(Continued From Page 1) display facilities as well as the display itself was the best he had seen, adding "even at the Exhibition."

The second parade in a week in the town in honour of the show featured the rose queen and her princesses, the Hill-toppers and the majorettes, the Blue Notes from Pickering, and the Army Service Corps Band. The latter organization was a real crowd pleaser, playing the popular Christmas carol, "The Drummer Boy", for marching.

Some disappointment was expressed at the size of the parade when $350 in prizes and three trophies went unclaimed, but show organizers agreed the shortness of time in preparation plus a competing in St. Catharines were contributing factors.

one helped himself to a bouquet from the attractive entrance arbour Saturday.

The society had a man standing by at Malton Airport to receive any air entries; one was flown in from Vancouver, but Mr. Boyd said weather conditions further east and west may have limited the entries from outside provinces.

A total of 57 movie cameras taking photographs of the impressive displays in the high school were counted.

Richmond Hill police force was congratulated on their "terrific co-operation". There were no parking problems.

Morley Beynon was standing by Saturday morning to draw show cards for late entries and correct any spelling.

At the auction following the judging, Bob Edean bid $6 for a bouquet of roses and then presented them to Rose Princess Debby McConkey. Auctioneer was Harold Mills. Most of the arrangements were auctioned off and all proceeds, total of which will be announced next week, will be given to York Central Hospital.

Show Sidelights

Overheard was a comment that Rose Queen Donna should have been in a formal gown for her appearance, but all agreed the petite blond and her princesses looked cool and beautiful in shorts.

Chairman and nurseryman Harold Mills was on hand until midnight Friday with the Chamber of Commerce, horticultural and nursery people setting up the show and returned at 3 a.m. to spray and water the arrangements and bouquets so they could present their most sparkling best Saturday.

There was one case of "snitching" reported. Some-

He also stressed the safety element and the amount of dust caused by cars on Bayview. He claimed the volume of traffic using Bayview approaches 10,000 cars per day, far in excess of the capacity of a dirt road.

Deputy reeve Charles Hooper, who presided over the council meeting in the absence of Reeve Wilfred Dean, stated that he would do all in his power to help speed things up. He promised the delegation that he would phone the Toronto & York Roads Commission and seek to arrange a meeting with them and with representatives of Richmond Hill to discuss the matter and seek to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion.

Senator H. A. Willis, representing Stephen Roman of Romadale Farms, a large taxpayer in the township and a leading Roman Catholic layman reported that his client supported the request.

Commenting on a request from Our Lady Queen of the World Parish for the immediate paving of the mile and a quarter of Bayview Avenue, between Markham Road and Elgin Mills Sideroad, Mayor William Neal told "The Liberal" it is unfortunate that Bayview Avenue has been used as a political football for years.

Richmond Hill's 1963 council and mayor, he reports, have put forth a lot of effort and brought a lot of pressure to bear to have the road assumed by the county. This is the first step necessary to the ultimate paving of the road by the Toronto and York Roads Commission.

"Town council will use every effort to see that this paving will not be too long delayed," he concluded.

A meeting between Toronto and York Roads Commission and representatives of Richmond Hill and Markham Township is being arranged to seek a satisfactory early solution to the problem.

Chairman M. Trussler of the Richmond Hill Separate School Board stressed the safety factor for school children who must cross and recross Bayview. President Jim McArthur of the Holy Name Society also spoke in favor of the brief.

In departing Father Robinson wished the township's county representatives luck in their search for a solution of this problem.

Among the 700 entries, which were triple the number at the society's show in 1962, was an entry by Mr. Geoffrey Nash of Richmond Hill, who won the Baines Memorial Trophy for his open class white roses entry, and was runner-up for the best rose in the show.

Mr. Boyd also thanked the high school staff for its help in the show when "no problem was too hard to handle."

He said it is hoped Richmond Hill will have a rose week every year whether or not the national show is held here.

Shownotes

The late Mrs. Allen Baines was the founder of the Canadian Rose Society from its inception in 1913. It was organized by a small group of people who had vision and shared a common interest in rose growing. It has steadily grown and the society's status widened until it became national in character and incorporated under a federal charter.

Since its beginning, the objective of the society has remained the same—to develop knowledge of the rose and rose growing and to improve and extend its cultivation. Horticultural and rose societies from coast to coast are affiliated with the society.

The society itself is made up of people of all walks of life. In the case of the show, no commercial grower was allowed to exhibit in the prize classes. These were restricted to strictly amateur growing.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church begins its summer schedule Sunday, advancing the worship service to 10 a.m.

The schedule is effective until September 8. Sunday school classes will be held during the worship hour, except on the "long weekends" of June 30, August 4 and September 1.

The congregation meets in Walter Scott School on Markham Rd. Construction of its new church on Bayview Avenue is expected within a year.

In a letter to all members of the congregation, Pastor Albert E. Myers stressed the need for regular worship throughout the summer season.

"We dare not take a holiday from God. Even our education of children for Him must continue all year round," he said.

Sunday school classes will be offered all summer for children aged three years through grade six. On the "long weekends" special children's sermons will be featured in the worship service.

The first of these children's sermons will be given Sunday during the 10 a.m. service.

Members and friends of the congregation numbering 106, enjoyed an outdoor worship service and picnic June 16 at Humber Trails park. Last Sunday the congregation's cub pack held a family picnic at the same park to close its activities for the summer.

The congregation is sharing sponsorship of the east Richmond Hill vacation bible school, beginning next Tuesday at 9 a.m.

The school opens Tuesday at 9 a.m. Sessions will be held each weekday, 9-11:30 a.m., through July 12, in St. Matthew's United Church, Crosby Ave.

Children 4-11 years old are invited to attend, regardless of church affiliation. The curriculum is Bible-based and Christ-centred.

A closing programme for parents and friends will be held on Friday, July 12, 7-8 p.m.

Mrs. J. Lowens is director of the 1963 school. Enrollment will be 50 cents per pupil.

Sponsoring congregations are St. Matthew's, St. Gabriel's Anglican, St. John's Baptist and St. Paul's Lutheran Churches.

The co-operative sponsorship of the school has been hailed as a sign of increasing unity among the local protestant congregations.

Place Second

A Richmond Hill rink won second prize for three wins Saturday at the Lawrence Park Lawn Bowling Club. Members of the rink were Mrs. Pat Scott, Harold Loudon, Mrs. Jessie Grainger, and Russell Lynett, skip.

The local rink of Barry Brent, Ed Lane, R. Lynett and J. Grainger, skip, won the district rinks at the local greens on Monday, June 24. They are now awaiting results of the northern section playoff when they will go to Belleville for the semi-district playoff.

On Monday, July 1, mixed trebles will compete at the local green for the Savage Trophy.

DISTRIBUTION OF 1963 TAX DOLLAR

The accompanying graph shows the distribution of the Richmond Hill taxpayer's dollar. The main problem in stretching the tax dollar becomes apparent on studying the graph. It is to provide the necessary services, other than education, on a 42.6 cent share of each dollar.

This year's council has attempted to hold the line as far as expenditures under its direct control are concerned and has succeeded in reducing this part of the tax levy from last year, while maintaining all necessary services.

All departmental budgets were thoroughly scrutinized to make sure any cutbacks would not affect the standards of services. This policy resulted in a reassessment of some programmes, but all concerned exhibited an excellent spirit of co-operation.
