gone too far to become a political football nor should it be allowed to do so. It's too important an issue.
Mayor Neal, Councillors Scudis and Campbell have a real chore ahead of them. They've got to weigh the pros and cons of an indoor versus an outdoor pool. Weigh it in two ways. As a financial expenditure and from the standpoint of actual usage, it won't be an easy task. They are empowered by the motion that formed the committee to add other members to the board and, no doubt, they'll do just that. They're going to need all the help they can get to get some concrete proposals by September which was the date promised by Walter Scudis.

And so, gentlemen, you'd better get cracking, as they say in Newcastle. In times past you've been impertuned to get rid of water collected in large pools, now you're being urged to arrange a place to store it. In large pure quantities suitable for the immersion of assorted shapes and sizes of human bodies.

It's no joke that citizens of a town of this size have to go to smaller communities, hats in hand, to beg or borrow the use of their facilities. Almost like Toronto asking Hamilton to lend Civic Stadium! There comes a time when the facilities in these other centres are taxed to capacity and beyond by our citizens and they have to say no to protect the interests of their own people. Not a gay situation for anyone.

One thing's for absolutely certain. In September a lot of people are going to want a definite plan presented by the committee. If such a plan isn't ready then look out for squalls - it could be a rough autumn on the political seas!

The delegation left the meeting on a high note. One delegate averred that Reeve Perkins has had a long and varied political career. A career which, he said, may be nearing the end of the trail. Wouldn't it be fitting he said to go out from the political scene in a blaze of glory as one of the prime movers in getting a swimming pool for Richmond Hill. Amid general laughter someone remarked that if the blaze got out of control it could always be doused in the new pool. And a lot of us say Amen to that sentiment! It couldn't happen to a nicer or more deserving group!

Neighbourhood Notes
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart and their children are on a motor trip to Flin Flon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Norton of 80 Hughson Drive have a new baby in their family. Now the score is evened up, with two boys and two girls.

It seldom happens that the haying season comes and goes without a drop of rain, but it seems to be the case this year. There are a few fields still to clean up. But for most farmers the work is well on the way, and a lush crop it is.

Strawberries are few and far between in this neighbourhood. But last week several local people went to the Whitmore farm at Cedar Grove to pick their own. Those who arrived at 7:30 a.m. found 100 pickers already in the patch, and before they left 100 more had arrived.

George and Joan Hooper and their children spent last week cottaging with Joan's sister and her family. David, who recently underwent surgery for appendicitis is doing nicely we are told.

Last week Mr. Frank Williams' death brought both shock and grief to his friends in the neighbourhood. A gentle, friendly man, his many practical kindnesses will long be remembered by those who were privileged to know him.

The Tim Patersons, Mill Shermans and Aubrey Stephenson spent last week-end holidaying together.

Sunday School Picnic at Musselman's
It is almost a tradition that the Brown's Corners Sunday school picnic is a chilly one, and this year was no exception.

There were perhaps 80 children and members of the congregation at Musselman's Lake for the picnic held Wednesday of last week, and following a picnic supper there were games and races.

Charles Turner, superintendent, Garnet Stewart and Bruce Armstrong were assisted by Gordon Brown and Danny Woods of the Hi-C's when races were run, and at the supper hour assistants were Mrs. Bob Hood, Mrs. Bill Hood, Mrs. Harold Steffler, Mrs. Edgar Fuller and Mrs. Norman Reid.

W.I. Picnic July 18
W.I. members will hold their annual picnic at the Gull Lake cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill, July 18.

Final plans for the outing were made Friday evening of last week when the women met to discuss several business matters.

Thursday, August 22, Music Day, the group will go by bus to the C.N.E.

A new floor will be laid at the Buttonville W.I. Community Hall this summer, and estimates were discussed with Mr. Charles Hooper, member of the hall board. It was finally agreed the contract should be let to W. A. Stephenson &

Langstaff School graduation banquet was held at the Parish Hall, Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Thornhill.

The national anthem was played on the piano by Bonnie Maston. Toast to the Queen was proposed by Janice Moran. Margaret Barr said the Grace and dinner was served by the ladies of Holy Trinity Church.

Mrs. Doherty of Langstaff Home and School Association introduced the guests at the head table and also the teaching staff. Guests included Ross Millife of Vaughan Township School Board; Mr. and Mrs. Walton C. Rose, and Mrs. Urquhart. James T. Barr introduced Mr. Rose as guest speaker and Michael Turpeny thanked him for coming to their graduation. Robert Wilson welcomed all parents present.

The programme included piano solos by Robert Wilson and Michael Turpeny and a skit by Robert Calladine, called the "Beachcomber".

Crests for scholarship and proficiency were presented to the two top grads in each grade.

Mrs. Hamilton's grade 5 Margaret Harper and Bill Doherty.

Mrs. Snider's grade 6: Paul Staddon and John Grainger. Mr. Coate's grade 6 & 7: Lynn Powell and Debby Harris.

Mr. Flander, grade 7: Bill Harper and Scott Joffile. Mr. Urquhart, grade 8: David Harris and Christine Staddon.

All graduates were presented with graduation pins by Mrs. Doherty and certificates donated by the school board were presented by Trustee Joffile.

The grade 8 class gave an excellent rendition of three selections. David Harris was the recipient of a cup and a book for academic scholarship presented to him by Mrs. Doherty. Mrs. Lloyd Morrison made the presentation to Christine Staddon for proficiency. This also was a cup and a book.

Mrs. Snider explained the McGuire award and named Michael Carter as the winner. David Harris then gave the valedictory address and two more skits followed.

Chris Sommerton thanked the ladies of the home and school association with special thanks to Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Carruthers.

Place cards for the evening were the work of grade 6 under the guidance of Mrs. Snider. The corsages worn by the graduating girls were made by Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Carruthers and Mrs. Doherty. They were in the school colours of red carnations tied with grey ribbons, the boys wore white mums as boutonnières.

Yong W.I.
Langstaff Young Women's Institute held their June meeting recently with the new president, Mrs. Ruby Manol in the chair.

This was the last meeting for the summer and 11 members answered the roll call - "A use for salt" - and a lot of interesting uses it has, too.

Convener Mrs. Shirley Morehouse was not able to attend the meeting so Mrs. Clare Willett introduced the guest speakers who showed movies on Jamaica. Guests were Mrs. Tucker and Aileen Howarth. Three members attended the district annual meeting at Richmond Hill recently. They were Mrs. Ruby Manol, Mrs. Claire Willett, and Mrs. Audrey Kupchenko. Mrs. Claire Willett read the report of the meeting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joyce Curtis and Mrs. Joan Suter.

The bowling party on June 22 was attended by 13 members and friends. Prize winners were Mrs. Ruby Manol, Mrs. Bob Suter, Joan Suter, and Jan Robin.

School News
The day before school closing was a party day for the children of all grades when children parties were held following the afternoon recess.

Pop and cookies were served to the children. For Mrs. Perry's grade 2 and 3 the mothers joined together in making this a special occasion as Mrs. Perry is transferring to Henderson Ave. School in the fall. A very lovely travel alarm clock was presented to her by Janet Evans and Russell Walker on behalf of the children and a hand painted pastel picture by Mrs. Lepkey on behalf of the home and school association.

Special thanks are extended to Mrs. R. Evans and Mrs. K. Stiver for organizing and planning this event.

Langstaff School
On June 28 the ladies of Langstaff Home and School Association entertained the teaching staff at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Doherty.

The departing teachers - Mr. Urquhart, Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Elliott, Mr. Coates, Mr. Fianda and Mr. Van Benell were all presented with a gift.

The best wishes of the pupils and parents are extended to the departing teachers for their future success and happiness.
