King City Notes

A few days after the eight-year-old King City Firemen's Women's Association officially disbanded, a group of women interested in continuing the group's aims formed a new organization, the King City Firemen's Ladies' Aid.

At a meeting at the home of Mrs. Len Robb, South Keele Street, the Ladies' Aid elected Mrs. Garson Bice as president, Mrs. Tom Monkman, vice-president, Mrs. Archie McDonald, secretary, and Mrs. John Monkman, treasurer.

The new group hopes to be able to meet at the fire hall and plans to meet in August to arrange fall activities. Members would like to continue the annual turkey dinner in autumn and the winter series of eucres, to raise money for supplying extras for the fire brigade.

Ladies Aid membership includes Mrs. Robb, Mrs. Jim Davidson and her daughter Mrs. Ron Robson; Miss Lucy Clubine and Mrs. Fred O'Brien.

Friends and relatives from King and Teston were invited to a picnic supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Kerr, King-Vaughan Townline.

The party, attended by about 50, was in honor of former King residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trites of Sarnia, who were visiting Mrs. Trites' sister, Mrs. "Ple" McQuarrie.

Mrs. Trites used to live in Laskay and Mr. Trites briefly taught school at Strathgairn while continuing his education toward his M.A. He teaches in Sarnia collegiate.

All Saint's Anglican Church Young People's Association concluded their season's activities with a hay ride, courtesy of the Rumble family.

Paul Rumble was the young host and his father, Mr. Austin Rumble, drove the tractor that took a hay wagon filled with 15 girls and boys touring the neighboring concession roads.

Afterward the young people returned to the home of Miss Gail Thompson for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bice and family have been holidaying at their cottage on Waubamuk Lake, near Parry Sound.

Bill Donaldson has been holidaying near Thornbury, helping friends on a farm.

Prior to the recent wedding of Miss Margaret Cairns and Mr. Richard Asbury, parties were given by the community, relatives and friends.

A miscellaneous shower arranged by Mrs. Rose Follitt was held by community residents at Laskay United Church.

The maid of honour, Miss Karen Farren, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Farren, of Snowball.

Several showers were held by relatives of the groom.

The fair-haired bride has been one of the three leaders of the C.G.I.T. in Laskay. When time permitted, before she went to work in an Aurora bank, she was an enthusiastic 4-H worker.

King Building Up But Permit Value Down 1/3

In King Township, seven more building permits were issued during the first six months of this year than were last year, but the value of new construction was about one-third the previous total.

The building department, headed by Superintendent Donald McCallum, issued 113 permits this year up to June 30. Total estimated value of all construction for the period was placed at $788,325.

Last year during the same six-month period, 106 permits were given out. Construction of King City Composite School addition and the Mary Lake Shrine raised the value of new construction to $2,130,462 for the first half of 1962.

Current permits were sought for 30 new dwellings, a drop of 16 from last year; for a school at Potageville; for King City United Church; the United Church of Canada religious conference centre on Concession 11; one factory; 37 additions and repairs; 15 private garages; 14 accessory buildings; nine miscellaneous and four removals.

Of the 30 new homes, six were in Oak Ridges, four at Holland Marsh, one in Nobleton, one in Schomberg, and 18 throughout the general township.

No new permits were sought so far this year for house-building in King City.

In spring last year, she was chosen to represent Ontario at the 4-H conference in Maryland, an interesting trip which included stop-overs in Ottawa, New York and Washington.

For the wedding the bride's aunt, Mrs. Aubrey Glass, made dresses for the bride, her two sisters, and their mother.

Men of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Nobleton, will be in charge of services Sunday morning, July 21, at St. Paul's and St. Andrew's, King City, as Rev. Gordon K. Agar begins his holidays.

The arrival of baby Kathryn Jennifer June 28 at York County Hospital was welcome news for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kell and brothers, Paul and Bobby.

Miss Doris Patton's classroom of grades 1 and 2 had an outing before school closing. They took their picnic lunches to the South Keele Street farm of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rumble. Paul Rumble treated the 35 youngsters to a tractor-drawn hay ride. Soft drinks were provided at lunch time.

The town fathers reduced their meeting to one a month. Next one open to ratepayers is Monday, July 22, at 8 p.m., in the village office.

The new sports shield on display in the drug store bears the names of eight winners of the June field day at Doris M. Patton School.

Susan Cargill and Kenneth Favns were winners in the senior division; Renate Schlag and Mark Barratt, the intermediates; Jane Seymour and David McCoppen, the juniors; and Joanne Hadwen and Ross McPhee, primary competitors.

Events included races, hop, step and jump, running broad jump, high jump and ball-throwing skill.

Track and field events included high jump; standing and running broad jump; hop, step and jump.

Novel events, supervised by teachers Mrs. Whitley Finch, Mrs. Mary Scott and Mr. Tom Cober, included skipping, tossing bean bags into a pail, hopping on one foot on a balance beam a few inches above ground; throwing pegs into a bottle, and running around baseball bases.

In volleyball tests the girls and boys demonstrated ability in serving and volleying. The students tried throwing a ball for accuracy and distance, and controlling a soccer ball.

The obstacle course provided much merriment as the girls and boys tried to make the quickest time in jumping over trash cans, crawling under a log which was suspended between two chairs, stepping into three tires, surmounting a bicycle rack, weaving among four chairs, and returning along the course to the starting point.

Bill Leighton's team came second in points, Susan McLaughlin's team third, Jan Cargill's fourth, Christine Loney's fifth, Gunter Schlag's sixth, Bruce Rumble's seventh, Jim Heaslip's eighth, and Mary Evans's team ninth.

The situation in British Guiana is one of strife and internal confusion, but Alan would like to return to British Guiana where the need for qualified persons is so great, after a course at Teacher's College, Toronto, and later his degree in teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nustra and son Nicki from Chicago, spent last Wednesday with Mrs. George Cragg and Garnet. Mrs. Nustra is Mr. Cragg's sister and was very disappointed on not seeing her brother as he has been confined to the Workmen's Compensation Hospital for several weeks receiving therapy on his arm and shoulder.

Mr. David Atcheson, Sr., King Sideroad, spent last week at Bluewater Beach, and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Atcheson, Mrs. Atcheson Sr., and David, visited for the day at the cottage near Wasaga owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson. Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Atcheson.

Robin Everall will be one year older tomorrow, July 19. We were very sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and family, Wildwood Ave., had to leave for their vacation a week ahead of time, when they had news of Mrs. Hunter's father being very ill. They are travelling to Nova Scotia.

A delicious pot-luck lunch was enjoyed by the members of the eucure club, last Wednesday, when they met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Brown, King City and ate a variety of potato salad, cabbage salad, casserole dish, cheese, homemade rolls and butter, cold meats, syrup tarts, date and nut loaf, and banana cake, and tea. Oh, my aching tummy, and I'm supposed to be on a diet.

After lunch, 12 rounds of eucure were played with Mrs. Bet Neil, winner, Mrs. Gladys Brown, second, yours truly received the lone hand receiving the booby prize. Also attending the lunch and eucure were Mrs. Brown's two daughters, Mrs. Janet White, Toronto and Mrs. Lorraine Gowan, Cyrville. Eva Willis, Dot Wayne, Vi Cameron, and Muriel LaBelle.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Walter Webb, North Road, late Thursday afternoon after a very long illness, at Newmarket Hospital.

Gerry Cook, Sinnie Van Kooten, Linda Towers, Carol Nicholls and Nancy Woolley were the local gals playing in the ball game at Maple when the KJV Girl All-Stars met the Jockey's team from Woodbine. It is anybody's guess what the score was, it depended who you were rooting for, but the large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the pranks and double-plays of the jockeys, and it was all in fun, with the proceeds of the game going to charity.

An exceptionally good game was played at the lake, with the Lake Wilcox Wildcats vs. Vandro, both with high batting averages and very good pitching on both sides. Winning pitcher was Danny Skelcher, who also hit a home run. Other homers hit by Eldon Rawding, Johnny Bell, Jim Mortimer, with the other Wildcats hitting way out. Score ended 13-5 for the Wildcats. Jerry Layhey and Red Trainer are manager and coach this season.

Several ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Josie Comfort, North Road, for a shower given for Sharon Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Moore North Road who is to be married Saturday to Mr. Anthony Edmonds of Newmarket. Sharon received many beautiful and useful gifts at the shower.

Among the guests were her mother, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Simon Provost, Mrs. Marilyn Ash, Mrs. Pearl Comfort, Mrs. Eva Willis, Mrs. Audrey Middleton, Mrs. Alma Hall, Mrs. Dawn Willis, and Mrs. Lillian Atcheson. A delicious lunch of fancy sandwiches, and a variety of cookies were served with coffee along with a special occasion cake made by Mrs. Provost.

Alan Duffield Returns
Alan Duffield has now returned to his family on Aubrey Avenue after a 12-month stay in British Guiana. Due to a breakdown in communications, he was not able to communicate with family or friends for the last two and a half months of his stay.

Alan left Canada to work on behalf of the commonwealth organization similar to the U.S. peace corps, and while there, worked with young people mainly, teaching English and other subjects, and organizing recreation. When Alan left to come home, he had to take a ferry to Dutch Guiana, followed by a two day boat trip up the coast of the colony to the capital at Paramaribo, where he was able to travel to Barbados, and then at last he was able to communicate to his family and board a plane for Toronto on the last leg of his journey.

The situation in British Guiana is one of strife and internal confusion, but Alan would like to return to British Guiana where the need for qualified persons is so great, after a course at Teacher's College, Toronto, and later his degree in teaching.

Honeymoon At Niagara Follows Laskay Wedding

Laskay United Church was decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and snapdragons for the early summer wedding of Miss Margaret Emily Cairns, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clyde Cairns, R.R. 2, King, to Richard Sidney Asbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Asbury of Aurora.

During the ceremony conducted by Rev. Martin Jenkinson, Mr. Cairns gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Helen Hunter played the organ, accompanying the church choir, which sang, "The Lord Is My Shepherd, and "O Perfect Love."

The bride wore a long, full-skirted, simply styled white dress, made with fitted bodice and sleeves. Her elbow-length veil was caught to a headpiece of lily-of-the-valley and pearls and she carried white orchids with a faint mauve tint and stephanotis.

Her three attendants were dressed alike in blue peade-sole, the gowns fashioned with bell-shaped skirts, fitted tops and short sleeves.

Miss Karen Farren, of Snowball was maid of honor, and the bride's younger sisters, Linda and Beth, as bridesmaids, had all-white chiffon pillbox hats with tiny veils and they carried white carnations and sprays of white pom pom flowers, centred with pink roses. Mr. Barry Pattison of Toronto acted as best man and ushers were Mr. Barry Wallace of King and Mr. Roy Vincent of Toronto.

About 75 guests attended the reception at the Ridge Inn, including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Glass of King, the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Asbury of Toronto, and the groom's grandfather, Mr. Lake from Powassan.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gillham of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Lake of Noranda, Quebec, were present as well as other guests from Belleville and Powassan.

The groom's sister, Miss Suzanne Asbury of Aurora, caught the bride's tossed bouquet.

Mrs. Cairns had chosen a pink linen dress with lace top and matching linen jacket, a pink chiffon pillbox and corsage of two Sweetheart roses with a gardenia.

The groom's mother was in a shrimp-colored wool suit, with chiffon-trimmed straw hat in matching shade and corsage of roses and gardenia.

For the wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Christian Island, Georgian Bay, the bride wore a pink linen suit with white lace blouse, white accessories and corsage of baby orchids.

The couple will be making their home in Toronto, where both are bank employees.
