

Rose Show Attracts Crowd Of 3,000

Winning rose in the Canadian Rose Society's annual show held Saturday in Richmond Hill is sniffed by Fran Watkins (left), lady-in-waiting to the Rose Queen. Entry was that of Allen Stollery of Toronto, widely-known haberdasher. (Centre) More than 3,000 attended the rose show and watched the 2:00 p.m. parade before official opening (right) by Richmond Hill Mayor William Neal, who invited the Society back next year and, if possible, during the 1967 centennial.

Aurora's 100th Birthday A Week Of Fun, Games

All roads lead to Aurora this weekend and all next week as Richmond Hill's next door neighbour celebrates her 100th birthday.

On Sunday, John Addison MP York North will officially open the activities following a drumhead service; there will be an aerial acrobatic display by the RCAF's Red Knight and an evening band concert.

On exhibition all week will be Astronaut Scott Carpenter's "Aurora 7" space capsule at the town arena.

Monday's events include an amateur golf tournament at Highlands Golf Club, a children's parade and sports programme in the park, a marching bands display, choosing of an Aurora Princess and an open air dance.

On Tuesday, there'll be an aquatic sports day at the swimming pool, lawn bowling and tennis at McMahon Park, a rugger game in the town park and a sing-song and variety concert at the band shell.

Wednesday, the day will include ladies lawn bowling, town tours, sports events, dedication ceremonies at the Aurora Tennis Club and a Lions Club youth dance at the band shell.

On Thursday, there will be an industrial open house, sports events in the park, junior and senior square dance competition at the band shell and an old-fashioned hoe-down to round off the evening.

Friday plans call for sports events in the park, official opening of the new centennial library, a huge chicken barbecue and fish fry from 6 to 10.30 p.m. in the park, the Rotary's variety show at the band shell, judging of the beard growing contest and crowning of the Chicken Queen.

There will be lawn bowling Saturday as well as a mammoth Junior Chamber of Commerce parade, softball tournament, soccer game in old-fashioned dress, a free open air dance in the park and to climax the fun, a fireworks display. A special steam train will arrive from Toronto.

Special church services will be held Sunday and the County Orange Church parade will feature the girls' pipe band from Belfast, Ireland. A centennial garden party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry and closing ceremonies will be held at the band shell.

In the event of rain, the centennial organizers will hold all events in the Aurora Arena.

Mother, Daughter Banquet
On June 20, the Guides of the 1st Gormley Guide Company, and the Brownies of the 1st Gormley Brownie Pack held their annual Mother and Daughter Banquet in the McMillan United Church.

A lovely turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served by the ladies of the church.

Mrs. Gundy, district commissioner, gave a toast to the Queen, Susan Sherwood, toast of the mothers and Mrs. M. Watson replied. Mrs. Joyce Miller thanked the ladies of the church for the wonderful job they had done in preparing and serving the dinner.

After dinner Mrs. Lois Miller gave a short speech and told the mothers how they could help their girls by attending local association meetings every second month.

The leaders were introduced to the mothers, Mrs. N. A. Johnston, Guide captain; Mrs. F. Hornby and Mrs. J. Bann, lieutenants; Mrs. B. Hardie, Brown Owl, and Mrs. V. Varden, retiring Tawny Owl. A gift was presented to Mrs. Varden from the local association as a small token of thanks for a job well done. New Tawny Owl is Mrs. B. Johnston.

Mrs. Gundy then said a few words after which she presented the Brownies who had flown into Guides with their wings. Four second class badges were presented to Guides Donna and Dale Reid, Donna Otter and Sharon Byer. Linda McClevery won her little house emblem, and Doreen Seabrooke, Donna Otter and Sharon Byer also won their child care badges. These badges will be presented to the girls at a later date as they did not arrive in time for the banquet.

Janet Varley received the "Gold Guide Pin", after being voted the best all round Guide by the company. Robyn Macdonald won a prize for selling the most cookies (70 boxes). Margaret Sandie was to receive a prize for selling the second highest (68 boxes) unfortunately she was not in attendance.

Mr. Cowie of Victoria Square came and showed the film, "The Guide Log". This film gave everyone some very good ideas of the game of guiding and was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Gundy thanked Mr. Cowie for taking his time to show the film.

Mrs. B. Hardie, Brown Owl, wished everyone good-night, and this brought the banquet to a close for another season of guiding.

Church News
This Sunday at 11.30 a.m. there will be a "ceremony of dedication to missions". The children and youth groups of the church will share the highlights of their mission study and present their groups contribution to the missionary and maintenance fund. Messengers, Tyros, Explorers and C.G.I.T. members will present their offerings. (They are asked to please wear their uniforms). The sacrament of baptism will also be administered.

Field Day
About 500 children, parents, teachers, school trustees and Lions attended the first Track and Field Day of School Area 3, held June 21 in Victoria Square Community Centre Park. This was a co-operative effort of the Victoria Square District Lions Club and school trustees.

The afternoon was almost too short for all events, each of which attracted keen competition in all age groups, broad jumps, dashes, standing broad jumps, high jumps and relay races.

The children consumed gallons of soft drinks, and milk, hundreds of dixie-cups of ice cream, pounds of biscuits, and bags of popcorn.

Safety films by the Ontario Department of Transport and Walt Disney cartoons provided a change for the smaller children from the hustle and bustle of the competition.

At the end of the day, ribbons were awarded to the first, second and third winners in each event. The junior boy champion, Philip Johnson; junior girl champion, Marilyn Musselman; senior boy champion, John Lake; senior girl champion, Barbara Harrison. These champions were each awarded a trophy.

S.S. 5 Buttonville won the plaque which is up for the annual competition, by gaining 166 points against the runner-up, S.S. 4, which gained 160 points.
