held at Castle George Hotel. At the bridal table in the dining room, the three-tiered wedding cake made by the bride's mother centred the head table's mauve satin cloth. Telegrams were read from six western relatives unable to attend.

The bridal couple left by car for Manitoba to visit the bride's relatives. For travelling she had chosen a beige suit with brown hat and accessories and gardenia corsage. A family dinner party, trousseau tea and community shower were planned for their arrival in Hamilton.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Walker will be living in Kingston Road Manor Apartments. The groom is a TTC bus driver. Since moving to Toronto from Manitoba three years ago, the bride has been a policeman on the Metro force. An only daughter, she chose a police career, from which profession her father is retired.

Asian Art For Banquet

After studying East Asia this term, King City United Church C.G.I.T. girls used an Asian theme in their decorations for the mother and daughter banquet.

The annual event held by C.G.I.T. and Explorers in the church hall was attended by 76 mothers and daughters.

Colorful streamers, full-size Asian costumes and Chinese and Korean dolls were displayed. Table favours were little paper lanterns and parasols.

Seated at the head table were the guest speaker, Miss Margaret Vannest of Port Credit, an English teacher who assists provincial and national C.G.I.T. committees; Rev. and Mrs. Martin Jenkinson; President Miss Lynn Scott with Mrs. Laurence Scott; past leaders Mrs. Don Hutchinson, Mrs. John Kell and Mrs. Art Rossiter; and President of the United Church Women, Mrs. Don Hadwen.

Leaders Mrs. Alan Henderson and Miss Beth Gellatly presented white carnation corsages to graduating C.G.I.T. members, Lynn and Lee Scott, Sharon Smith, Jane Abrahams, Sheila Gellatly, Rosemary Davidson and Diane Wallace.

Leaders of the Explorers, Mrs. Martin Jenkinson and Mrs. Donald Butler, presented red carnations to junior members, Laurie Orr, Jackie Wood, Susan Scott, Delinda Paton, Muriel Adams, Denise Hall, Donna McKendry and Anne Heaslip.

Between courses served by the United Church Women, Miss Abrahams led the guests in singing.

Graduating C.G.I.T. members will receive diplomas at the Vesper service before Christmas.
