

DONNA LESLEY WEBB IS BRIDE OF BRYAN MILLS

Enjoy Bermuda Honeymoon

Rev. James O'Neill officiated at the afternoon wedding on June 22 at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, of Miss Donna Lesley Webb, formerly of Bathurst Street, to Bryan Mills, formerly of Mill Street, Richmond Hill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb of 18 Longbridge Road, Thornhill. She is a graduate of Richmond Hill High School and is a nurse at Women's College Hospital, Toronto. The groom, also a graduate of Richmond Hill High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mills, Maryvale Cres., Richvale, and is a graphic designer employed by the CBC.

Dick Mills was his brother's best man. Ushers were Kenneth Williams, Grant Webb, Wayne Mills and Michael Bain. Traditional wedding music was sung by the wedding choir.

One hundred and fifty guests were entertained at a reception following the ceremony at the Bayview Country Club.

Following a honeymoon in Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Mills took up residence at 132 Mill Street, Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Ethel Hardwick, Bridgeport Street, is now making good progress at her home, following her second sojourn in Newmarket Hospital.

Mrs. A. Pattenden, Benson Avenue, who sustained a painful foot injury at her home, is making a slow, but satisfactory recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bayley and family from London, Ontario, visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Bayley, Yonge Street, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McCall from Vancouver recently spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McKay at their home on Arnold Street.

During their stay they visited the various historical points of interest in Ontario.

Ladies of the Richmond Hill Lawn Bowling Club came through to win the prize for high for two games at Markham Ladies' Gala Day. The rink consisted of Mrs. Peter Savage, Mrs. Norman Chatterley and Skip Mrs. Russell Lynett.

Mr. A. H. Gabb, who has spent the last six months at the home of his daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Crack, Leonard Street, leaves for England on Friday aboard the Franconia.

Following a short stay at Chandler's Ford, Hants, with his son Mr. H. G. B. Gabb and family, he will return to his home in Wraxall, Somerset.

Mr. Bill Brown who since April, 1949 has been associated with the Glass Meat Market which closed last week end, has accepted a position as manager of the I.G.A. meat department in Beaverton, where he will take up residence shortly. A past president of the Richmond Hill Lions Club, Bill has been a very active worker in service club and community projects. "The Liberal" joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Brown in wishing them much joy and happiness in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Postlethwaite, Paliser Crescent, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Cross, Wenlock Street, returned last weekend from a two week vacation at Cape Cod.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Clement and sons John and Jimmy, returned to their Mill Street home following three weeks cottage vacation at Lake Simcoe.

Miss Grace Glass of Grace's Beauty Salon will be hospitalized for a short time in St. Michael's Hospital, and during her absence, Marie Ablett, who has recently joined the staff, will be in charge.

Elected recently as president of the Aurora Drama Workshop, was Mr. Tony Miller, Harrygan Crescent, who has been associated with the group for many years in a directional and acting capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Jennings, proprietors of Variety Sea Foods, Levedale Road, returned this week from holidaying with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. McCarthy Jennings and grandchildren Gordon and Susan, at their cottage at Fairbanks Lake, in the Sudbury area.

The first annual Modelrama is being held on Saturday, August 17th at the Drive-In, 9471 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, and presented jointly by the Aristocrat Rod and Custom Club, and Harvey's Drive-In Restaurant.

This interesting exhibition will feature many vintage cars, some original, others restored or modified.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lunn and family will be leaving their Wedrick Road home on Tuesday next for Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, where Mr. Lunn will take up his appointment as superintendent of a reconstruction programme at the Fortress of Louisburg.

Every good wish for the future is extended to John and Gwen, who, during their years in the Hill, have both contributed a great deal to community life.

"Angels in Love" - a delightful comedy, is slated as the Curtain Club's fall production and an initial casting meeting was held at the theatre on Wednesday night, with a second reading tonight (Thursday).

The play is being directed by Stephen Ker Appleby, who won the coveted Director's award for "Don't Listen Ladies" at the 1961 Central Ontario Drama Festival - and under his highly imaginative direction, the play should prove to be a most successful opener for the coming season.

Painter John Agg and his wife Helen opened the new addition to their Country Gallery, at Terra Cotta, Saturday last.

Many patrons, together with visitors from Toronto, local areas and Richmond Hill attended, among whom were Mr. Harold Agg (a cousin) and family of Hillview Dr., also Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Fry, uncle and aunt of John Agg.

The design and illumination of the new gallery enhances the display of paintings by this well known artist, also the jewellery, enamelled copper, and pottery made by Mrs. Agg of clay from the site of the ancient brickfield that gave Terra Cotta its name.

Richmond Hill W. I.

Twenty eight members enjoyed a surprise tea and presentation for Mrs. H. Sorensen on Wednesday last at the home of Mrs. H. Sanderson, Centre St. Mrs. Sorensen joined the W. I. on Mrs. Sanderson's invitation, later serving as secretary treasurer. She was a very conscientious worker and will be greatly missed - and the good wishes of all the members go with her.

The family will take up residence in Toronto where Mr. Sorensen will attend the United Church Training College, preparatory to entering the ministry.

President Mrs. J. Dewsbury presented the guest of honour with an institute cup and saucer, bearing the official crest.

Cape Cod Trip Follows Moore - MaGee Nuptial

A motor trip to Cape Cod followed the August 3 wedding in St. Matthew's United Church of Miss Sandra Lynne MaGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval James MaGee, Rockport Cres., Richmond Hill and Mr. Paul Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Moore of Ajax.

Rev. M. B. Jose of Lachine, Quebec, the bride's uncle officiated, assisted by Rev. C. G. Hironson of Richmond Hill.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon organza over taffeta fashioned with long sleeves and a full skirt. The Sabrina neckline and the soft gathers of the bodice were accented with appliques of lace and sequins, ending in two points just below the waist. Her bouffant veil of nylon illusion was caught to a tiara of sequins and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias, stephanotis and pink baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Jean Thompson as maid of honour, Mrs. Gary Lind as bridesmatron and Miss Betty-Anne Willcock as junior bridesmaid were gowned alike in petal pink crepe over taffeta cord. The covered up effect was created with nylon crepe gathered at the waist and a jewel neckline, falling over the shoulders in panels. Headresses were pale pink roses attached to circular veils and they carried nosegays of multi-colored miniature blooms.

Flower girl was Miss Deborah Van Wert in a white Swiss embroidered organza frock with a pink sash. Her headdress was a bandeau of pink blooms and she carried a nosegay of miniature blooms.

Best man for his brother was Mr. Carl Moore of Ajax and ushers were Mr. James Stewart, Mr. Malcolm McFarlane and Mr. Kenneth MaGee, brother of the bride.

Mr. T. Beatty played the wedding music and Mrs. M. Bishop of Sudbury was soloist.

Following the reception at the Summit View Gardens, the new bride donned a yellow linen suit with yellow hat and accessories for the trip.

On their return, they will reside in Sudbury where they are both on the teaching staff of Adamsdale Public School.

Mr. Osborne was born in Owen Sound and Mrs. Osborne in Newfoundland. They were married by the late Rev. Peter Brice at Earlscourt United Church and before coming to Richmond Hill lived on Broadway Ave.

A family presentation will be made.
