Community Happenings In Thornhill

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Tyson of 61 Clarkehaven Avenue had as their guests recently Mr. Tyson's sister, Miss Tyson of Albuquerque, New Mexico and his nephew, John Elder of Reading, Pennsylvania. During July, the Tysons spent a week visiting in Harrisburg and Reading, Penn., doing some sightseeing. On their return they spent a few days at Port Severn, Ontario.

The Tysons, like many others of Holy Trinity parish are expecting some interesting visitors during the forthcoming Anglican Congress. As their dinner guests on August 18th, they are expecting Archdeacon P. J. Mbatia of the Diocese of Zululand, Bishop G. A. Ellison of the Diocese of Chester, England, Archdeacon and Mrs. Paul Kirkham of the Diocese of Nelson, New Zealand and Archdeacon and Mrs. Burton H. Stone, of the Diocese of Quincy, in the United States.

and is expected back in Thornhill on August 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Wise of 57 Clarkehaven Avenue, and their daughter Alita, returned recently after spending a month at their cottage on Lake of Bays, near Dorset. Alita is looking forward to attending Queen's University this fall.

The W. A. Reoch's of 71 Riverside Blvd. also spent the month of July at Lake of Bays, near Baysville. Sons Bob, Allan and Bill were along, but I gather that the boys were disappointed in the weather. "Only one really good week" said Allan.

Miss Kathy Percival, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Percival, Elgin Street, writes that she is enjoying her European holiday, and was particularly entranced by Switzerland. Kathy is back in England now busy and everything was in a turmoil, but all was taken care of without incident.

The Goodwins also visited Steam Town, New Hampshire and had a 40 mile ride on a Tennessee steam engine built in 1916. Ev was pleased to see there also a Canadian Pacific Steamer. The place is operated by a private individual who collects the steam engines as a hobby but opens it to the public. There were about 10 engines and 8 cars in the collection.

The Goodwins also spent five days with Ev's sister-in-law, Mrs. Dave Bartlett at Paxton, Mass. There the family were introduced to the gentle art of "mountain climbing" and enjoyed following some of the trails of the Appalachian Mountain Club, stopping at convenient points to enjoy the local blueberries.

Prominent U.S. Bishop To Preach Holy Trinity

A distinguished Episcopalian, the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, will preach at the 11 a.m. service in Holy Trinity Church, Thornhill, on Sunday, August 18th.

Bishop Emrich, in Toronto to attend the Anglican Congress, will honor Holy Trinity with period of eight years. Well known as a preacher and lecturer in the United States, and as the author of numerous articles and pamphlets, Bishop Emrich writes a column for the editorial page of the Sunday edition of the Detroit News, and also serves on a number of national, state and civic boards, and committees for both the church and the community. In 1958 he was made an Honorary Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth II.

RICHARD S. EMRICH Bishop of Michigan

Bishop Emrich has an interesting personal and scholastic background. He was born in Mardin, Turkey, of missionary parents, and attended Phillips Andover Academy, Brown University, the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts, Union Theological Seminary in New York City, and later the University of Marburg, Germany, receiving the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. In recent years he has received several honorary degrees from American and Canadian Universities.

The congregation of Holy Trinity and the clergy and representatives of the other Thornhill Churches have been invited to meet Bishop Emrich at a reception and buffet luncheon to be held, after the morning service, in the parish hall.

Winning Thornhill Swimmers

"Cool" Summer Tops Contest

By Margaret I. McLean
Shivering almost too much to hold it, Kelly Burkart carried off the W. M. Rawlinson Trophy for highest points in the synchronized swimming contest held by the Thornhill Synchronized Swimming Club on August 1st. Kelly had a total of 88 points. Second place was won by Liz Duncan with 83.75 points, while Lauraine Davis was third with 81.5 points.

The trophy, a handsome rose bowl, filled with American beauty roses was presented to the winner by last year's winner, Marianne Galt.

Following a day of thunder showers, the evening was decidedly cool with a strong breeze which had all the competitors with their teeth chattering and the handful of spectators nearly as cold.

The competition went off briskly, however, with each of the five competitors demonstrating four strokes, sculling, propeller, breast and side. They then did a series of figures, the porpoise, the jackknife, the somersub, the kip, the dolphin and the ballet leg.

Highest number of points for the strokes went to Lauraine Davis, with Liz Duncan second and Judy Ashworth third. In the figures, Kelly Burkart was first, Liz Duncan second and Lynn Tanquary third.

Finally, each girl performed an original solo routine, to music of her choice and in costume. Kelly placed first in this section of the competition with her brisk solo entitled "Le Cavalier Rouge". She was garbed in black suit and tights with a heraldic emblem on the front, and was given a score of 75% for her piece.

Placing second in the solo routines was Lauraine Davis for her performance entitled "Villain's Night Out". Lauraine also appeared completely dressed in black, with a black tight-fitting cap. Her dramatic lined black cape, she tossed aside as she dove into the water to go through a very effective routine, marked by particularly good timing, especially at the rousing finale. She scored 65% in this.

Third place in the solos, with 64 1/2% went to Liz Duncan. Liz appeared as "Six Gun Sal" and wore a black fringed bolero over her red suit, a red cowboy hat and carried two six guns. Her routine was both lively and effective. Her number was of considerable interest to small brother Scott, although I had the impression he was mostly concerned about the fate of the two guns, presumably his, which ended up on the bottom of the pool!

In possibly the prettiest costume, which included a boater hat and a cane, Judy Ashworth appeared as "The Entertainer". She went through a nice little soft shoe routine before entering the water. Lynn Tanquary's number was entitled "The Beachcomber".

Judges for the competition were Miss Evelyn Waterworth and Miss Kathy Malone of the Leaside Aphrodites Club, both of whom have been members of Canadian championship swimming teams. Referee was Miss Carolyn Jennings of the North York Lions Synchronized Swimming Club.

All the competitors worked very hard to prepare for the competition, appearing at the pool most mornings by 8.30 for practice and also staying after hours. Two other members of the club were prevented from taking part at the last minute through illness.

Kelly Burkart, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burkart of 7 Delair Crescent began a synchronized swimming only last summer. She worked out at the Northview Collegiate Pool all winter with the North York Lions Synchronized Club, coached by Carolyn Jennings. She intends to continue with her synchronized work again this winter and is looking forward to entering several more competitions.

Wed at St. Mary's Couple Residing In Toronto Home

A reception at the home of the bride followed the July 13 wedding in St. Mary's Anglican Church of Miss Constance Margaret Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Nash, Duncan Road, Thornhill to Mr. Dudley Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Young, 137 Duncan Road.

A graduate of Thornhill Secondary School in 1959, the bride was given in marriage by her father. For the wedding in a setting of mixed flowers, she chose a pale peach brocade satin gown with full skirt accented with panels of petals dropping toward the hem. Her veil was full length in white and she carried a white Bible with peach roses and streamers.

Rev. J. O'Neill officiated at the morning ceremony with music by Mrs. E. Cover of Richmond Hill.

Bridal attendant was Miss Prudence Sheltenham who chose a gown of pale yellow with a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Best man was Mr. Ivan Thompson, the groom's brother-in-law and usher was Mr. Harry Nash.

At the luncheon reception for 50 guests the bride's mother received in a beige lace dress with a corsage of roses and the groom's mother chose a dark brown and gold satin dress with matching coat and a corsage of roses and chrysanthemums.

For a honeymoon trip to Elephant Lake, Alberta, the bride donned a white dress with blue polka dots and a corsage of blue and white flowers.

The newlyweds are living in Toronto.
