King City Notes

The 36th reunion of the Campbell family in Nobleton Park was attended by 85 people. The annual gathering was welcomed by Mr. Aubrey Campbell, substituting for the President, Mr. Ray Love, who was absent recovering from mumps.

An active sports program, including a contest for sewing patches, was in charge of Mrs. Allan Crossley, Mrs. Bruce McDaniel, Mr. Alex Campbell and Mr. Harry Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell came the farthest distance, from Wyoming, Ontario, where the family branches hope to hold next year's reunion.

Mr. Campbell was elected president and Mr. William Downey of Bolton, vice-president. Mrs. Earl Campbell of Kinghorn was again named secretary.

Mr. Parsons of Weston was the eldest clan representative at 88 years. The youngest was six-weeks-old Paul McCutcheon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don McCutcheon of Schomberg and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gould of Schomberg.

Among those attending the picnic supper were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Campbell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brooks of King City, Mrs. Archie Campbell, Mrs. Ray Love and family and Mrs. Burwell Jackson and family, from Kinghorn; Mr. and Mrs. William Downey and family of Bolton; Mr. and Mrs. Don Snider, Islington; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell and family from Toronto.

Mrs. William Thompson, the former Hazel McBride, underwent surgery last week at Women's College Hospital and is convalescing in room 515.

Her sister, Mrs. Pearl Wilson, is progressing favorably at York County Hospital after her foot operation early in May.

Field Day July 1. Mr. Ross Farquhar is chairman for the annual field day to be held by King City Lions' Club July 1 in King Memorial Park.

Among the attractions will be a men's softball tournament, lucky draws, games, bingo, pony rides and evening dancing.

Mr. Ray Love is in charge of advertising. Mr. A. George Cusdin, lay minister for the three Baptist churches in the King circuit, is recuperating at York County Hospital from a severe heart attack June 5 and has been able to be released from an oxygen tent. Mrs. Merton Wells of Eversley has been convalescing after an operation last week at York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Laskay WI Crafts. An interesting program of crafts featured the June meeting of Laskay Women's Institute at the hall.

Crafts were demonstrated as several members loaned and described family treasures during the program convened by Miss Marjorie McMurchy, Mrs. Charles Hatley, president, and Mrs. George Forester assisted.

Miss Beth Gellatly loaned the names quilt made nearly 30 years ago by Laskay young people. Several of the embroidered names had since changed to married ones and a few were of past residents.

Mrs. Pearson Smeltzer brought an attractive log cabin quilt made by an aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Keffer. Mrs. Smeltzer showed a woven wool blanket made by her grandmother, who was born in 1844. The wool was from sheep on the family farm and had been spun and dyed for the well-preserved blanket.

She brought a sampler, also made by her grandmother, the alphabet sewn on beige linen with a wooden backing.

Mrs. Smeltzer described her own making of an attractive white and green candlewick bedspread.

Mrs. George Forester brought several pieces of aluminum ware and outlined her hobby. Mrs. Norman Etheridge showed four of the stair pads she is hooking in a four season's pattern. The trends were shaped to fit the turn of the stairs. A fireplace design was the appropriate pattern on the hooked log carrier with brass knobs on the wooden handles.

Several items of modern weaving and crocheted mats were the contribution of Mrs. Norman MacMurchy.

Mrs. Frank Buddin made a crocheted cover for a vase suitable for holding bath salts.

Mrs. Walter Monkman brought pillow cases trimmed with crocheted and knitted lace, and a large round lace table centre made by her late sister-in-law, Miss Jessie Monkman.

Miss McMurchy exhibited samples of crocheting and tating and two hooked rugs made by her late aunt, Miss Kate McMurchy. Mrs. Charles Black loaned a crocheted rug and showed how it had been fashioned with a long wooden hook.

Mrs. Ross Folliott brought a "somerset" workbook used by her grandfather, Edward Marshall, when he was 14. Born in 1845, he had left his family the schoolbook showing his fine writing and neat penmanship.

Mrs. Folliott had a few business bills addressed to her great grandfather, Christopher Marshall, from an Aurora firm, Wells and Macchell's. Dated 1846 to 1850, the general store bills were figured in pounds, shillings and pence, the numerous items of merchandise indicating family trips made to Aurora were infrequent.

Mrs. Charles Hatley displayed a quilt sewn from velvet pieces and a star quilt.

Mrs. Earle Scott's presentation of current events dealt with the threat of lung cancer from smoking.

Mrs. W. H. Bartlett and her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Yanko, of Hamilton were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. Arthur Wellesley.

Bible Presented. At the first Sunday school picnic held in several years, 150 members of King City United Church congregation enjoyed an outing at Humber Trails.

On behalf of the Sunday school, Rev. Martin Jenkinson presented to Mr. Laurence Scott, superintendent for the past ten years, a black leather-bound Bible with the recipient's name lettered in gold. Mr. Scott offered to help in any way the new superintendent, Mr. Glen Ferguson. Mr. Jack Parsons remains assistant superintendent.

Prizes were presented for games and races, each teacher organizing a class program. Regular Sunday classes for the children ended last Sunday until after the holidays.

UXBRIDGE: On June 23, the little frame Quaker Hill Church west of Uxbridge marked its 154th anniversary with a 2:30 p.m. service. Regular services were suspended 39 years ago.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox

Joining the regular congregation of St. Paul's United Church at the Sunday morning service were 54 Guides, Brownies and leaders from the 1st Oak Ridges and 1st Lake Wilcox Guides and Brownies, when after assembling at the forks of the South Road they marched to the church for their annual church parade. Rev. G. Winch conducted the service, with Mrs. E. Good, Guide Captains, giving the responsive lesson and Maja Fluhbacher, a Guide reading the Scripture. Color bearers were Jennifer Hopkins and Catherine Hayward.

CHRISTENING. During the service, two of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Wildwood Ave., were christened. The godparents for Bonnie Lynn and William Kenneth Robert, were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shand and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingles. Rev. and Mrs. Winch, the godparents, and a few friends returned to the Robinson home for refreshments.

Cancer Society. Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox branch of the Canadian Cancer Society met at the Ridge Inn for its annual election of officers and for the 1963-64 season this is the new and returning members:

President, Mrs. E. Bunn, vice-president, Mrs. D. Smith; secretary, Miss M. Tinkler; treasurer, Mr. Thompson; women's services, Mrs. G. Day; educational convener, Mrs. D. Smith; publicity, Mrs. Peers; dressings, Mrs. Wm. Haanpa; nominating committee, Mrs. D. Deller; gift cupboard, Mrs. D. A. McBurney; transportation, Mrs. A. Hutchinson.

Mrs. Donald Findlay, King City, was chairman for the above meeting, and special thanks were given to Mrs. G. Winch, who was campaign manager in the recent cancer canvass, and Mrs. S. Duffield for their untiring efforts while executive members, and also to Mrs. Grant McCachen for once again making the Ridge Inn available for cancer meetings and activities. Mrs. D. Deller was welcomed back to the executive, after having moved away from the community.

Mrs. Doris Smith, attended the Regency Acres School recently with the now famous film "To Smoke or Not To Smoke" shown for the benefit of grades seven and eight pupils. The quota given was $1,000 on the recent campaign, and this district has gone over the top by $44 according to the last amount given.

Lions Club. July 12 and 13 are the dates set for the annual carnival to be held by the Oak Ridges Lions Club. Members have been very busy planning this event held Friday evening and all day Saturday at the park on the King Sideroad. Several rides and games have been planned for along with the inevitable hot dogs, candy apples, floss candy and all the other things that go to make a carnival a success.

Mrs. Sue Andrews, Elm Grove Avenue, Oak Ridges was winner of the suit-of-the-month with ticket number 190 and Bruce Stewart was seller of the winning ticket.

Attending the international convention held at Cornwall were delegates from the local Lions, Norm Purdy and David Carruthers.

Lake Wilcox School News. Graduation exercises for Lake Wilcox School will be held June 28, at 8 p.m. and the track and field day was on June 25.

Mr. John Shearer and his grade eight pupils boarded a bus at the school and spent a wonderful day at the Springwater Provincial Park at Midhurst on June 13. They toured the park looking at the many animals and fish and the great variety of shrubs and flowers. A picnic lunch was enjoyed with toasted "weenies" etc. Mrs. Freda Munroe accompanied the class on their day out.

The class of Mrs. Gervais also enjoyed a day out on the same day when they visited the farm of Mr. Burnett and saw the farm animals and activities, and they also enjoyed a picnic lunch.

Church Activities. A very successful garden party and tea was held at St. Mark's Anglican Church June 19 on the church grounds and inside. All members of the W.A. were present and working on the various jobs to be done. Mrs. Kay Nash, president of the W.A. was hostess and greeted the guests. Mrs. Irene Rickward, as social convener, headed the tea tables and was helped by Mrs. Sarah Hinson, and Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Milner and Mrs. Simper. Mrs. Frank Nield poured tea, and fancy sandwiches and cookies were served, by Mrs. Len Hopkins and Mrs. L. Sayers. The bake table was looked after by Mrs. Wooley, Sr., and helped by Mrs. Appleton. Although there was a good variety of baked goods, the table was sold out very early.

There was a stall on the lawn selling fancy goods aprons and children's sunsuits etc., and all the tables were decorated with cut flowers, peonies, irises, with all the colours of the beautiful in-season flowers.

Some of the guests attending this affair were Rev. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. C. A. Snively and Rev. and Mrs. Spears of Aurora.

A good time was had by all at the St. Mark's Sunday School picnic held recently on the church grounds, with a variety of games and activities. Refreshments were served inside, with hot dogs being the main topic.

On June 18 at St. John's Anglican Church, Jefferson, 16 boys and girls from St. Mark's and St. John's Anglican churches were confirmed. Rt. Rev. G. B. Snell, coadjutor Bishop of Toronto officiated at the ceremony.

A reception was held in the hall following the service with friends and relatives attending, along with those participating in the confirmation service.

About People. A birthday party was held for Marilyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oxley, at her home on the occasion of her 15th birthday June 11. The party was held June 15 and was attended by several of her friends, Carol Fullerton and Jim Bradley; Paulette Forget and Gary Greavette; Susie Hitchcock and Garnet Cragg; Peggy Follett and Ron Lahey; Francis Lynne and Eddie Flint; Jurgen Luebke were guests and started the party outside with games. They moved inside to the recreation room for music, dancing and refreshments and Marilyn was presented with gifts and a hair-dryer was given to her by her parents.

Birthday wishes are extended to Sharon Shaw, June 15; Kenneth Bourassa, June 16; Mrs. Shirley Bourassa, June 17; Raymond Warden; and Warren Woods, who was seven years old recently.

Anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. M. Szeler, who celebrated their 21st anniversary June 27.

Best of luck to Fred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnsdale, who left June 18 for Camp Petawawa and a tour of army service.

Fred Simpkins is now wearing a cast on his arm, and Mr. John Wayne, North Rd., is hobbling around after severing some toes while running a power mower at work.

So sorry to hear about Jerry Lahey entering Toronto General Hospital last Thursday.

The Burts of Wildwood Ave. are really flying these days with George Burt, piloting his own plane and wife Connie and daughter Sharon enjoying the many trips. Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Burt went to Oshawa, with a breakfast flight when about 300 planes from all over, met for a breakfast of bacon, eggs, toast and coffee. About 1,000 people enjoyed the meal.

Congratulations, although a little late to Mr. and Mrs. Don Hodgson, South Road, on the arrival of Nancy, a sister for Richard, Dianne, Douglas and Janet.

Cathie LeBlanc is now at home after her recent tonsillectomy.

Grades six and seven had a busy day last Thursday when they visited the marine exhibition at the exhibition grounds, Toronto. About 65 pupils crowded into two chartered buses, accompanied by their teachers, Mr. Sparham and Mr. Williams. After a tour of the exhibition, they visited High Park where they had their lunch and proceeded on a tour of Fort York Armouries at 2 p.m. The buses returned to the school grounds and we are glad to report that they all had a very happy day, without accident.

More Volunteers. More volunteers are needed for the summer recreation school held daily Monday to Friday at the grounds next to Lake Wilcox school for the summer months. Some mothers are going to supervise, but more volunteers are needed to supervise baseball, hikes, swimming. If you are interested in giving a few of your hours for this worthwhile cause, you may get in touch with me at the above number.

The Oak Ridges Senior girls have won both their games played against Nobleton last week with a score of 13-5, Monday at Nobleton and 15-4, Wednesday at Oak Ridges. Juniors won their game, 7-1 against Maple.

AURORA: Aurora Waterworks Foreman Joe McGhee resigned last week after 14 years employment with the town giving as his reasons "lack of interest and confidence on the part of council". Mr. McGhee said "there were too many chiefs and no Indians" referring to the waterworks department which he said had not grown as the town did.
