FLECK AND KEFFER REALTOR

Recent Dust Lay $2000 Project

(Continued From Page 1) county but he estimated it would be a $200,000 project. Bayview Avenue from Markham Road to Elgin Mills was graded and dust-layered last week by the Toronto and York Roads Commission.

County Roads Engineer Jack Rennie said, "We are embarrassed at how little we are doing on Bayview but we are doing the best we can with the money we have."

The job is an approximately $2,000 one and is part of the regular commission maintenance program. Mr. Rennie said he didn't know how long the dust layer surface would stand up under the heavy Bayview traffic and said it would probably be spread again later in the summer.

Mr. John Quinn, assisted by Mr. Paul Farmer took his boys' Sunday school class for a week end campout near Minden.

Mr. John Farquharson attended the funeral of his friend, Mr. George Johnson at Bremerton, Washington, last week.

The detour on Don Mills Road is sending a great deal of traffic to the Third and Fifth Concessions. People are lamenting the slaughter of the beautiful trees along the roadside.

Mr. Wes Hoover of Toronto spent the week-end with relatives here.

At the Sunday school picnic Thursday evening Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Hunking were presented with a beautiful oil painting.

Rev. S. S. Shantz of Preston spoke Sunday morning at the United Missionary Church and Rev. Ed Chester of Brampton Sunday evening at the Hunking family are enjoying a few weeks' holiday.

Mr. J. C. McKendry vacated her house over the week-end and is staying with Miss Vera Hills for a couple of weeks.

The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen of Revelstoke, B.C. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Groves are enjoying a camping trip to Sibbald's Point, Lake Simcoe over the week-end.

The children are out of school with two months of freedom. For a number of the local teachers it was the beginning of summer school on Tuesday.

The last meeting of the season of the G.H.V.S. York Central Hospital Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. R. N. Bell. Nineteen members and one guest were present. The president, Mrs. R. G. Britnell reported progress in all branches. Mrs. John McCague was appointed handicraft convener with Mrs. Geo. Joyce as her assistant.
