Horticultural Meeting Features Iris, Speaker

The recent meeting of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society was noteworthy for two things.

First there was the first show of the newly-formed Toronto Area Regional Group of the Canadian Iris Society held in conjunction with the local iris show. There was an excellent showing of bloom and color by the iris group which was judged by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Richardson of Hamilton, and Mrs. W. H. Harris of the East York Horticultural Society. These judges also judged the local entries.

Winners of the iris group points were R. D. Little, Mr. Caulfield and Mrs. Freeman Barker.

Winners of the local society's prizes were D. Boyd, Mrs. G. Barker, Miss Stong and Billy Redelmeier.

The second event that contributed so much to a fine meeting was a splendid presentation of the story of the Royal Botanical Garden, Hamilton in word and colored slides by Leslie Laking, director of that beautiful area.

How this garden has developed from an old quarry and gravel pit is a fascinating story. Mr. Laking emphasized the point that the gardens are much more than simply a beauty spot. They have an educational aspect as well as showing the best varieties of shrubs, flowers and trees that may be grown in the region. There is also a section for juniors where young people learn how to plan, plant and care for various types of gardens. There were numerous ideas for home gardeners, such as seeding Michaelmas daisies in the tulip bed, and the color slides were simply gorgeous. Mr. Laking was introduced by R. D. Little and thanked by B. J. Smith. An excellent turn-out enjoyed this meeting.

given by Mrs. Donaldson, principal. Barbara Empringham gave the valedictory address. Dawn Tatton gave a toast to the members for preparing the meal and to the school board. Mrs. L. Hart and Mr. Harold Hill replied.

Mrs. Donaldson announced that all the grade 8's had passed to high school and presented the graduates with their certificates.
