MR. & MRS. WILLIAM RICE

Honeymoon In Virginia Follows Hill Ceremony

A honeymoon in Virginia followed the June 21 wedding of Miss Marie Ann Hayes, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes of Richmond Hill, and William Alfred Rice, son of the late Jackson H. Rice and Mrs. A. B. Hindle, Richmond Hill.

The ceremony was held at Richmond Hill United Church with Rev. C. G. Higginson officiating.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. W. A. Dudgeon, the bride was radiant in a floor-sweeping gown of white organza embroidered in lace with long lace sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her full chapel veil was caught to a white pillbox headpiece and she carried a spray of orchids.

Miss Ann Ross of Evahill and Miss Rosemary Ross of Centre Street West are employed for the summer at Camp Hurontario, Parry Sound, Ontario.

Mrs. O. L. Wright, Wright Street, attended the 25th wedding anniversary of her son, Dr. A. J. Laverne Wright and Mrs. Wright in Parry Sound on June 25th.

Mrs. Martin Siegeman and daughter Robin from Montreal, former residents of the Hill, spent a few days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson, Altamira Road.

Colleagues of the Belfast Girls' Pipe Band who will be taking part in the July 13th Orange Walk in Toronto and in the open house on July 14th at the L.T.B. & O. home just north of town, shopped in Richmond Heights Centre on Saturday. Smiling Irish eyes were impressed by the local shopping facilities.

Because of the girls' inexperience with dollars and cents, Manager Tom Mills of Kresge's provided them with helpers, Mrs. Ann Newburg, Mrs. Peggy Chalklin, Mrs. Ellen Davis and Mrs. Jean Cone who came from England about six years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lotin of the Children's Fashion Shop, Richmond Heights Centre, have taken up residence in their new home, 245 Harrygan Crescent.

Mr. Lotin is enjoying living within walking distance from the store. Four-and-a-half year old Henry is looking forward to being able to walk to kindergarten classes at MacKillop School in September.

Richmond Hill Hilltoppers

Once again the Hilltoppers Drum Corps won creditable applause on Saturday last at the Aurora centennial parade. Many people watching were also present at Brampton on Dominion Day and remembered with pride that blistering heat of 96 degrees and winter uniforms did not prevent the Hilltoppers giving a prize winning performance. 25,000 people endured 96 degree weather as a 2 1/2 hour parade passed through five miles of Brampton streets in honour of Flower Festival week. Over 25 bands including the Richmond Hill Hilltoppers took part in this gigantic competitive parade including 500 majorettes and over 65 floats. The Hilltoppers placed fourth in the junior division with a mark of 72.5. The corps did exceedingly well competing with only 9 horns, 6 drums, and an 8 girl colour guard. This band representing Richmond Hill has a number of engagements throughout the summer. They have already filled six since June 19th, two of which were on June 29th.

Bravo Hilltoppers we are proud of you. Keep up the good work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Gass of Detroit, Michigan, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Postlethwaite, Paliser Crescent South, over the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Althen and children Isobel and William, are now in residence at 251 Harrygan Crescent.

Mr. Van Althen is with the Dept. of Lands and Forests in Maple.

Miss Maria Schano from near Frankfurt, Germany, is at present visiting at the home of Miss Lois Perkins, 110 Church Street.

The two girls met last summer while holidaying in Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Abbott, daughter Lesley and son Kevin, Harrison Crescent, left last week aboard the "Arcadian" to take up residence in England.

Mr. Abbott will be taking up a position as head sales manager of N.I.F.E. located just outside Birmingham.

Entertaining for Miss Marion J. Allen prior to her marriage last Saturday to Mr. J. Stewart McCowan at Royal York Road United Church, were Mr. and Mrs. Don Williamson, Elgin Mills Sideroad, who held a special reception and barbeque for the bride party, and on Sunday following the wedding, the groom's mother Mrs. Dugald McCowan served brunch for out of town relatives and friends of the groom at the Williamson's home.

Mrs. Madge Thomas, a former resident of Church Street, now residing at Jacksonville Beach, Florida, is finding the sunny south "casual, hospitable and relaxed - the ocean sparkling outside my door as I make my morning cuppa. This is the life!"

Mrs. Thomas's son David and wife Ruth are both enjoying their work, and granddaughter Carol-Ann loving the southern climate.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier entertained on Thursday last at a supper party for the staff and their families of Don Head Farms.

The party, held in the garden, was in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Art Cousins (formerly Miss Dawn Pike) and William Lekk and Miss Stella Feenstra, who were married on Saturday last in Streetsville United Church.

Time is getting close for Robin Derrick, 338 Browndale Cr., to leave Richmond Hill, to attend the 11th World Scout Jamboree in the tiny Greek village of Marathon - which gave its name to the Olympic endurance race.

Four hundred and thirty-two Canadian Scouts will be in attendance, including sons of Canadian service personnel serving in France and Germany. Thirty-four are going from Metro and Queen's Scout Robbin Derrick will be the sole representative of York-Summit district.

Robin is troop leader of the 1st Beverley Acres Troop, under Scoutmaster Norm Foster.

Robin and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Derrick will leave Richmond Hill July 25th, arriving in Montreal the next day. They will visit relatives in Ottawa and Carillon, Quebec on the way. On Saturday evening Robin will join his group of Scouts and will be transported to Greece by jet plane.

He will be gone a little more than three weeks, with 10 days spent at the jamboree and 10 days in touring, but no details of this are as yet available.

Royden and David Rabinowitch entertained at their Kerrybrook Drive home on Friday last at a farewell party for Richard Wilcox of Gornely, who will be leaving shortly for Halifax.

One of Richmond Hill's highly respected grand old men, Joseph Monkman, Bathurst Street, was a guest at the Browning reunion picnic held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee White in Lefroy.

Several parties have been held for Miss Gwynneth Stapley prior to her marriage to Charles Ettinger on July 20th at Richmond Hill United Church.

Mrs. Norma Greenfield held a shower at her Yongehurst Road home. Mrs. Dorothy Holder (aunt) was the hostess at a party at the bride's home on Baker Avenue, and Miss Stapley's fellow employees at the Dept. of Highways, Downsview, entertained at a miscellaneous shower.

Beep! Beep!

At the end of this week "Mr. Beep" - a talking car promoting safety (sponsored by the Ontario Safety League) will be visiting morning classes of summer school.

On Thursday he will be "talking" at the Town Park, Walter Scott and Crosby Heights Public Schools, and on Friday at Beverley Acres, MacKillop and Pleasantville.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday last, Karen Lee Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, 398 South Taylor Mills Drive, received the Sacrament of Baptism. She was also presented with a New Testament from the Sunday school.

A wiener roast was held recently for the safety patrols of Crosby Heights and Walter Scott Public Schools, at Bill Neal's farm in Whitechurch Township.

The party, sponsored by the Richmond Hill Civitan Club, was attended by 30 children who enjoyed a programme of games and organized activities under the direction of Constable Young, safety patrol officer of the Richmond Hill Police force.

Mr. R. E. Brocklehurst, one of the parents, supplied the wieners and Trailways of Canada, transportation.

White candelabra and tall standards of gladioli, carnations and stephanotis formed the setting in Royal York Road United Church, Toronto on July 6 at 4 p.m. for the marriage of Miss Marion J. Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Allen of 41 Princess Anne Crescent, Islington, and Mr. J. Stewart McCowan, son of Mrs. Dugald McCowan and the late Mr. McCowan of 165 Colbourne Avenue, Richmond Hill. Rev. J. R. Hord performed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Lakeshore Teachers College and is teaching in Etobicoke, and the groom graduated in industrial engineering this year from the University of Toronto.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride entered the church to the strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus played by Mr. Stanley Webb. During the ceremony Mr. Jim Lamond sang the Wedding Prayer and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride looked lovely in a white nylon sheath trimmed with Alencon lace re-embroidered with pearls with an over-skirt of taffeta and a chapel train. A fingertip illusion veil fell from a pearl coronet and she carried a semi-cascade of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis with ivy.

Miss Barbara Allen was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Jane Butler, Miss Janet McCowan, Mrs. David Duff, Mrs. Wm. Dunsmoor and Mrs. Bruce Jackson were the bridesmaids. All wore sheath dresses with jackets, five in mint and one in jade with velvet bows. Their headpieces were matching wedding bands with bouffant veils. They carried cascades of white carnations and ivy.

Mr. Wm. Dunsmoor was the best man and ushers were Mr. Tom Gladney, Mr. Bruce Wilson, Mr. Wm. McCowan, Mr. John Allen and Mr. David Duff.

A wedding dinner and reception was held for 160 guests at the Boulevard Club, Toronto. Out of town guests were present from Barrie, Sudbury, Kitchener, Kingston, Hamilton, Yvevale, Calgary, Montreal, Ashtabula, Ohio, Newark, N.J., Philadelphia, Penn., and Schenectady, N. J.

Following a wedding trip to Jamaica, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart McCowan will make their home in the Islington Towers, Islington.

Richmond Hill's Intermediates and Junior Majorettes were entertained on Saturday at a barbeque party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hopkins, Palmer Avenue, following the centennial parade in Aurora.

Miss Katherine Wilbraham, recently injured in a car accident, has been released from Branson Hospital and is convalescing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bryant, Osiris Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Teague left on Thursday from Montreal aboard the "Empress of Britain" for their home in Watford, Herts, England, having spent two months visiting their daughters, Mrs. T. Vielsen in Toronto and Mrs. T. Ward, Driscoll Road.

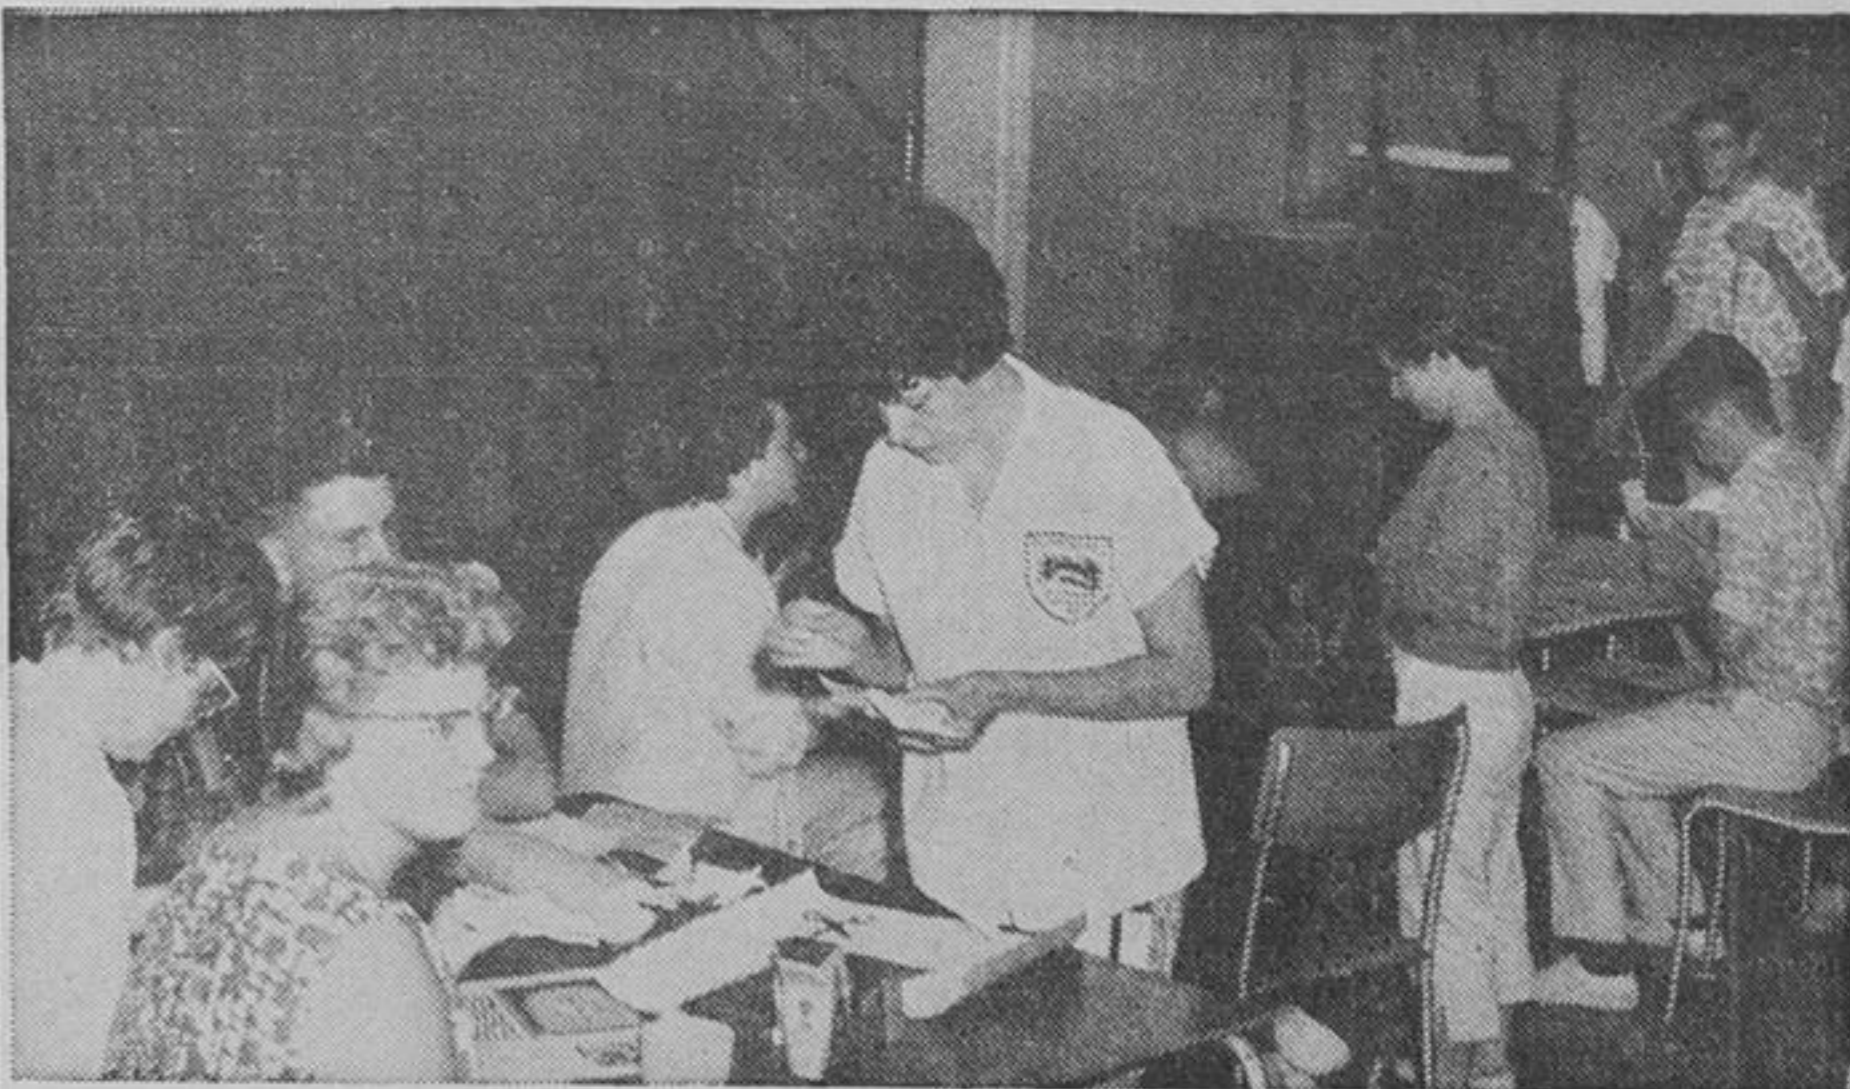

Philip Barnes, 216 Alverna Rd., was recently appointed Canadian sales organization representative for the Hammond Organ Company in Chicago. He will act as liaison between Canadian dealers and the Chicago factory and plans to travel from coast to coast beginning next week with a trip to Winnipeg, Vancouver and Victoria.

Mr. Barnes was formerly owner of Associated Music Services in the Hill.

A family reunion was held on Sunday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan, 219 Ruggles Avenue, in honour of Mrs. Donovan's uncle Mr. Alf Topping from Creve, England.

Twenty five guests, including brothers and sisters from Oshawa, Mimico and southern Ontario, many of whom Mr. Topping has not seen for 52 years, were in attendance, and many happy memories were revived and photographs exchanged.

Mr. Topping was accompanied on the trip by his son-in-law Mr. Eric Gilbert, who is visiting Canada for the first time.

Leaders In Training

Prior to the opening of Richmond Hill playground recreation programmes Monday, the course leaders, drawn from among Hill teenagers by Mrs. Jean Thomson, recreation director, held a workshop at the library to learn the skills they'll need to educate and entertain their young charges this summer.

Vacationing? Holiday visitors? Cottaging? These and other items all make interesting reading for "Life in the Hill", and the Social Editor Margot Crack would appreciate hearing from you. Call the office at TU. 4-1105, or drop in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.
